

PERSONALITIES WHO HAVE PROMINENT PART IN HISTORY MAKING HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY

HIS DREAM OF EMPIRE BLASTED
General Chang Hsun's short-lived rebellion to restore the boy emperor to the throne of China ends in complete defeat and a price of $100,000 on the leader's head.

Copyright, International Film Service.
LEADER OF REPUBLICAN FORCES
Yuan Chi Jul, as prime minister of China, has been one of the foremost opponents of the restoration to the throne of the boy emperor of that troubled nation.

Copyright, International Film Service.
ACTING PRESIDENT OF CHINA
The recent upheaval in the Oriental government's affairs has placed Feng Kw' Chang, who was vice president of the republic, in temporary control of its policies.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
MAYOR FACES IMPEACHMENT
Recent developments in the municipal affairs of Chicago are directed by the opponents of William Hale Thompson against the chief executive of the Windy City and formal proceedings looking to his unseating are being suggested.

NEWSPAPER MAN ENTERS NAVY
One of the latest recruits to enlist in the growing band of Philadelphia members of the "Fourth Estate" who have joined the fighting forces of Uncle Sam is F. K. Escherick, of the Ledger advertising department.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
ACTIVE IN HER MAINE WORK
Dr. Rosalie Slaughter Morton, of New York, is chairman of the American Women's Hospitals, an organization created by the war service committee of the Medical Women's National Association.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
IRELAND'S 'ENVY TO AMERICA'
A new characteristic photograph of T. P. O'Connor, better known by his sobriquet of "Tay Tay," the famous Irish patriot, who is now in Washington in the interests of his fellow countrymen.

Copyright, International Film Service.
TO GUARD SOLVER OF CRIDER MYSTERY
Miss Christie Harrington, a New York and London society girl, has volunteered to protect Mrs. Grace Humiston, whose efforts cleared the problem of the slain young woman's fate. She is shown in the uniform of the Women's Defense League.

A DAY WITH THE LEADING AMERICAN CARTOONISTS AND THEIR VIEWS ON THE WORLD'S BIG EVENTS

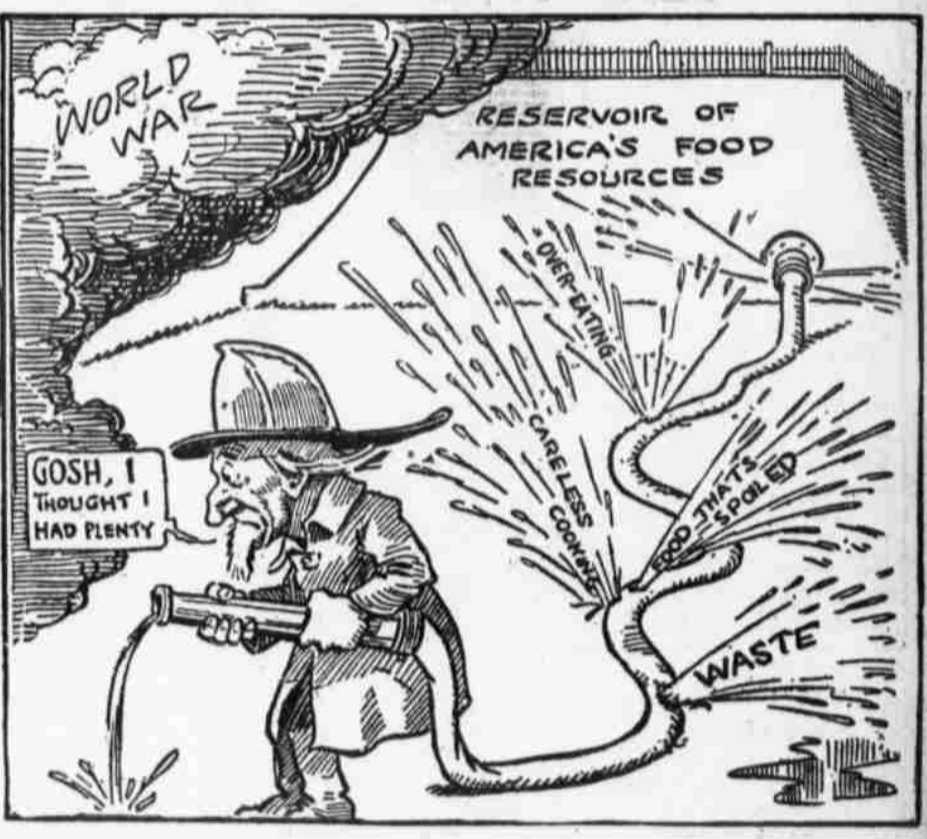

Darling, in Washington Herald.
HIGH TIME TO ENFORCE THE FOOD EMBARGO

Page, in Nashville Tennessean.
PROTECTED

Halladay, in Providence Journal.
NOT THE RIGHT HEADGEAR

STOP THE LEAKS
Akron Evening Times.

Rogers, in Knoxville Journal and Tribune.
GET BUY, UNCLE SAM!

Donaher, in Cleveland Plain-Dealer.
THE DOOM OF AUTOCRACY

Fitzpatrick, in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
OUR PRESENT FOOD CONTROLLER

Stinson, in Dayton Daily News.
THE MAN OF THE HOUR

Westerman, in Ohio State Journal.
WHO ARE THE OTHER MEN?