

SAFETY AND WELFARE BUILDING AT BETHLEHEM STEEL WORKS
Showing how a big corporation belies the epithet, "Soulless," in manifesting regard for the care of its employees.

Copyright Harris & Ewing.
Bathhouse erected at Washington by Representative Kent, of California, for use of Government officials undergoing calisthenic exercises.

A TERPSICHOREAN BIT FROM KEITH'S
These eight maidens constitute Linne's Classic Dancers, a feature of this week's offering.

Copyright Harris & Ewing.
Uncle Sam's departmental heads and assistants at the national capital going through leg exercises under direction of Walter Camp.

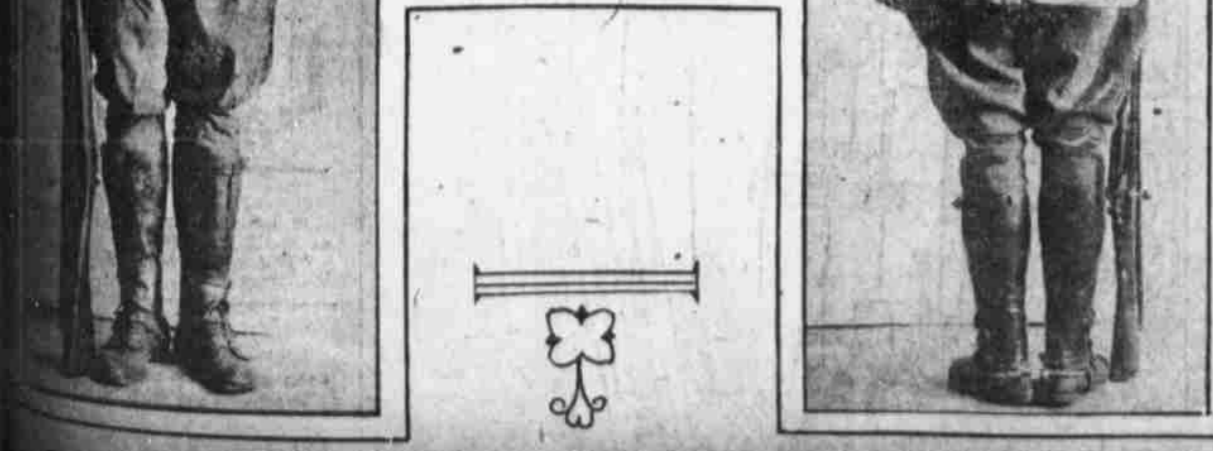

Copyright Harris & Ewing.
Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, discusses the advantages of physical training with William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury.

MILITARY BAKE OVEN AT CITY HALL
Members of the Ninth Engineers will soon show Philadelphia how the modern hard-tack is made for the city's soldier boys.

Proposed medal for valor which Congress is asked to make from the metal of two twelve-pound guns presented to the United States by the Marquis de Lafayette.

Front, rear and side views of the shrapnel-proof body armor and British individual helmet with which the United States field forces in France will be equipped for protection against the German shells. Only men engaged in dangerous work such as salient into "no man's land," cutting barbed wire, etc., wear this outfit.

BRITISH COUNTING GERMAN PRISONERS
Official photograph taken on the front in France showing soldiers of General Haig's army checking off the long stream of the enemy's forces being brought in after a recent engagement.