MISSOURI RIOTING LEADER IS JAILED

Will Be Prosecuted With Others for Violence Against Foreign Miners

TROUBLE AGAIN STARTS

FLAT RIVER. Mo., July 16.—The arrest today of J. A. Overall, of Elvins, confessed leader of the mob which has injured scores and drylen 1500 foreigners from their homes in this vicinity, marked the first step by military and civil authorities to prosecute the rioters. Nineteen other men were arrested.

A Grand Jury investigation willede be-gun today at Farmington under direction of Circuit Judge Peter Hook.

Renewed rioting broke out in the Bonn Terre lead-belt section near here late last night. About 100 American miners stoned the foreign quarters. It is reported that several thousand dollars were stolen from homes during the attack.

A detachment of thirty soldiers were rushed to the scene, but everything was quiet when they arrived.

IRWIN, Pa., July 16.

Mysterious influence, said to have been rought to bear in the last few days, has reulted in the settlement of the strike in the Herminie-Yukon coal mining district, where $000 coal miners of the Keystone Coal and Coke Company and the Ocean Coal Company walked out during the last week. State troopers who were assigned to the strike zone during the week were with-drawn today. The men resumed work this

WASHINGTON, July 16. Arrest of German rioters and inciters among the I. W. W. disturbers in Arizona and Moniana are reported to the Department of Justice today.

The men arrested have not yet been of-ficially accused of representing German in-terests, but were taken into custody un-der the provision of the President's alien enemy proclamation for examination.
Careful investigation has failed to dis-close the source of money at the rioters' disposal, and as yet no evidence of the use of German money justifying arrest of "higher ups" was been found. ure, an official said, I agitators will be held as anarchists and imprisoned until some connection can be e tablished between the central organization behind the trouble and the German paid propaganda which Government agents fee sure will be uncovered.

Captain Bradford, in charge of a force

Captain Bradford, in charge of a force of Philadelphia engineers, is of the opinion that he will be compelled to call upon more home talent within a week or two, as the demands at the Maryland site are taxing the engineers to their utmost.

Camp Meade was given its name, with other camp sites, by the Government yesterday, the namesake of the Maryland site heing General George G. Meade, Pennayivania hero, who fought in the Mexican and Civil Wars and who was in command of the Union troops at Gettyshurg as chief officer of the Army of the Potomiac.

Captain James E. Godwin, of Company L, of the Fifth Maryland Infantry, which is doing guard duty at the camp site, sald that while his men were covering a considerable amount of ground in guarding wells and other points, no trouble has been experienced except with the country boys who are prone to gather about the workmen in a spirit of curiosity.

Many of these youngsters are there in the heave of finding mainly ment. They have men in a spirit of curiosity.

Many of these youngsters are there in the hope of finding employment. They have been toid of the great possibilities at the camp. They have been informed that the Philadelphia engineers are men who are making enormous salaries, and even the carpenters are said to be working on a scale of wages that would bring them something near $60 weekly if they were to work ten hours daily every day in the week, including Sunday.
