KILBANE, CONFIDENT OF VICTORY OVER LEONARD, STARTS TRAINING FOR BIG BOUT AT LIEPERVILLE

Featherweight Champion Says One Careless Moment on Part of Leonard Will Mean His De-thronement as Lightweight Title Holder

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

JOHNNY KILBANE, boss of the featherweights, took his first real workout today in preparation for his battle with Benny Leonard at Shibe Park July 25. The little Clevelander trotted through the estates controlled by J. J. ...

Kilbane arrived here yesterday and was joined by Dunn last night. Jimmy purchased a new suit recently and made the Cleveland in it. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dunn and Downes.

Kilbane Is Confident
There is a feeling of confidence in the Kilbane camp, but no one seems more confident than Johnny himself. "I am going to beat Leonard the same as I have my other opponents," he said, "and it will be done as soon as possible. I watched Benny carefully the night he knocked out Welsh and I believe I know the proper way to box him. He is clever, a hard hitter and has a good defense, but he will need all of these things to get by."

"Some time during the bout he will leave his jaw unprotected. As soon as that happens, if it is for only a second, I will strike that is the opportunity I shall be looking for and as soon as it occurs, there will be a new lightweight champion. I believe I can do it better now than at any other time in years. He has been out of doors all summer, playing baseball and tennis, with an occasional bout of boxing. He is in the time. He is tanned like a ball player and appears strong and healthy. He weighs 127 pounds now, but hopes to put on a few pounds before July 25. He plans to enter the ring weighing as close to 130 as possible.

Dunn Expects Knockout
Jimmy Dunn, who discovered Johnny when he was a ninety-eight-pound kid wearing short trousers and taught the champion all that he knows, says that Leonard will have a very hard time of it after he gets into the ring. "There is no doubt in my mind that Kilbane will outpoint Leonard," he said, "but I want to see a knockout. Johnny can punch harder, faster and with more accuracy than the

EXPECT TENER TO RESIGN AT ONCE
National League President Will Aid U. S. in Food Conservation

BEGINS WORK MONDAY
WASHINGTON, July 17.—"I will take the message to Garcia," is the way John K. Tener, president of the National Baseball League, today described his entry into the food conservation project. As he has determined to devote his entire attention to this work, his resignation as president of the National League will likely be tendered at once.

Beginning next Monday, Tener will take up the duties of ordinating all the fraternal organizations of the country in the work of food conservation. In this work he will be associated with George Fleming Moore, southern grand commander of the Scottish Rite.

Curley's Injunction Against Willard Denied in New York
NEW YORK, July 17.—James Willard is free today to appear with his clerks anywhere he chooses. A decision handed down by Justice Hendrick denied the application of Jack Curley for an injunction against the heavy-weight champion enjoining him from appearing with his clerks until the expiration of his contract with Curley.

Battling Lahn, of New York, has discovered that a boxer can't feel much with a motor bus and keep active. He recently received a bruised nose in an auto accident. Four matches had to be canceled.

Battling Levinsky's bout with Jack Dillon in Boston tonight has been canceled. The boxer it is said contracted a cold in his back. This is the third time Dillon has called off a bout with Levinsky.

Allie Nelson found Camp Wilmater, Atlantic City, a swell training camp. He boxed three rounds with Ed Geary at Wilmater daily, while Mrs. Wilmater held the watch.

Jimmy McCabe handles Buck Taylor twice in their bout in Baltimore Saturday afternoon, says Phil Gleason, who returns tonight 15 and 20 seconds in counting. McCabe never looked better, Gleason says.

Johnny (Battling) Reddy wants to box Battling Leonard, Tommie Boyle, Danny Brown and Young Buck Fleming. He is a barkeep, writes Manager Charles H. Russell.

Eddie Willis, a lightweight, issues a sweeping challenge to all in his class. He gives the chance to pick his opponents. Willis would like to box Battling Mack or Charley Walters.

Cartoon about Virginia Tobacco. Characters are talking about import duty and quality. One says: 'O-YAAS ALL MY CIGARETTES ARE MADE OF FOREIGN TOBACCO SO?' Another replies: 'THE POOR FELLOW WHO PAYS OUT HIS MONEY FOR IMPORT DUTY WHEN HE THINKS HE'S GETTING QUALITY'. A third says: 'SURE I VIRGINIA TOBACCO PAYS NO IMPORT DUTY—IT GIVES YOU FULL MONEY'S WORTH IN TASTE AND QUALITY'. A fourth says: 'IF THAT GINK IS GETTING HIS MONEY'S WORTH—THEN 2 AND 2 MAKE 7'.

Smokers of cigarettes of foreign tobacco can't get full value in taste and quality, because some of their money must go to cover the cost of Import Duty on the tobacco. But that doesn't go for Piedmonts. There's a cigarette that can give you better quality—the reason is it's VIRGINIA TOBACCO, and Virginia tobacco pays no Import Duty. And if you want character—that lively "snap" that belongs to Virginia tobacco alone—ask for "a package of Piedmonts, please." Leggett & Myers Tobacco Co.
