

WAR, RED CROSS WORK AND SPORTS ENGAGE PHILADELPHIA AND ITS IMMEDIATE ENVIRONS

Photographs by Evening Ledger Staff Photographers.

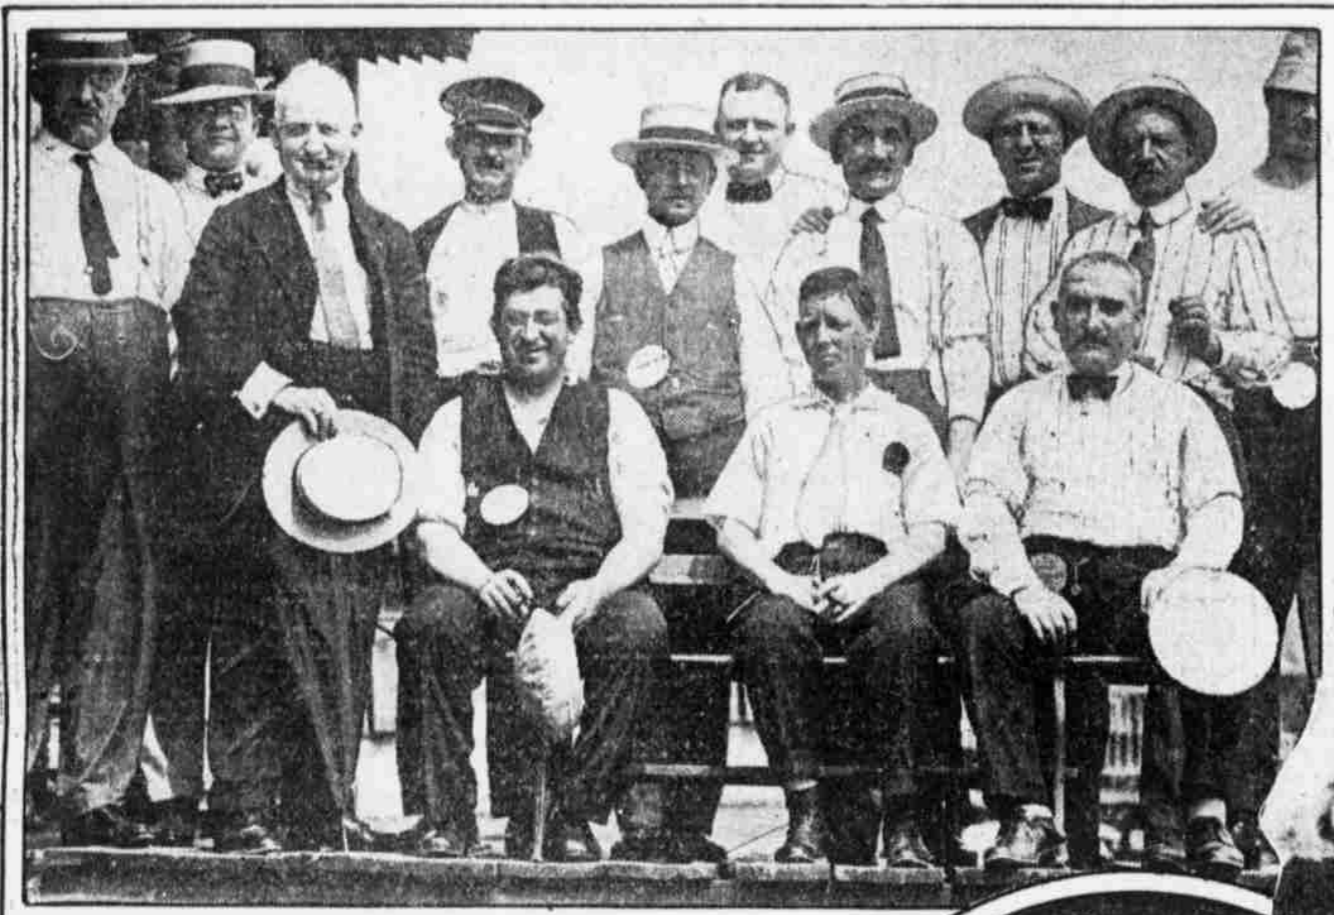

NEW JERSEY WOMEN PICKING LINT FOR BANDAGES

Members of the Westville Branch of the Gloucester County Chapter of the Red Cross busy at their work of mercy. Mrs. J. Middleton is chairman of hospital supplies; Mrs. L. Plummer, vice chairman; Mrs. J. Darlington, treasurer, and Mrs. R. Berry, chairman of membership.

THE FINISHED PRODUCT—A HOSPITAL SHIRT FOR A SOLDIER
Mrs. J. Middleton, chairman of hospital supplies for the Westville Branch of the Red Cross, exhibits a sample of her associates' handiwork.

CONSTABLES ENJOY ANNUAL OUTING AT ESSINGTON

All are members of the Elected Constables' Association who partook of a day's fun at the Idlewild Club. In the picture are S. Heimerburg, C. G. Robertson; W. G. Yearsley, treasurer; John Clark, T. Ertel; S. A. Smith, secretary; Lewis Green, Harry Benz, B. Herman and J. McGettigen.

Bathing suits seem more and more to be emulating the styles of the ballroom. The photograph shows an Atlantic City creation.

KEEPING TABS ON THE "BULL'S-EYES" AT ESSINGTON
P. S. Richards is scoring the work of Company F, Ninth Regiment Engineers, on the rifle range below the city.

BREAKS SWIMMING RECORD

Ernest W. Sopp won the Huss Cup when he covered a mile over the Schuylkill River course in 24 minutes 22 1-5 seconds.

AT BAT FOR STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

Letters, of the department store nine, is waiting for the opposing mountman to put one over.

MEMBERS OF THE SECOND FIELD ARTILLERY AND EQUIPMENT AT THEIR FIRST REAL WAR CAMP NEAR NOBLE

The bivouac along Old York road was necessitated by the inadequacy of the regiment's armory upon the occasion of the guardsmen being summoned for the muster into Federal service.