WORKMAN IS ARRESTED WITH WIRE UNDER SHIRT

Charged With Larceny and Bound Over On Bond for Further Hearing

For some time Charles Kelly, superin tendent of the construction of the nurses home, which is being built at the Philadelphia Hospital, has been missing sheet cop per. He suspected that some of the work men on the building were taking the copper, as he had a night watchman for several days. The police of the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue station were asked to assist him, and District Detective Thornton was sent. Thornton and Kelly watched the men leaving and finally noticed watched the men leaving and finally noticed that one looked considerably fatter than he did when at work. Walter.Willamson, thirty-five years old, of 1118 Harmer street, was arrested, and it was found he had about twenty-five pounds of copper concealed under his shirt and trousers. Joseph Thompson, thirty-two years old, of 2122 Kater street, who was with him, was also arrested today. They were held under $600 bail for a further hearing on July 24 by Magistrate Harris at the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue station on a charge of larceny. About 300 pounds of copper had been taken from the operation.

FOUR EVENING LEDGER EMPLOYES ARE DRAWN

Sewell Moore, Louis H. Jaffe, L. Holtsizer and Joseph Hallahan Selected

Four members of the Evening Ledger staff were among those whose numbers were drawn early in the list today. Two of them are married and, for that reason, probably will not be drafted for the frst army group. All four, nowever, expressed satisfaction and willingness to go to the front.

Among the first hundred numbers drawn in the draft lottery was 427, held by Sewell Moore, an artist on the staff of the Even-ING LEDGER. Moore, who is twenty-four years old, lives at 803 Spruce street. He is a Democrat, and, of course, with the present Administration heart and soul. As the number that will send him to the trenches came over the wire, Moore calmly smiled and said, "That's me."

"Somebody has to go," he said, "and it might just as well be me. War is no joke, but it is much better to be in the first army drawn and see service at once, for Among the first hundred numbers drawn army drawn and see service at once, for eventually, I think, nearly all the young men will be called.

Louis H. Jaffe, assistant sporting editor of the EVENING LEDGER, was quite elated when he learned that his serial number had been drawn early. "Swell stuff," he said, and smiled broadly.

Jaffe has been anxious to enlist, but refrained from doing so because of the pleas of his mother. A younger brother, David, at one time also employed in the sports department of the EVENING LEDGER, is a midshipman and is taking his first cruise on board the United States steamship Ne-vada. He was appointed to Annapolis last June by Congressman William H. Vare.

The third member of the Eventro Ledger staff to have his serial number drawn was L. Holtsizer, head of the Art Department. He has been employed by the Ledger for more than ten years.

Holtsizer, although feeling that service in the conscripted army would be a privilege, said that he probably would claim exemp-tion, as he has a wife dependent upon him for support. His home is at 6153 Catharine

The fourth staff man to be drawn was Joseph Hallahan, a "router" in the engrav-ing department. Hallahan's number, 1732 was in the second hundred group. married and lives at 1833 South Cecil street.
"Well. I'm ready," he said with a smile when told that his number had been drawn. "Of course the fact that I am married may make some difference, but I have no children and when they need me. I will be satisfied and glad to go."

ANOTHER CAMDEN HOLD-UP BY NEGRO HIGHWAYMEN

Robber Asks for Match and Then "Covers" Victim

Another hold-up by a negro highwayman was reported to the Camden police today. The victim, James D. Moore, of 1609 Mount Ephraim avenue, was returning home last night when a negro accosted him at Ferry road and Mount Ephraim avenue, asking for a match. When Moore reached into his pocket for a match the highwayman pointed a gun at his head and began to search his pockets. When Moore attempted to knock the gun away the negro fired, but the bullet went wild. The arrival of a farmer in an automobile frightened off the negro. Moore los only twenty-five cents and two keys. This is the second Camden hold-up since Martain Hageney, of 418 Reed street, Phil-adelphia, was held up and killed by a negro at Twenty-seventh street and Mariton pike just a week ago. The police have arrested one suspect for this murder, but no clues have been found for the other hold-up.

French had disappeared, and terday, when he took a chance on the police having forgotten him. He was held under $600 bail for a further hearing on July 24 $600 bail for a further hearing on July 24 by Magistrate Harris, at the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue police station

HEARING DATE TO BE SET FOR G. O. P. COMMITTEEMEN

McCaughn-Crane Conference Today. Jones-Flaherty Claims to Be Heard Tonight

Blakely D. McCaughn and Michael 1 Crane, McNichol and Vare contestants, re spectively, for committeeman from the Twenty-fourth Ward, will meet in the office of Register of Wills Sheehan today to set a date for the hearing of their con-flicting claims. Sheehan is secretary of the contest subcommittee of the Republican City Committee.

The hearing of the rival claims of William H. Jones, the Vare leader, and John Flaherty, the McNichol representative, of the Thirteenth Ward, will be held tonight at Republican Campaign Headquarters, Eleventh and Chestnut streets, before the special subcommittee.

The belief is that a contribution to organization harmony may be made by seat-ing McCaughn and Jones, which would be a fifty-fifty solution of the situation. Sheehan, at the conference this morning, it is believed, will work to that end.

Sheehan's colleagues on the committee of inquiry are Congressman Peter E.

AUTO WRECK VICTIM DIES

Thomas Elder, of Haddonfield, Succumbs to Injuries Suffered June 30

Thomas Elder, forty-five years old, of 34 Ellis street, Eaddonfield, died in the Cooper Hospital, Camden, today from injuries suf-fered on June 20, when an automobile in which he was riding was wrecked near Waterford. Elder and three others had gone on a joy ride in the automobile owned by Charles R. Hammell, vice president of Hammell, vice president of the Ruby Kid Company

Isaac Gilbert, chauffeur for Mr. Hammell who took the machine without his em-ployer's permission, was arrested after the accident and released under $1000 ball. Prosecutor Kraft today announced that he would have this bail increased to $2500 as a result of Elder's death. Raymond and Roy King, of 719 Clinton street, Camden, the two other members of the party, were dis-charged from Cooper Hospital last week.

the Senate office building. A huge blackboard with 1000 squares was erected on e side of the room.

THREE CHECKERS

As each tiny capsule was pulled out by the blindfolded men it was handed to a uniformed officer. He announced the num-ber in a loud voice. Three checkers en-tered it upon immense taily sheets. An-other chalked it upon the blackboard.

As soon as the first thousand numbers were chalked up the blackboard was taken outside and photographed "close up." Thousands of copies of each picture are being made.

These indelible and unchangeable records vill constitute the lists for the local exemption boards.

Two blindfolded men worked simultane-ously drawing and handing to two an-nouncers. Officials estimated it would take nearly twelve hours to complete the draw

This Store Will be Closed All Day To-morrow

To-morrow will be the third of this summer's Saturday holidays, so much appreciated by our Store family, every member of which also appreciates the spirit in which our customers accept the cutting off of one shopping day each week.

We shall be on duty Monday morning, stronger and brighter after the two days' rest. The Store is cheery and well ventilated, and our stocks of summer merchandise attractively complete.

The Monday morning newspapers will have news of many special values as well as of some new fashions.
