

THE CAMERA OFTEN EXCELS THE REPORTER IN ITS GRAPHIC PORTRAYAL OF THE NEW

FORERUNNER OF A BOUNTIFUL CROP OF GOLDEN GRAIN
Harvesting begins right at the doors of Philadelphia, as is shown by this fortunate Ardmore farmer garnering his first load of "July wheat."

READY TO SET OUT FOR FRANCE ON UPBUILDING ERRAND
A section of the Haverford Friends' unit, which is about to set sail for the purpose of restoring the war-desolated villages of the sister republic.

KEEPING TIME WITH THE LIBERALITY OF MAIN-LINE RESIDENTS
Leaders of the campaign to raise $35,000 for the Ardmore Free Library report the progress of their efforts by means of this clock at the corner of Lancaster and Cricket avenues.

KILBANE AND HIS LITTLE "TRAINER"
The kiddies of Leiperville are great admirers of the feather-weight champion and "help" him in his preparations for his coming bout with Leonard.

A PRACTICE SCOUTING CRUISE OFF THE CAPES
Members of the Coast Defense Reserves off to familiarize themselves with the surrounding waters about their station Cape May.

FIREMEN EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO THEIR FRIENDS
Representatives of the City Firemen's Protective Association, Local Union No. 15,410, of resolutions to perpetuate the memory of those who died in the campaign for better living and working conditions. Left to right: James J. ...

LOGAN GIVES A DAY IN HIS HONOR

Stanley Willis, who today plays his last game with the Logan baseball team before going abroad with the ...

A DEVOTEE OF NATURE'S BEST REJUVENATOR
Fresh from an invigorating dip in the ocean, this young Philadelphian is convinced that the Boardwalk is not the greatest of Atlantic City's attractions.

A COMPETITOR IN THE FINE VALLEY TOUR