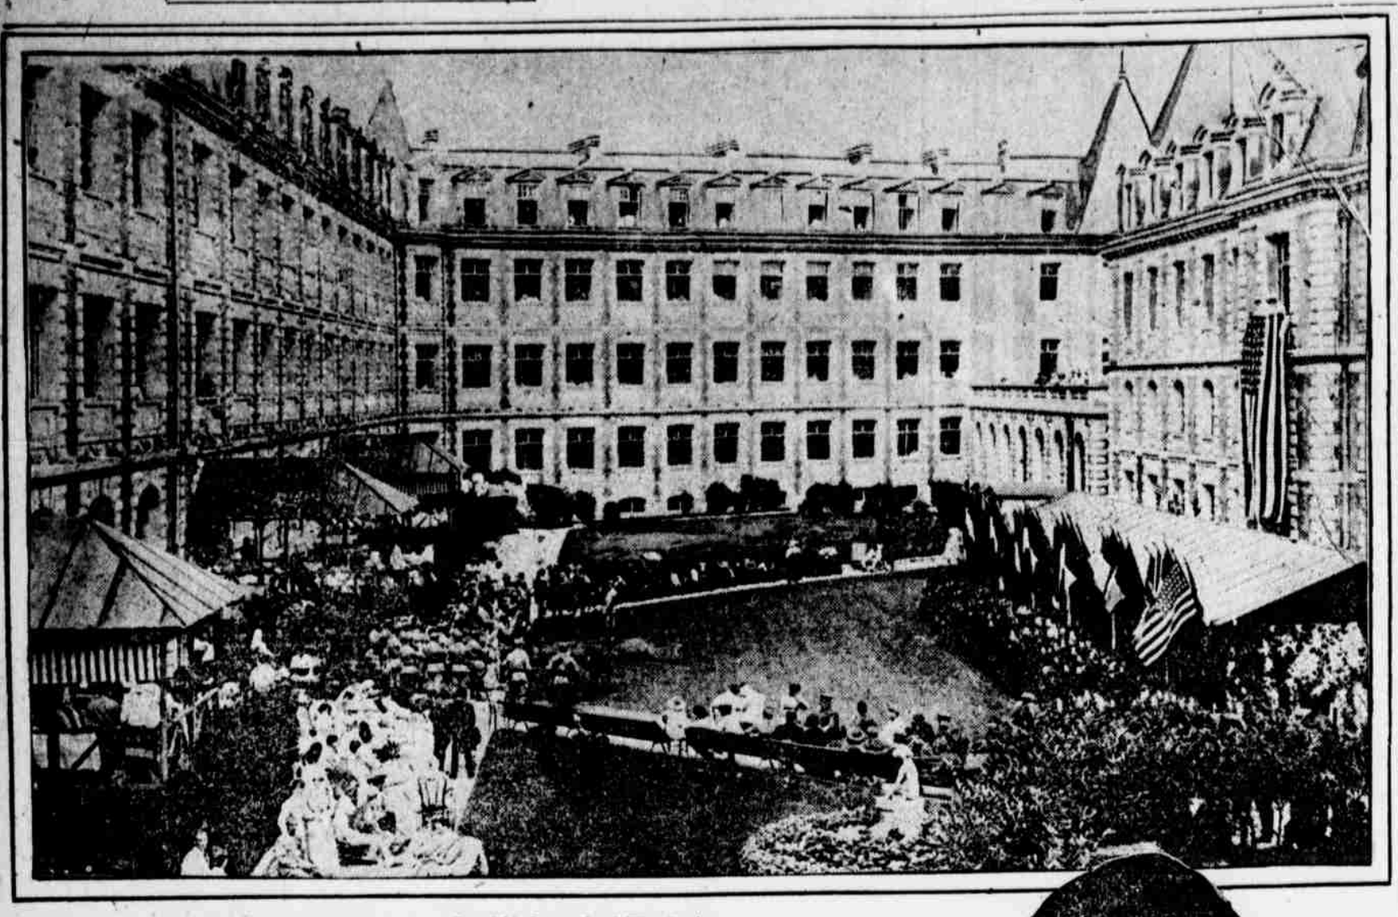
SATURDAY
July 21, 1917

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

PICTURES AND SCRAPPLE



Copyright, International Film Service.

COURTYARD OF AMERICAN HOSPITAL, NEUILLY, FRANCE

It is this hospital that will soon serve "Black Jack" Pershing's force of United States soldiers who have gone across the Atlantic to fight for world-wide democracy. The institution will be formally transferred to General Pershing tomorrow. This splendid photograph shows wounded soldiers listening to a concert in the courtyard.

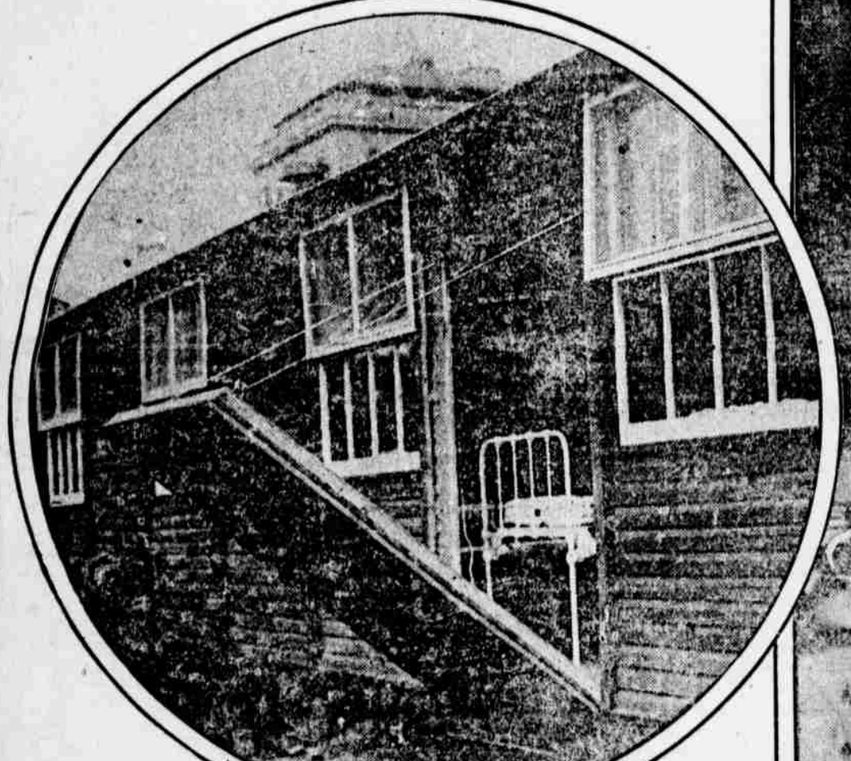


Photo by American Press Association

PORTABLE BASE HOSPITAL IN NEW YORK

This is the first institution of its kind in America. It stands at Sixty-fourth street and Avenue A, New York city, opposite the famous Rockefeller Institute.

TEACHING THE ART OF PRESERVING

Mrs. John Solenberger, instructor in preserving at the Twentieth Century Club, of Lansdowne, Pa., is shown giving one of her lessons to young women of that town.

WANTS AN EARLY START FOR FRANCE

MILITANT SUFFRAGIST ARRIVES HOME

The Young Lady Across the Way

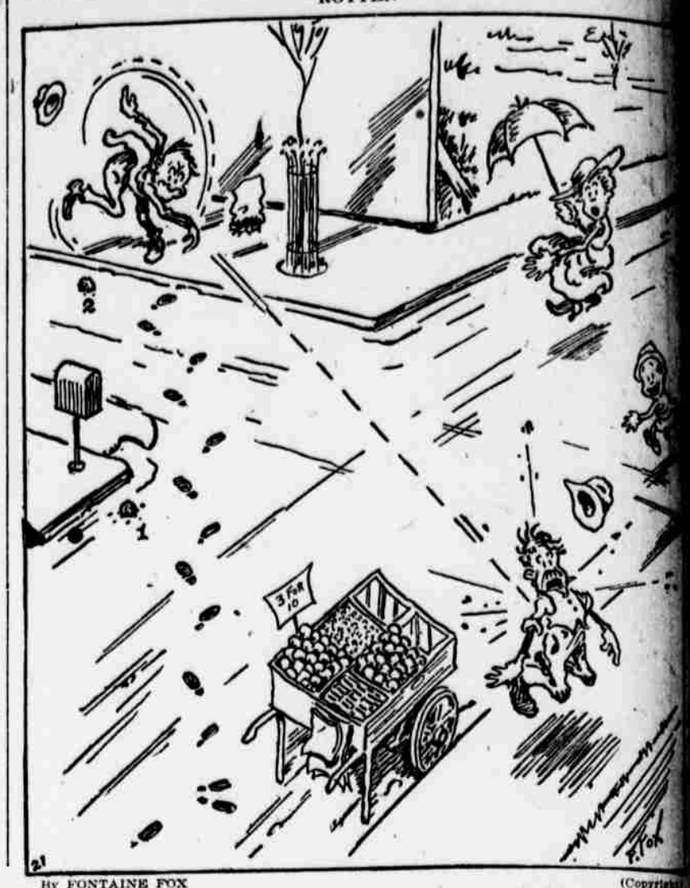
The young lady across the way says she's afraid business must be feeling the pinch of war, as she overheard her father say that if these conditions kept up six months longer all his liabilities would be wiped out.

Maybe Uncle Had It

'20—I wonder what time it is. I was invited out and my watch isn't going.

'19—Why, what's the matter, wasn't your watch invited?—Lehigh Burr.

PUZZLE—WHAT DID THE TERRIBLE TEMPERED MR. BANG DO WH... THE THIRD AND LAST PEACH WHEN ALL THREE HE BOUGHT WE... ROTTEN



By FONTAINE FOX (Copyright)

THE PADDED CELL

An Auspicious Collection

"Brederen and sisteren," concluded the Reverend Washington Johnson, "I hab demonstrated abstrusely dat de Lord hates a thief—dat he is not to be satisfied by no offering, thefo' I beg de pusson or pussons who stole yo' pastor's hog to make no contribution at de circulation of de offertory platter."

Note—The collection beat all previous records.—Princeton Tiger.

Fancy! Bread!

—Bystander.

"'Ide that crust, 'Erb! 'Ere's another o' them breadless motors a-comin'!"

The Modern Drama

First Star—The stage is a paying business nowadays.

Second Meteor—Yes, considering the price of eggs and potatoes.

Without a Doubt

—London Opinion.

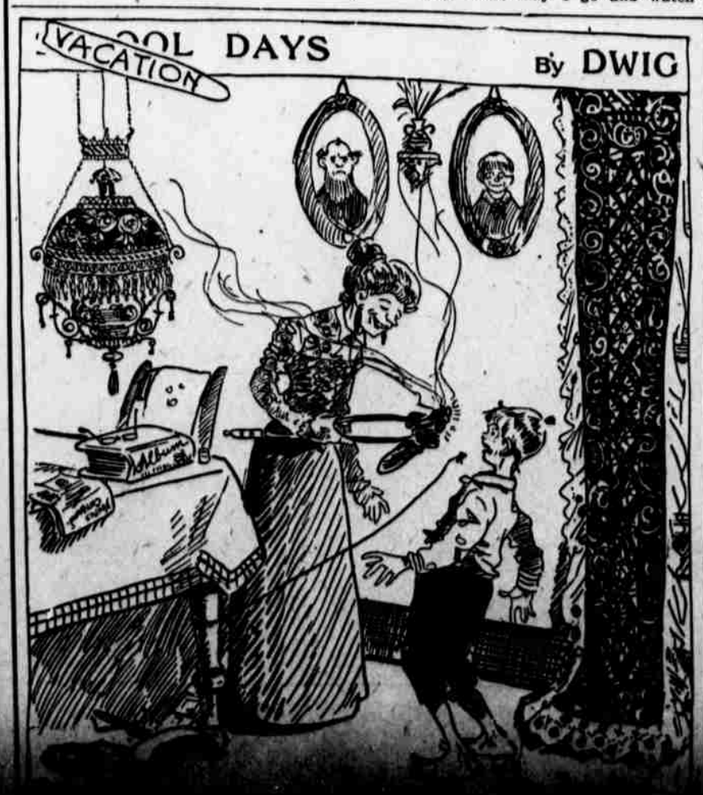
Old Lady—I hear the Huns have got a gun that can kill a man fifty miles away.

Jack—Lor' bless yer, mum, all our guns want to know is the Hun's name and address, and we can get 'em every time.

HOLIDAY AMUSEMENTS

—Passing Show.

Billy—Mother, may I go and watch the minstrels' funny man?
Mother—No, dear; you mustn't.
Billy—Well, may I go and watch uncle bathing?



Nuff Said

I saw a young lady out very late,
She wore a four shoe for a foot No. 8,
She hobbled and wobbled like a goose out of water,
And yet she was grand—a millionaire's daughter.

Our Boys

—Passing Show.

Detected Juvenile Criminal—It's right, Robert; 'ands off—I'll go ga...

What He Found

Mutt—I looked up your fa... tree, my friend, and what di...