

Privates Schab and Murphy, Company B, First Regiment, indulge in a boxing bout at their camp near Bridge-water, Pa.

TWO VAUDEVILLE VISITORS OF THE CURRENT WEEK
One of the principal acts on the Globe's bill is furnished by Winkle & Dean, who make their pictorial debut above.

WATCHING THEIR HUSBANDS ON THE PINE VALLEY LINKS
Mrs. H. L. Edwards (left) and Mrs. Jerome Travers are not in the "unknown-wives of well-known-men" class in the golf world.

CAMP WANAMAKER'S COMMANDER AND SOME OF HIS AIDS
This group of officers of the Second Artillery, as posed for the Evening Ledger photographer, comprises, left to right: Colonel Turner, Lieutenant Colonel Ross, Lieutenant King, Chaplain McPetridge, Captain Lockhart, Lieutenant E. F. Jordan and Lieutenant Davis.

Photo by American Press Association.
PUTTING THE LAST TOUCHES TO NEW ARMY OFFICERS
At the Plattsburg training camp every student is compelled to become efficient in the "delivery" of hand grenades over parapets and other possibilities of trench warfare.

A SAILOR'S BERTH IS NO FEATHER-BED JOB
For confirmation, address "Johnny" Tittel, now training at the camp near Cape May with other members of last season's University of Pennsylvania baseball team.

A PAIR OF VOCALISTS APPEARING AT KEITH'S
They are Cuddle and Georgia, two very important members of the combination known as Gus Edwards's Song Evans.

DO YOU KNOW THE LUCKY EXCURSIONIST?
Two dollars will be awarded to the woman "interred" in the photograph if she will call at the Evening Ledger office.