

NEVER CLEANED SINCE LAST SUMMER

Evening Ledger Continues to Receive Complaints of Indignant Wives and Business Men

The EVENING LEDGER continues to receive letters complaining of alleys as filthy unsanitary as Nelly's alley at Fourth and Winton streets.

These letters are not only from indigent housewives, but from business men as well.

One man writes: "I have had some trouble in my alley in the rear of 900 to 910 Arch street, which extends from 46 to 52 North 12th street."

Another letter reads: "I have had some trouble in my alley in the rear of 900 to 910 Arch street, which extends from 46 to 52 North 12th street."

The regular ash collecting day on this street is Thursday. I have had some trouble in my alley in the rear of 900 to 910 Arch street, which extends from 46 to 52 North 12th street."

Another letter reads: "I have had some trouble in my alley in the rear of 900 to 910 Arch street, which extends from 46 to 52 North 12th street."

Other complaints are in the hands of the Highway Bureau and the division of sanitation of the Board of Health.

The division of sanitation has co-operated promptly in every instance with the Evening Ledger in investigating complaints and having conditions improved.

The following complaint and the report thereon by the sanitation inspector is a case in point:

"As a reader of your paper, I noted that you attempted to clean up side alleys in unsanitary conditions. There is such an alley on Fourth street between Daily and Wolf that has not been cleaned for at least three weeks."

I made an investigation of above complaint. The alley lies in rear of houses on north side of Daily street and north side of Wolf street. The main entrance to the alley is on the east side of north street between Daily and Wolf streets.

The alley is in a very filthy condition. It is paved with concrete and grading of surface causing stagnant pools of water to form on surface. The alley is also filthy from garbage being thrown into it. I recommend that this alley be thoroughly cleaned and graded at once.

I also recommend that garbage notices be served in all houses having use of this alley and without delay, and that these notices be served up and those not complied with be prosecuted.

I also recommend that all wells in block bounded by Daily, Wolf, Third and Fourth streets be cleaned, filled and abandoned without delay and this will abate the nuisance of surface water running down alley.

I also recommend that this alley be cleaned as soon as possible, and as soon as money is available that the alley be repaved and graded with cement.

JAMES J. WALKER, Special Inspector.

What to Buy, What Not, in City's Produce Market

TOMATOES PLENTIFUL TOMATOES have been arriving in large quantities from New Jersey. They are selling comparatively cheap. From now on the market will be supplied with tomatoes and they may be expected to become gradually cheaper.

Squash and green corn also are coming from New Jersey and are in the plentiful column.

The five vegetables which have been so plentiful—cabbage, lettuce, romaine, celery and onions—are still selling just about at cost in the wholesale market.

Watermelons are very plentiful and cheap.

ABUNDANT Tomatoes, Squash, Green corn, Cucumbers, Romaine, Cabbage, Watermelons, Potatoes, Eggplant.

NORMAL String beans, Cantaloupes, Peaches, Garlic, Okra, Parsley, Peppers.

SCARCE Cauliflower, Strawberries, Pineapples, Grapefruit, Lima beans, Peas, Asparagus, Kale.

WHOLESALE FISH MARKET REPORT Larger supply of bluefish on the market today and the price fell considerably.

Table with 2 columns: Price per pound wholesale, Cents. Items include Dressed weak, medium, large; Round trout; Croakers; Porgies; Sea bass; Butterfish; Halibut; Steak cod; Flukes; Larkle hake; Medium hake; Spanish mackerel; Bluefish; Haddock.

MILITARY CUT FOR CLOTHES NEW YORK, July 25.—Before the Men's Clothing Designers adjourned their national convention this afternoon they did cruel things to men's togs for the coming season—all in the interest of war.

They built some military coat suits billowing out like the bulge of a submarine and produced some wasplike waist effects that would do credit to a Russian dancer.

Some observers took one look at the outlandish styles for 1917-18 and then went out and enlisted.

LILLIAN RUSSELL AND BLANCHE BATES NEXT?

Famous Beauty and Gifted Actress, Report Says, Will Be "Shot"—Other News

By the Photoplay Editor

Actors of eminence who never invaded the movies are proportionately as numerous as American boys who never saw a ball game.

Now the report arises that a celebrated stage beauty, of whom admirers have quoted "Aren't you a little bit of a star?" is about to take a second dip into the waters of photoplay, an unusual proceeding for players generally "stay put" or else forego the game altogether after a trial.

This stage beauty is Lillian Russell, and the rumor is pretty well defined that an impending offer will be made to her by a new firm, which does not care to be mentioned at this stage of the proceedings.
