

PHILADELPHIA CONTRIBUTES A LION'S SHARE OF THE INTERESTING NEWS OF THE DAY

AN ARMY OF CARPENTERS CALLED IN TO MAKE MINEOLA AVIATION SCHOOL THE GREATEST IN THE WORLD. Passage by Congress of the vast appropriation for aeronautics has been the signal for speeding up the work of enlarging the great Long Island training camp. Hammer and saw men from all parts of the United States have been enlisted for the task of constructing the barracks for the student aviators and hangars for their airplanes.

AMONG THE KEITH OFFERINGS FOR THIS WEEK IS A CLEVER EPISODE BY MR. AND MRS. MEL-BURNE

A WAR SCENE ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF PHILADELPHIA. Being the joint tactical encampment at Betzwood of students from the Hill School in Pottstown and an ambulance detachment from the Allentown training camp. In the foreground is one of the bomb-proof trenches constructed by the Hill School lads; in the background the Red Cross cars of the Allentown ambulance drivers.

Superintendent Dix, of the Philadelphia Vacant Lots Cultivation Association, gives a pair of boy agriculturists some valuable pointers in the care of a truck patch.

I'da Greenwood, of the Kensington Y. W. C. A., who carried off third honors in this year's indoor fancy diving championship meet.

THREE LEDGER MEN WITH TROOP A, PHILADELPHIA CAVALRY are awaiting further orders at their armory, Thirty-second street and Lancaster

STANLEY CULLEN ENLIVENS THE BILL AT THE CROSS KEYS THIS WEEK

THE MOST POPULAR CORNER OF THE HILL SCHOOL CAMP AT BETZWOOD. Of course, it is the field kitchen, which recalls that just at this time the United States Army is in dire need of patriotic men to serve in the unromantic positions of cooks.