

THE WAR AND ITS INTERESTING SIDELIGHTS VIVIDLY DEPICTED BY NEWSY PHOTOGRAPHS

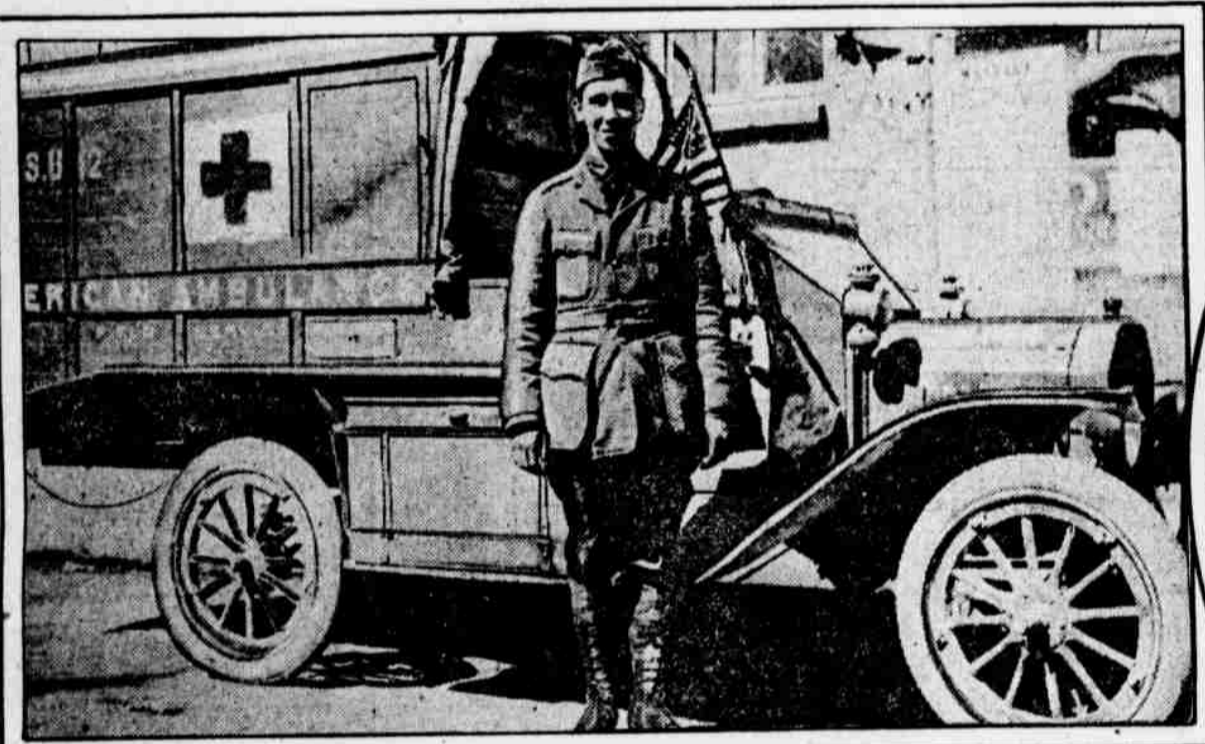

REMARKABLE ACTION PICTURE OF A BATTLE IN PROGRESS ON THE AISNE
French troops advancing in the region of Juvincourt pause to dig in after having attained their initial objectives.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

A FIRST-LINE "COMMUNITY" TRENCH PROTECTED BY BARBED WIRE ABOUT ONE MILE FROM ST. THOMAS

AN AMBULANCE DRIVER AT SEVENTEEN
Julian Bryan, of Titusville, Pa., son of S. S. Bryan, hardware man and oil producer who is spending the summer at Bay Head, N. J. Young Bryan is now homeward bound from France with the intention of entering Princeton University in the fall.

A FRENCHWOMAN'S
FRUITLESS SEARCH
FOR HER PRECIOUS VALUABLES CARRIED OFF BY THE GER-MANS.

BABY CARRIAGE USED IN A NEW CAPACITY BY A POILU
This time-honored vehicle has been commandeered by the French soldier for the purpose of conveying food and drink to his comrades holding the trenches at Verdun.

CORNELL "PROF" AT THE FRONT
Lanning Lloyd, also known as a South American explorer, drives an American ambulance in France.

A PEEP AT THE GERMANS THROUGH A PERISCOPE
Clarence Faith, of Boston, a member of the American Ambulance Corps in France, is testing this valuable device used in trench warfare.

SAMMEES PREPARING A BIT OF "CHOW" AT THEIR TRAINING CAMP BEHIND THE BATTLE LINE
IN NORTHERN FRANCE.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.