

A PAGE OF PHOTOGRAPHS DEVOTED TO TOPICS OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO PHILADELPHIAN

PHILADELPHIA ENGINEERS LIVE IN TENTS WHILE DIRECTING WORK AT CAMP MEADE
They comprise the advance guard of men from this city who soon will inhabit the great training camp at Admiral, Md.

WORK RUSHED ON CAMP FOR PENNSYLVANIA GUARD
Scores of carpenters are engaged in building barracks at Camp Hancock, near Augusta, Ga., where the Keystone State regiments expect to begin their intensive war training within another two weeks.

CAPTAIN BRADFORD, ONE OF THE PHILADELPHIA ENGINEERS ENGAGED LAYING OUT CAMP MEADE, AT ADMIRAL MD.

PAYDAY AT CAMP HANCOCK, NEAR AUGUSTA, GA. THE SHORTAGE OF LABOR HAS SERIOUSLY HANDICAPPED THE WORK OF PREPARING THIS CANTONMENT FOR THE COMING OF PENNSYLVANIA'S NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

MASTER "BILLY" LEWIS, OF 2819 NORTH BAMBREY STREET IS NOT SUBJECT TO THE DRAFT, ALTHOUGH NOT UNDER WEIGHT. HE IS A TRIPLE TOO YOUNG FOR THE ARMY

CONVICT LABOR AVAILIED OF TOSH WORK ON ROADS LEADING INTO CAMP HANCOCK, WHERE SYLVANIA GUARDS WILL TRAIN

MISS HELEN TAFT JOINS THE FARMERETTE COLONY OF BRYN MAWR GIRLS NEAR WEST CHESTER
The new dean of the Main Line college is enthusiastic over the work of raising and canning vegetables which is being done on the estate. In the upper picture she is setting out with her trusty hoe to join the girls at work in the garden. Miss Taft has engaged in stringing beans preparatory to preserving them for winter use.