

PHILADELPHIANS FIND MANY WAYS TO SPEND THEIR WEEK-END VACATION DURING MIDSUMMER

HONOR VERA CRUZ HERO
Unveiling of monument to Charles Allen Smith in McPherson Square, Kensington.

CAUGHT UNAWARES ON THE SAND
Her thoughts were far, far away when the cameraman was attracted by the pretty costume, which is one of the season's very latest styles.

PROUD OF HIS HAT
Kiddies with the Elmwood Improvement Association's outing all wore gift headgear.

PUZZLE, "SNAP-SHOOTING"
ATTRACTS BATHERS
A prize of $2 will be awarded to the young woman "ringed" if she will call at the EVENING LEDGER Pictorial Department.

IT'S FUN TO PLAY IN THE SAND AT OCEAN
CITY

NINETEENTH ENGINEERS PREPARE FOR INSPECTION
Many prominent young Philadelphians took a hand in washing cots and housecleaning before the inspection of Uncle Sam's engineers at the Commercial Museum Saturday afternoon.

"WHOPPERS" COME IN WITH THE BIG ROLLERS
Surf fishing is one of the popular pastimes of vacationists who are fortunate enough to go to Strathmere, on the New Jersey coast.

A BATHING GIRL—1917 Sweaters of many hues adorn fair mermaids at the shore this year.

THE PRIZE PUZZLE PICTURE PRINTED IN THIS SECTION ON JULY 28 WAS THE SUN DIAL IN THE SUNKEN GARDENS, FAIRMOUNT PARK. THE PRIZE IS AWARDED TO ALICE B. RYAN, 124 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET