

PAGE OF PICTURES VIVIDLY PORTRAYING INTERESTING CURRENT EVENTS AT HOME AND ABROAD

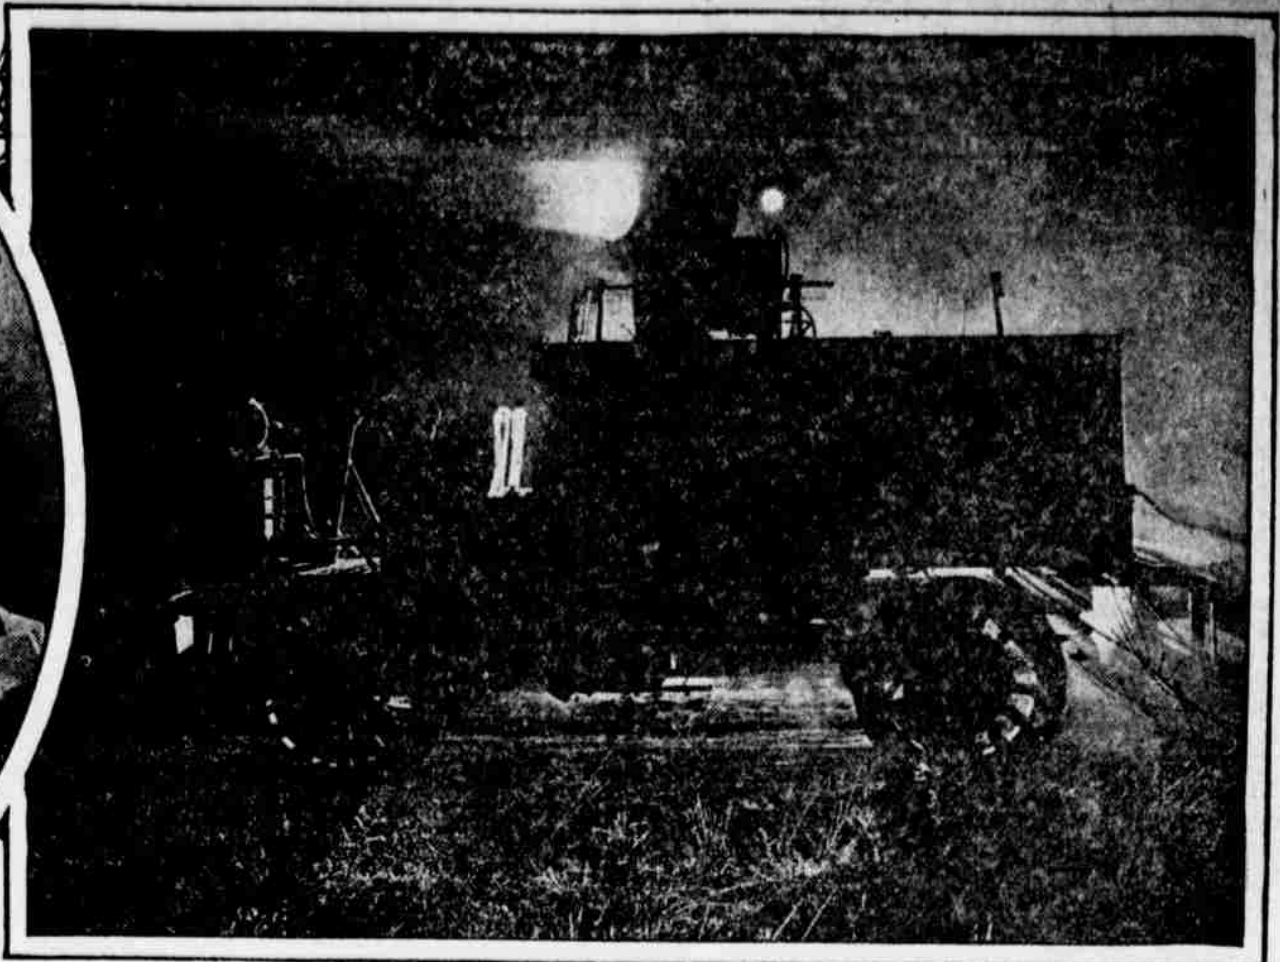

BOOSTERS FOR RED CROSS WORK

These young people lent their hands to Uncle Sam by raising $218 at a Red Cross block party. The little girl at the left is Violet Arzi and the one at the right is Pauline Gattel. Others in the picture, from left to right, are Bessie Prosen, Anna Stern, Lottie Gold and Theresa McKinley.

EL COTA, TO BE SEEN AT THE GLOBE THEATRE THIS WEEK

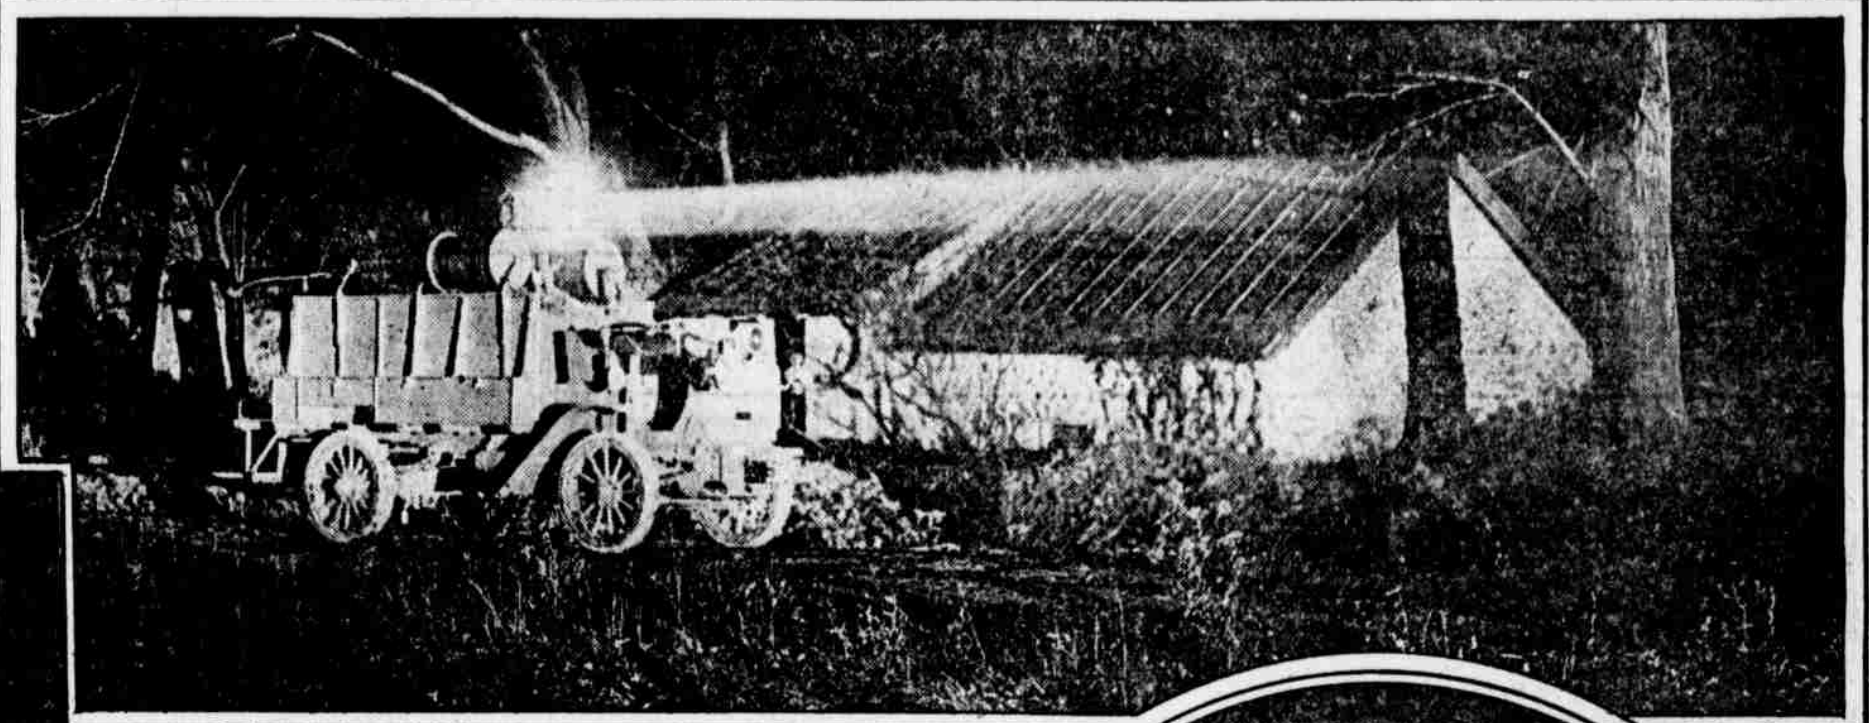

SEARCHLIGHT TRUCKS WILL HELP WIN THE WAR

A drive will be made this week to recruit Philadelphians to drive vehicles such as these with the army in France. Quartermaster Department recruiting headquarters is at 23 South Twenty-third street.

JANET ADAIR ENLIVENS THE BILL AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE THIS WEEK

SEARCHLIGHT TRUCK IN ACTION

Strong searchlights will play an important part in the work of the Government's Quartermaster's Department in the European war zone.

A WARTIME FOOD EXPERT
He is Percival S. Ridsdale, the energetic and resourceful secretary of the National Emergency Food Gardens Commission.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS PASS THROUGH FRENCH TOWN

This official British photograph shows the transport of a Newfoundland regiment passing through a village where they were billeted. It is one of the latest from the western war zone.

PAYING LAST HONORS TO GRAVES OF COMRADES

This pathetic picture shows two Tommies paying their last respects to the graves of their friends on leaving the front line for a rest in the supports. They erected the cross markers near the graves in far-away Salonica.

DESERTS CAREER FOR FLAG

Miss Bernice Rigby, of Washington, has accepted a clerical position in a navy yard and is spending several years in the service.