

EDITORIAL SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S NEWS OF INTEREST TO PHILADELPHIA AND NEIGHBORHOOD

THERE ARE A NUMBER OF PHILADELPHIA CITIZENS IN THIS GROUP OF PENNSYLVANIANS NOW STUDYING AT THE MEDICAL OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP, FORT OGLETHORPE, GA.
 Nearly all the men in the photograph come from this city and its environs. In the second line of those seated is Dr. William Pepper, dean of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. At his left is Dr. William Easterly Ashton, formerly of the Medico-Chi, but now on the University of Pennsylvania faculty, while at the right of Doctor Pepper is Doctor A. C. Abbott.

"OH! FOR THE COMFORTS OF HOME!"
 Members of the Nineteenth Regiment Railway Engineers, stationed at the Commercial Museum, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets, are becoming adepts at the use of makeshifts. The community washbowl and washtub and the little hand mirror are made to perform the functions of a well-appointed bathroom and laundry.
