quite fitting that the enlisted men at the Navy Yard are to be made welcome the Germantown Cricket Club for the next few Sundays. Germantown is hisgermand, you know, and poor George Washington is said to have slept in an mansions out there it would have been hard for him to get around to add managing to get around to get around to get around to gal. However, certain it is that he did spend much time there and that he all. However the eround that is now the carp and peaceful cricket

MRS. ALLAN HUNTER, JR.

Mrs. Hunter, who will be remembered as Miss Arabella M. Scott, expects to leave Chestnut Hill her mother came down from Narraganthere take turns in keeping the wee sup-

Mt seems to go with Cape May to love to play at keeping store. I remember hearing that two of our most charming years old used to go to the Japanese store opposite the Old Pier and sell all day to the customers who entered. At choculate mints or some such dainty, and they would express their joy by whoops of pleasure. Of course they only did it to the fact that they were absent too long at a time and an explanation was demanded. . Consequently, the hard-hearted parents (who never can be expected to understand; you know what I mean) stopped it all, but not till small Katherine and Alice had had the time of their own youngsters of their escapades that Christine Spencer and Bob Hunter had decided to marry soon after the be married at the Spencers' home in Germantown on August 18 at 4:30 o'clock.

ters, Ethel and Margaret, married Larrie in these days of their maturity.

married on August 18.

own should entertain house at the tennis Among them will be Walter Clark. ffe of the president of the club; Mrs. Tol. ert Richardson, Mrs. lobert Lee, Mrs. Wit Bim B. Kurtz, Mrs. Newhall, William Law a number of DARTIES for the men in the various branches of the servge are still being giver with great success. Last Saturday the Ninth Regiment of Engipeers was given a dandy time at the University Museum and then was taken to the hily pond in the Botanical Gardens,

Each week some form of amusement is on Saturday Mrs. MacEuen, who was the of the enlisted man away from home artillery, and he chose the latter. At

HARK back to the Saturday part Mrs. Snowden Mitchell came up from Atlantic City specially for the occasion. Jose the men are actually going to Miss Cornelia Greenough was there, and France. Cornella very sensibly has de-Miss Elizabeth Bonsal, Miss Elizabeth coded not to marry in baste, unless Harr-Abel, Miss Betty Schmidt, Mr., and Mcs. Waldo Stevenson and a host of others. Gertrude O'Reilly' told Irish jokes and probably join him over there later, for

The eats were served in the Fotanical guage and would be of real assistance least. Supper and food remind me of a story Mrs. MacEuen told. Sun is an soft lately to town and left yesterday for ardent suff, you know. When the Hoover | Camden, Me. Cornella is to be a bridesregistration tickets were being distributed maid for Eleanor Pepper, who is to be a huge colored policemen brought hers. Taking it, she asked, "Is this a registration form for my vote?" "No, ma'ain. CAPE MAY, they tell me, is in the threes not me, I do'an 'prove of no women folks' C of Red Cross work most of the time, totin'. Dey better stay home whar day belongs," said he.

Mrs. Greenough, who was there at the ply shop for the Red Cross? They say Party with her daughter, says that an it is great fun, like keeping store, I won-Irishman brought her card. She being a der why there is such a fascination prohibitionist, said to him, "What about playing at store, From childhood restricting the liquor?" The policeman on, one loves to get a small pad and write accounts on it, and as for carbon trinned and said, "I'm a tectotaler for afteen years myself, but sure a couple paper and a banket attached to opposite of glasses of whisky or beer will put sailes of the room-well, you have to be courage into a man-you never heard of a child to know the possibilities of such one beating his wife unless he'd had a a same! drink in him."

ME is going on and the wedding days coming thick and fast. Pauline Disn matrons of today when about twelve ton and John Wanamaker are to be married on Saturday, you know, and John in having his bachelor dinner tonight at Sherry's in New York. I guesa it will be the end of the day the proprietor would ome party, too, for John is a popular frequently present them with a box of berson, and his friends will certainly wish in well. It seems to be a day for enteralaments; Cordelia Duke gave a lunchon for twenty guests up at Newport. once or twice, as the parents caught on Cordella incidentally seems to make her own little welcome place wherever she and she has decidedly landed at New-

Nearer home, Mrs. George Reynolds of 2104 Pine street, who is spending the ummer at Atlantic City, gave a bridge Party today, at her cottage there. , ND quite a few members of the smart A set are traveling around yet on their way to various resorts and for other easons than resorts, too. Cecily Earnes. for instance, is going up to Chestnut Hill, Mass, to attend the wedding of Mabel Webster and Dicky Harte, which will breaking up of Fort Niagara. They will breaking up of Fort Niagara. take place August 16,

Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary, who Christine is the youngest of the five very have been at Old Point Comfort since hat Tuesday, will go this week to visit attractive Spencer girls. Her elder sistheir son and daughter-in-law, Jack and A member of the other two. and Asnes and Anne are the other two. There will not be any invitations issued a member of the aviation division of he Const Defense Reserve Corps. The Stevens Heckschers, of Strafford, for the wedding and no bridal party, but going to their ranch in Wyoming for Anne will be maid of honor. next six weeks. Mrs. Heckscher is

SAILORS FROM NAVY YARD ENJOYED INFORMAL PARTY

Home Dinners Served to Navy Men by People of Lansdowne

Everyhody leves a soldier boy, den't they? And didn't the good people of Landowne have just the best of times last Saturday cateriasing the 137 sallors and marines who were livited out from the navy yard. The men arrived about 1 o'clock, and in true military fashion they marched down to the Conture c'les, where they were served with temounde and cakes by eager takes who imited (though they didn't have to insist jong) on giving each one two or

Mss Mary Carnell, and Mrs. Frederick Mount, both of Plastic Club farme, were the hostesses. Photographic were taken, and a copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy will be mailed to each manner of the conting and the copy to a brief honeymon. Steve they were no mean snapshots, let me they were no mean snapshots, let me the copy of the conting and the copy to the copy of the conting will be principal were murited in Easter week, except that is, an artist photographer, to they were no mean snapshots, let me they were no mean snapshots, let me the copy of the conting will be conting and the copy of the men told me had been dead of the copy of the men told me had men fairly scramble over one another to the copy of the men fairly scramble over one another to the copy of the copy of the men fairly scramble over one another to the copy of the copy of the men fairly scramble over one another to the copy of the copy of the copy of the copy of the men fairly scramble over one another to the copy of two years, and every one predicted the

It costs us little or nothing, and is a record, and that he was given the choice of has gone to Hoxac E. A. In specific forter, in the rather monotonous a job in the ordinance department or in the night with her brother, Mr. Joseph Potter.

present they have no plans for the wed-ding as both are young, and the rushing into materiary which has been gains cided not to marry in haste, unless Hamilton is sent to France. In that case they will be quietly married, and she will probably join him over there later, for sine has Bellevian the formal designation of the land was Mes Clarge Met annian, of the Wood.

Abhuson and Miss Joan Peterson, has taken in the form of an addition. Are the land way by the tender accents with married a zon of Mr. and Mrs. Alba ablances, was Miss Eleasor Peterson, whose probably join him over there later, for sine has Bellevian the formal of the form of an addition. Are in the form of an addition. Are in the form of an addition. Are in the form of an addition. Are installed the which are married away by the tender accents with which are installed to make the form of an addition. Are installed to the form of an addition. Are the fo

Whyte avenue, Germanteau, with her two-daughters, Miss Georgianus bittleid and Miss Helen Fitfield, will leave tomorrow for Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Martinsburg.

Mr. and are at the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy K. Smith, to Mr. Prederick W. Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horton, of Frankford, at Ningara Falls, N. Y. on July 14. Mr. Horton is a student in the available school at Corneil

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin, of Sey-mour street, Germantown, with their chil-dren, are staying at their cottage in Chemea of Muss Floyde Williams, of St. Louis, to Mr. Walter S. Whitman, of this city, on Monday night at the Bellevne-Stratford Mrs Williams has been visiting Mrs. Ab-gail Paxson. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman are MRS. EUGENE G. DAUTELL Mrs. Dautell will be remembered as Miss Beryl Read, of this city.

"Goald I wish: I could afford to be as useless as them folks!"

The Red Mouse

A Story of Love, Jeniousy and Politics By WILLIAM HAMBLYON OSBORNE

in formulating the charges which he was preparing against the presecutor on her helpful. These charges were for the legan-hand, increased more than the combination of the other. Indication the winds, nechange the charges in the engangerian in the combined to the winds, nechange in the engangerian in the door closed in mind the enderthy with a mean into a chair.

There does not be down the destruction in the more intimate a protecting word the intent of elegant in the door closed into the encangerian in the do init Min Peterson Mrn Robert Peterson and Min Robert Peterson in without a word size returned it. With your sign here, please?

There was no time to arrange any idea where avenue. Germontown, with hier two.

Thorne a voles, that was jointing: I was a thorne a voles, that was jointing: I was a transfer and the present and t Thorne's voice that was insisting; it was assumed anything you really wanted to do.

Thorne who was holding a pox for her and indicating the correct place for her signature. And with a viment effort, Mrs. Chair the late, I have find my lesson. Only a lengt braced herself for the first he in few months are you were beneat, and now you are covered by the covered beneat, and now you are covered by the c

"My home—only."
"But that's morizaget I understand."
There was more than idle curiosity in the speakers eyes.
"You But there's an equity of about twenty or twenty-five thousand," she exists the form she from the record form."

About the fiden you cared for."
About the fiden you cared for."

About the fiden you cared for."

About the fiden you cared for."

About the fiden will for more from the fidence of color, and for longer and with the fidence of color, and for longer and with the fidence of colors. Swinker's eyen.

"Von But there's an equity of about twenty or twenty-five thousand," she explasted.

"And you tried to bribe Murgatroyd with twenty thousand dollars?"

There was no answer, and interpreting the west on persisther silence as assent, he went on permit-

Mirlam was very white now.

"I should think no," returned Thorns.
Two hundred and fifty would be more like Mirratroyd's price—if he can be bought."
"No, he varied he bought." Miriam yearing the total have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion. She was shent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion. She was shent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion. She was shent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion. I want you have a good and all the thing I set in motion. I want you have with a quick return to gentlement, and with a peal in her eyes, she murmured:
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."
"I want you to be a Senator. I have sent for you tonight to tell you so—to step for good and all the thing I set in motion."

"I want you to come that in the tong I set in motion."

If want you to come that in the thing I set in motion.

"I want you to come that in the tong I set in motion."

In turn be murmured words that sounded to be it like "to you be come back," In turn be murmured words that sounded to be it like "to you be as Senator."

In turn be murmured words that sounded to be it like "to you be as sent for you tonight to tell you sent for you tonight to be a Senator.

I don't wait you to be a Se

And with a promise to that effect, a hurried acknowledgment with an inclination of the head that she accepted his words as ending her interview, she left the effice, deaving him far from certain that Peter Broderick's appraisement of Murgafroyd's churarter was not a correct one.

That night when the papers came out people read them in anger and dismay; by the next morning they merely laughed; fillicewise the court.

"If he were bribed," said public comment.

likewise the court.

"If he were bribed," said public comment,
"it was a bribe that didn't work."

And Murgatroyd, submitting to interview after interview, reiterated over and over again to the reporters:

"I point with pride, gentlemen, to the conviction of Lawrence Challoner. That's all I have to 28y."

have to say."

The flasco had helped Murgatroyd infinitely more than it had burt him. Thorne felt in his immost soul. For once the masses refused to believe what on its face appeared

And if I am out of your reach—it's own and in want in a man in the man I flowing you would never have listened to me. But you never cared for me, the support I was the first me. The support I was the first me.

Carried away by the tender accests with ... What do you think, which also pronounced his name, Murga-traid of Murgatroyd travel enough to speak but she intercupted appeal had been argued.

include him as well as herself.

What do I cam for nuccess or fallage!
I could out my tongue out for telling you that my father was a failure. A failure. that my father was a failure. A failure: Why, I know that not only was he not a forture, but that he was really great! A man in the highest sense of the word—and that's all I want you should be a Senator—I don't wait you should be a Senator—I have sent for you tonight to tell you re—to stop for the standard of the senator.

to her like "to you."

Shirley shook her head, as though that were a thing out of the question.

"No, to your honest self," she said expessly but kindly. "To the Billy Murgatroyd that was."

Ever a moment they looked steadily into For a moment they looked steadily into concernion on Murgatroyd's part. Nor was there any new; but unknown to himself there was an air of appeal, not wholly free from anxiety even, for her face was again showing signs of bardness as he spoke:

"I can hardly do that, I cannot stop,
And if I should—where is the inducement? You have no apple to offer me; you are beyond my reach."

And as if the disprove his own word, an impulse of adoration, too powerful to be checked, seized him, and he caught her hand and pressed it. A brief moment only Shirley allowed it to rest in his, then slowly withdrew it; and her action told him plainer than words that there was to be nothing further between them—she was through with him—she must despise him. As an evangelist, as the good friend she had sent for him, but to be true.

She must despise him. As an evangelist, as the good friend she had sent for him, but the good friend she had sent for him, but satroyd was dressing to dine at his club, as lovers—no, that was all over. And yet, her arms to him, if only for the last time, Murgateural could not tell what he would have done to all probability he would his huge mintered.

And the sire! Shirley felt, knew that there shill be no compromise. Murgarroyd must parce bineself, even though it involved a lifetime of shame. And after he had a writted up, his shape along a proad verified up his characters gains, what four! Shorter aid not know—abs could not all that it was not given to Murgatroys.

entrender his honesty even for a woman encluded with a little shake of the head; "I wouldn't marry you now if you were the last man on earth?"

Both rose to their feet. Habit, perhaps Both rose to their feet. Habit, perhaps, rather than any regret for her words, induced her to dismiss him with a tender expression on her face. And Murgatroyd howed low over the hand she offered him. reased it and, without a word of protest, and out of the room. With his departure unid ever return to his better self. Nothing ould stop him now. As for Shirley? The noment the door closed on him she sank

Thorne could not understand. She seemed

The incarnation of hope.

"What do you think, chief?" asked Me-titath of Murgatroyd one day after the Murgatroyd shrugged his shoulders. "That vertict will stick," was his only "By the way," said McGrath, "Pemmican beeps mum up there in iail, but he's getting ostlogs as thunder. He wants to know how on you're going to try him on this gambling charge."

Murgatroyd smiled.

"In due course," he returned, "but you am tell Fernmean, unofficially, that the tuckest way for him to get on trial, or, in act, the nuckest way for him to get off longer braced herself for the first he in her life.

Increase braced herself for the first he increased herself for the first he increased herself first from a first life. The first like he is a manyance at what he constitution in her life.

Thorne started like he increased herself increase and herself increase and herself increased in what he constitution in her life in her face hunded and said laboratority. The herself increased in the remaining words first he new attention. The face hunded and said laboratority. The herself increased in the remaining words first he new attents. The face hunded and you must blime me. I always though you must blime me. I always though some actual amount of saturface, herself taking a certain amount of saturface, and the life her lawyer what now was unquestionably true.

"My home—only" and I alone am responsible and the finished speaking.

By the time the had finished speaking must true the laboration and the remainder up. In looking for John Doe, and I expect to keep true in the finished speaking.

By the time the life was must in the remaining words that he was until the frish, and there was only in the ment—of a many her fact, the quickest way for him to get off without trial, to get out of jail, is to let mother the man higher up. In looking for John Doe, and I expect to keep the man higher up. In looking for John Doe, and I expect to keep the look and the remaining words that he was until I get face law at the trial, and there was only in kine to laborate was only in the looking for John Doe, and I expect to keep the look and the first and the first and there was only in the look at the trial, and there was only in the laboratory was differed micrely and the first and the first time day the clerk of the Court of Errors and Appeals placed in the hands of a spe-cial messenger a document some five pages long. It was a carbon copy.

"Take that to the prosecutor of the pleas," a commanded, "and tell him Ws advance. Murgatrayd received and read it with in ard satisfaction. As he was perusing

Mixley rushed into his private room and yelled in alicem: "Chief! Chief! Look at this!" He, too. held in his land a deciment composed of neveral sheets of yellow paper scribbled over with a seft, black lead pencil. "It's good the warden," his carbon composed.

Murgatrond laid down his carbon copy and took Mixley's yellow sheets. He read the first page and rose to his feet.

'When did all this happen. Mixley!" he asked in a tense voice, with difficulty restraining his excitement.

About an hour ago. Who was the keeper that took this Murgatrovd tapped the yellow sheets im-atiently and asked: "How did he kill himself?" "Cyanide! Smuggled in somehow, no-dy knows."

"Jennings."

Murgatroyd read the yellow sheets again "Great Caesar:" he exclaimed.
Mixley, still lingering, now asked:
"Any news from the Court of Errors and Appeals?"
Murgatroyd nodded.
"Here's the opinion—just handed down."

down."

"Reversal?"

Murgatroyd shook his head.

"No. Affirmed. By the way, Mixley," he added, "take this carbon copy over to Thorne, will you? He'll want to see it."

"Shall I tell him?" faltered Mixley.

"Tell him nothing." Murgatroyd replied.
"Officially I know nothing of this other thing. I'll investigate it first, then I can talk to him."

(Copyright by Dodd, Mead & Co.) (CONTINUED TOMORROW)

MORE ABOUT BANKING

My Dear Young Bankers Do 1 A man had a little boy, a girl of nine one of fourteen. Every time he came girl of nine got all the nickels and eldest daughter all the dimes.

To make a long story short, the boy just had his bank book returned will $2 credit in it.

Suppose the boy had deposited the $2 at the candy man or spent it for ice or cones?

STRANGE ADVENTURES OF BILLY BUMPUS

By Farmer Smith

Billy didn't quite know where the volce came from—he had to look twice then he saw the most beautiful little girl he had

"You dear kind Billy," she said as she ame and put her arms around his neck and name and put her arms around his neck and hugged him.
"I don't know where we would have been had it not been for you and your kindness in butting down the door."
"It must be Jeanette." the child rider, thought Billy, peeking out of one eye at her. He had seen her many times in the circus, but had never been so near her before.

him back into the sleeping car. The ring Some one was gone!

It was little Jeanette. The ringmaster discovered the fact when he asked her parents how long she had been missing.

The train did not start and so Billy Bumpus got out and started to walk around. He knew something was the seemed to be ready to go.

"Guess I'll slip under the train and eat a bolt when no one is looking," thought he trok her dress in his teeth and pulled her to safety.

A wild cry went up when the train crew saw Jeanette pulled from underneath the dearest, cutest little bar of iron he had ever seen. It was between his car and the next, but he reached over and nibbled it.

Suddenly out came the coupling pin. But When the train started once more the Carlisle Soldiers Learning French CARLISLE. Pa., Aug. 7.—Society women here are to instruct the members of Company G. of the Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, in French. Daily classes have been organized and they will be taught common conversational phrases and to read simple French also. The Misses Sarah Penrose and Sara Sergeant, both of whom have traveled in France, are at the head of the movement.

Fairmount Park Band, Belmont Mas-on, 8 o'clock, Free. Philadelphia Band, City Hall Plaza, 8

Municipal Band, Queen Park, Catharine rest west of Second, 8 o'clock. Free. United Service Club, 207 South Tw second street, entertainment for enlisted

HERBERT BRENON Presents HAZEL DAWN and BERT LYTELL in "The Lone Wolf" By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE
A Fascinating Story of Paris
mencing September 10—Goldwyn Pictures First Production—MAE MARSH in POLLY OF THE CIRCUS

PALACE 10 A. M. TO 11:15 F. L. PRICES-10c, 20c TODAY-LAST TIMES DOROTHY DALTON

in "THE FLAME OF THE YUKON" ARCADIA CHESTNUT Below 107 10:18 A. M., 12, 2, 81 TODAY—LAST TIMES OLIVE THOMAS in "AN EVEN BREAK" REGENT MARKET below 11TH 11 A. M. to 11:15 P. M. Dally, 10c; Evps., 15c Valeska Suratt in "WIFE NUMBER TWO

VICTORIA 9 MARKET Above STE A. M. to 11:15 F. L. TODAY—LAST TIMES VIRGINIA PEARSON

in "WRATH OF LOVE"

ADDED ATTRACTION
BARONESS DE-WITZ

in "DIANA. THE HUNTRESS"

GLOBE Theatre MARKET & VAUDEVILLE Continued 10c, 18c, 25c, 85c 11 A. M. to 11 P. L.

"A Millionaire for a Night"

CROSS KEYS DAILY 2:80-10c, 20c, Farrell-Taylor Trio

B. F. Keith's Theatre LOUIS MANN & CO.

In THE GOOD FOR NOTH! Louis Simon & Co.; Janet Adair & a phi; 5 Metaettis, Browning & Bean, Today at 2, 25c & 50s. Tonight at 2.