

AMERICAN AIRMEN IN FRANCE AND THEIR NEW FLAG
 Photo by International Film Service.
 Members of the Lafayette Escadrille and the American flag, presented to them by Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, and made by the girls in the Treasury Department, Washington. Left to right, standing—Scubiran, Campbell, Parson, Bridgeman, Dugan, McMonagle, Lovell, Willis, Jones, Peterson and Lieutenant Maison Rouge. Sitting (starting from second from left)—Masson, Lieutenant Thaw, Captain Thensult, Luftery, Johnson, Bigelow and Rockwell. Mascots, left to right—Archie, black dog; Whisky, lion cub; Soda, lioness, and The Brat, white dog.

IT IS NEVER LOWERED EXCEPT WITH HONOR
 Although the single man assigned to the task "does what no million mortals can," Old Glory is always saluted on being hauled down, as is shown above by members of the First Regiment at their encampment at Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets.

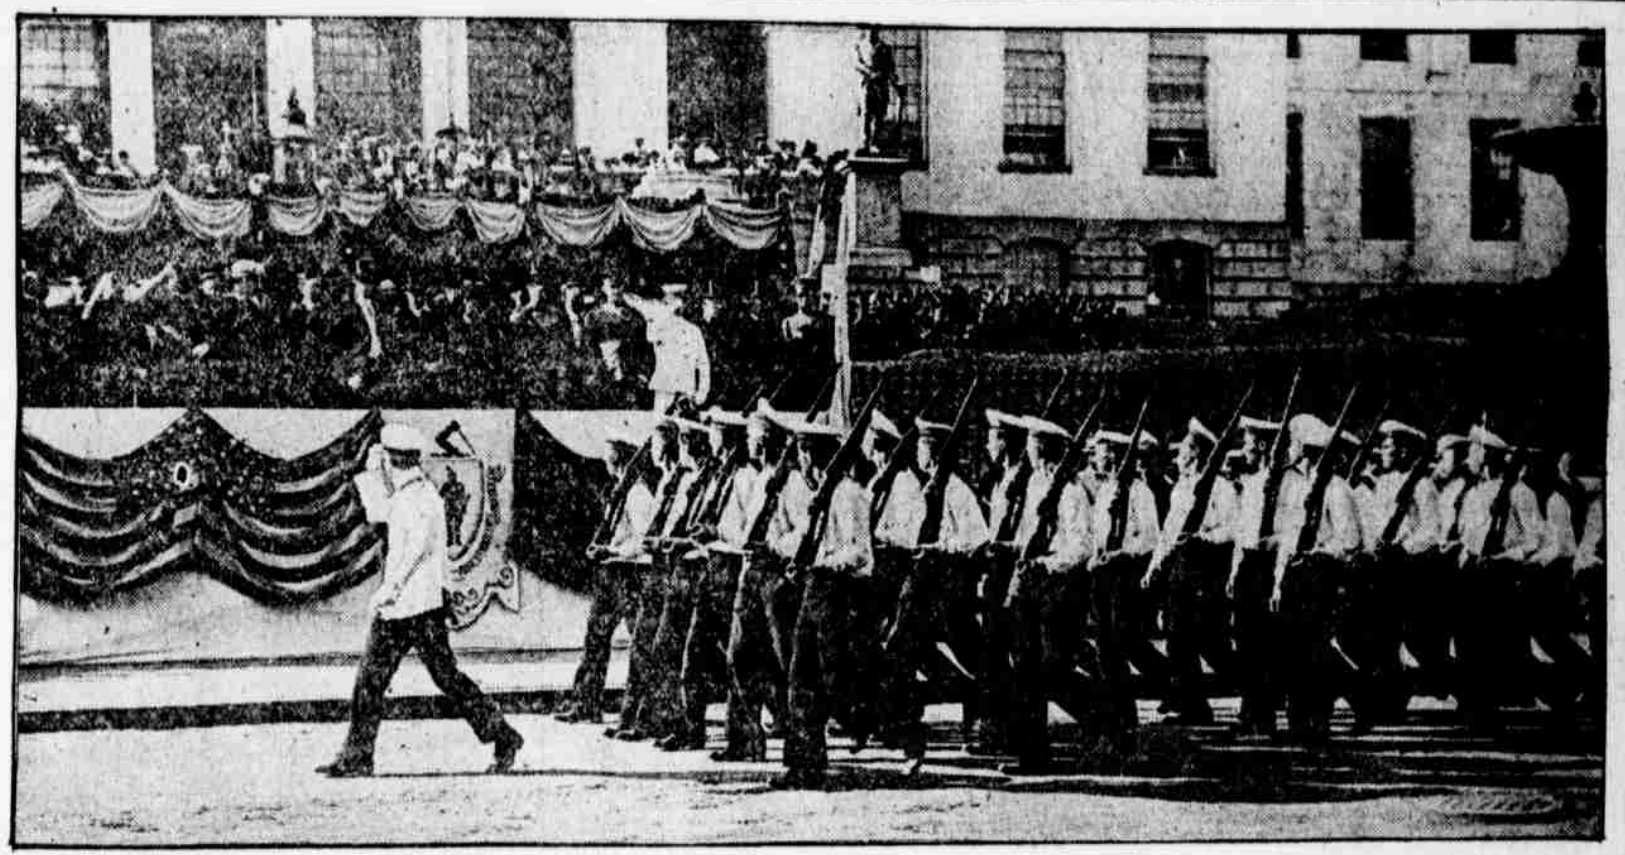

Photo by Kadai & Herbert.
MERCHANT MARINE OFFICERS IN THE MAKING
 Captain Robert Huntington, of the Seaman's Institute, instructing students how to obtain a ship's position at night from the stars.

Copyright Underwood & Underwood.
RUSSIAN SAILORS PARADE WITH NATIONAL GUARDSMEN IN BOSTON

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOLMAMS TO MAKE BASKETS
 Teachers' class assembled at McCall Public School, Sixth and De Lancey streets, where they are making baskets to be exhibited at the Philadelphia School Association bazaar for the Red Cross at Scottish Rite Hall in November.

ORLEANS STREET'S LITTLE RED CROSS HELPERS
 These three young residents of the northeastern section of Philadelphia manifested an activity in the interest of charity that astonished their elders, when they collected $214.66 at a neighborhood bazaar and party. Left to right, they are Wagenseller, Ruth Thompson and Lottie Ashin.

BRITISH COMMANDER'S NAMESAKE IN U. S. ARMY CAMP
 Lieutenant Alfred L. Haig, a Southern High School graduate (figure at extreme left), 1220 South Fifty-third street, and comrades in the training camp at Madison Barracks, New York.