BROWN'S SECRETARY DEFENDS PROBATION

Probation methods employed in the Municipal Court in this city, which have been attacked by Mayor Smith and Director of Public Safety Wilson during the present vice agitation, were defended today by Miss Florence Warren, secretary to President Judge Charles L. Brown, of the Municipal Court.

While praising the probation methods of the Municipal Court here, however, Miss Warren said that in the matter of public buildings and equipment for publicly operated social service, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities are far behind Western cities which she visited on her trip.

There are luxuries, such as a solarium, a gymnasium, and automatic electric elevators, Miss Warren said.

M'ADOO FOR ENFORCED THRIFT FOR SOLDIERS

Plan for Protecting Fighters and Families Approved by President Wilson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Compulsory thrift is to be taught the American soldier, if Secretary of the Treasury M'Adoo has his way.

The insurance experts held that this was confiscation and an invasion of the rights of the soldiers. They refused to endorse the scheme.

Under the plan there is a provision under which the soldier who does not allot half of his pay can be compelled to deposit the difference between what is allotted and a half half with the Government.

"C. O." MUST SERVE IN ARMY, NOT JAIL

"Conscientious Objectors" Will Have No Avenue of Escape From Military Duty

The way of the "C. O." (which is English for conscientious objector) will be hard, as yet the "C. O." is not in the dictionary of the War Department.

Whether or no, the "C. O." is going to be a military man; those who refuse to report to the national army immediately come under military jurisdiction.

In England these objectors have been subjected to civil law and have received jail sentences. In the United States the men pass out of the jurisdiction of civil authorities automatically when they object.

Individual opinion cannot be allowed to checkmate the system of the draft, military men declare. They have little or no sympathy for the alleged "conscientious objectors," but believe they are for the most part slackers.

MAGAZINES TO COST ONE CENT, NEW

Postmaster General Outlines Plan for Supplying Samplings With Good Reading Matter

Samplings in training at home and the expeditionary forces in Europe are to have plenty of reading material of good character, according to an announcement of Postmaster James A. Thornton here today.

The plan is to have popular magazines and publications print a brief notice on their front which will enable the public to obtain the publications through for distribution to sailors and soldiers at a cost of only one cent.

George Horace Lorimer, of the Saturday Evening Post, today said he had received a letter from Alexander M. Dockery, Assistant Postmaster General, suggesting that he could help furnish reading material to soldiers by printing the notice on the cover of the Post. The wording of the notice follows:

When you finish reading this magazine, place a one-cent stamp on this notice, hand same to any postal employee, and it will be placed in the hands of our soldiers or sailors at the front.

No wrapping—no address.

THE PRINTING OF THIS NOTICE ON THE FRONT OF THE PUBLICATION WILL MAKE IT EASY FOR THE INDIVIDUAL TO SEND IN HIS PUBLICATION, BUT IT ONLY NECESSITATES THE PLACING OF THE STAMP ON THE NOTICE. IF THERE IS NO NOTICE ON THE COVER OF A MAGAZINE IT CAN NOT BE SENT THROUGH THE MAIL FOR ONE CENT, AS THE NOTICE IS THE POSTMASTER GENERAL'S O. K. FOR THIS SPECIAL POSTAGE RATE ON THE PUBLICATION.
