"These men consistently refused to have anything to do with Deutsch," Carey said, "and, because of their loyalty to me, were transferred. These are the last of about ffteen policemen who have been transferred during the last week." Director of Public Safety Wilson scouted the idea of politics and refused to comment on the allegations that fifteen men had been transferred.

"Carey's charges are nonsensical." he said. "There has been no politics in the police department since I was inducted into office. As to the transfers, that is police business and not to be discussed in the newspapers." Superintendent of Police Robinson and

Lieutenant Bennet both declined to talk. "It's all rot," was the comment of Mayor Smith, when interviewed at Atlantic City this afternoon. "This kind of charges comes every year before a political campaign."

WALTER S. COWING ACCEPTS NEW POST

Philadelphia Boy Scout Executive to Become Secretary of Boston University

Walter S. Cowing, scout executive of the Philadelphia Boy Scouts of America, has accepted the appointment of secretary of Boston University, Boston, Mass. An-nouncement of Mr. Cowing's acceptance of the post, which was offered him several days ago, is contained in a telegram re-ceived here today from Megunticook, Me. where Mr. Cowing is supervising a summer camp for boys.

Mr. Cowing, who is widely known as a physical director, had been the Philadelphia scout executive since May, 1914. Before becoming connected with the scout move-ment he was physical director at the Ger-mantown Friends' School, and prior to that had been actively engaged in Y. M. C. A. work. He is a native of Northampton, Mass.
