LIT'S STILL ON WINNING STREAK

Defeats U. S. Marines Nine, Hanging Up Fifteenth Straight Victory

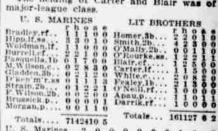

O'ROURKE PLAYS SHORT

Lit Brothers won its fifteenth straight victory today when they defeated the U. S. Marine team by the score of 16 to 7 on the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. grounds, Forty-fourth street and Parkside avenue.

The Marines were weakened by the absence of Eddle Mahan, who was detained at the guard. Captain Hogan's bunch had won ten straight, and today's defeat was the cause of the entire team going to pieces in the third inning, when the store boys dented the plate nine times.

Joe O'Rourke, the Port Richmond player, former manager of the Albany (New York State League) team, played short for Lit's, and played a good game.
