GARFIELD IS TIPPED FOR COAL CONTROLLER

Increased Power of Government Over Transportation Facilities Effective Today

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21. Announcement of a coal controller for the United States is expected today.

There is talk that President H. A. Garfield, of Williams College, recently named chairman of the new wheat price-fixing board, was the man the President has asked to assume the work. Garfield knows the coal situation thoroughly from long experience as attorney for coal operators and coal-carrying railroads in Ohio.

Robert S. Lovett's order, directing cer tain rail and lake steamship lines to give priority coal shipments to the Northwest went into effect today.

It is the first time in the country's his tory that Government control of railroads, in part, has been undertaken on so large scale. The order was particularly Great Lakes bont owners, who have refused to accept coal at lower lake port for the Northwest to keep their vessels ex-clusively in the more profitable from ore trade. The ships in many cases went back to upper lake ports light in order not to lose me by loading coal.

This caused the shortage in the Northwest, despite the fact that fifteen lake railroads carried 11 per cent more bituminou coal last month than during July, 1916 coording to the railronds war board.

When the coal dictator is announced be will proceed to requisition all coal coke for the Government and resell it at industry, allowing it to continue in its present hand.

The Federal Trade Commission, Lovett

the railroads war board, the Interstate Commerce Commission and the export license council all will co-operate with the coal dictator. Announcement of Government prices f-steel and copper is imminent.

s the closest approach to actual battle

Rear artillery is not being used, its place seing taken by rocket barrages. The troops are following a systematic schedule of action in the "combat" just the same as the Allied troops. The drill was planned to accustom them to advances as well as the resistance of counter-attacks when they have captured an enemy trench. A large delegation of American are continuing their stay upon the front and their return is indefinite.

The "Sammees" are very much pleased with the praise that General Pershing gave them. On his former visit the American commander-in-chief was very critical and free with his reprimands. His comment on Sunday showed his pleasure by his remarks upon the noticeable improvement in the appearance and discipline of the men.

Dr. F. B. Crowe, common coun-cilman of the Forty-sixth Ward, favors ninety-five-cent gas.

Approval of the plan to give the people the full benefit of the five-cent gas reduction was voiced today by Dr. John H. Lock, Common Councilman of the Thirty-first

"During these times of great stress," said Doctor Lock, "we should do everything pos-sible to aid the people. Five cents looks like a small item, but it will look big to poor persons this winter, when the entire public is faced with food scarcity and high prices. "As a physician I get around a great dea among the people, and I see something of the hardships of the very poor. They are feeling the pinch of poverty now, and they are going to feel it more before next spring.

The country has entered the biggest war of all history, and it is the people who are going to win or lose this fight. If we hope for their full co-operation we must ease their burdens in every way possible. One way to lighten their burden is to do something to lower prices of the necessities of Gas is an important necessity, and it I a necessity that is largely used by the poor. They use it for cooking and also for heating when they have not money to buy coal. To give these people ninety-five-cent gas would be tendering them great assistance in combating the high-cost-of-living problem. If the city can turn this reduction control of the city can turn this reduction control. people without seriously impairing its finances, it should do so."

Dr. F. B. Crowe, Common Councilman

Dr. F. B. Crowe. Common Councilman from the Forty-sixth Ward. said:
"I stand behind anything that will help the people in this era of high prices. To give this five-cent reduction to the consumer means that the city confers a boon to thousands of families in Philadelphia who are feeling the pinch of hard times. "It will give the people confidence to know that the city is cu-operating with them. They will feel kindly toward the them. They will feel kindly toward the city, and they will put their shoulders to the wheel and help in this time of national stress. By all means give the benefits of the five-cent reduction to the people."

The reduction goes into effect January I. 1918, under the terms of the contract between the city and the United Gas Im-provement Company. A number of city of-ficials, including Controller Walton, have urged that the five cents be placed in the City Treasury, but there is a rapidly growing sentiment among thousands of tax-payers that it should go to the consumer in the form of ninety-five-cent gas. In fact, the five-cent reduction issue promises
