

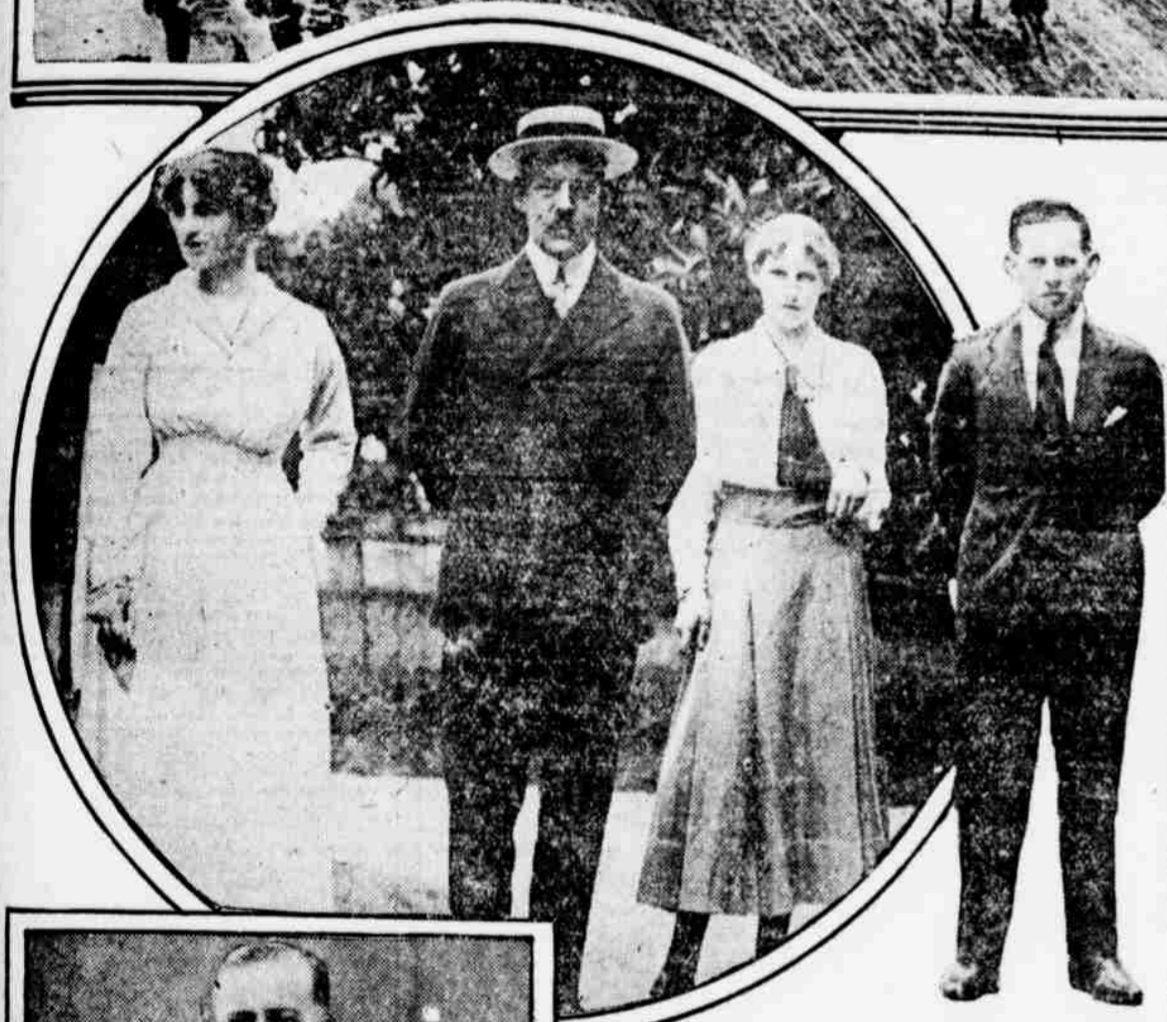

GRAPHIC VIEWS OF WORLD'S NEWSY HAPPENINGS PORTRAYED BY THE CAMERA

THUNDERING DOWN THE HOMESTRETCH AT BELMONT TRACK
Exciting finishes enthuse the railbirds and grand stand occupants at the Grand Circuit races now being contested on the Philadelphia course.

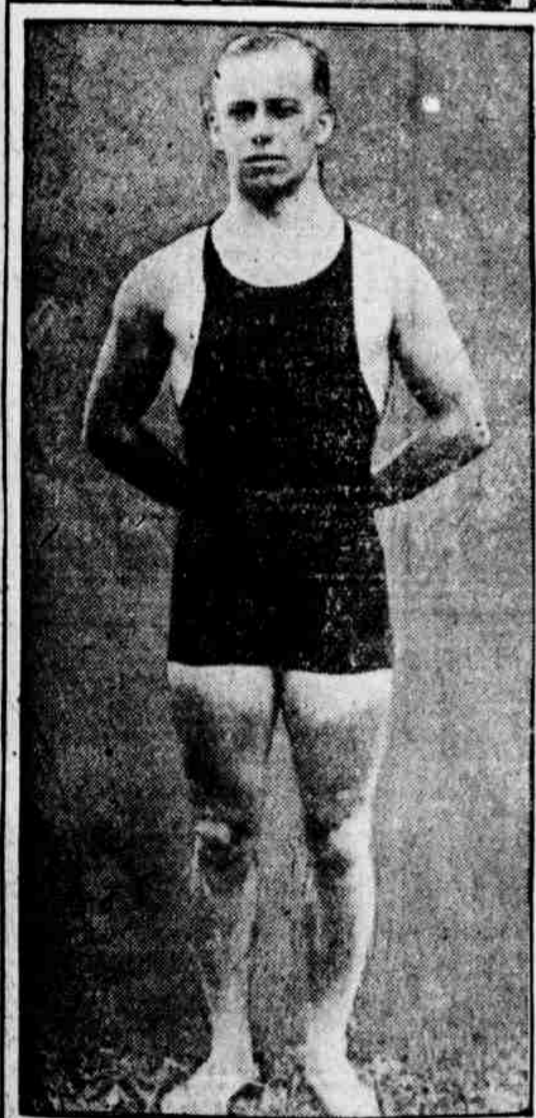

Photo by International Film Service.
PUTS COUNTRY ABOVE BUSINESS
Miss Catharine J. Webster gave up a successful business as an architect in Tennessee to enlist as chief yeoman in the navy. As poet, writer and suffragist she is widely known.

Copyright, International Film Service.
EX-KING CONSTANTINE IN SWITZERLAND
With his daughters, Princess Helen (left) and Princess Irene (right) and the former Crown Prince George, the deposed Grecian monarch made his first step on neutral soil at Lugano.

AMERICAN TROOPS ENJOY THEMSELVES IN ENGLAND
A "fresno" lunch at Borden removes possibility of homesickness from betraying itself on their countenances while being "taken" on King George's territory.

DRAFT NET ENMESHES SWIMMER

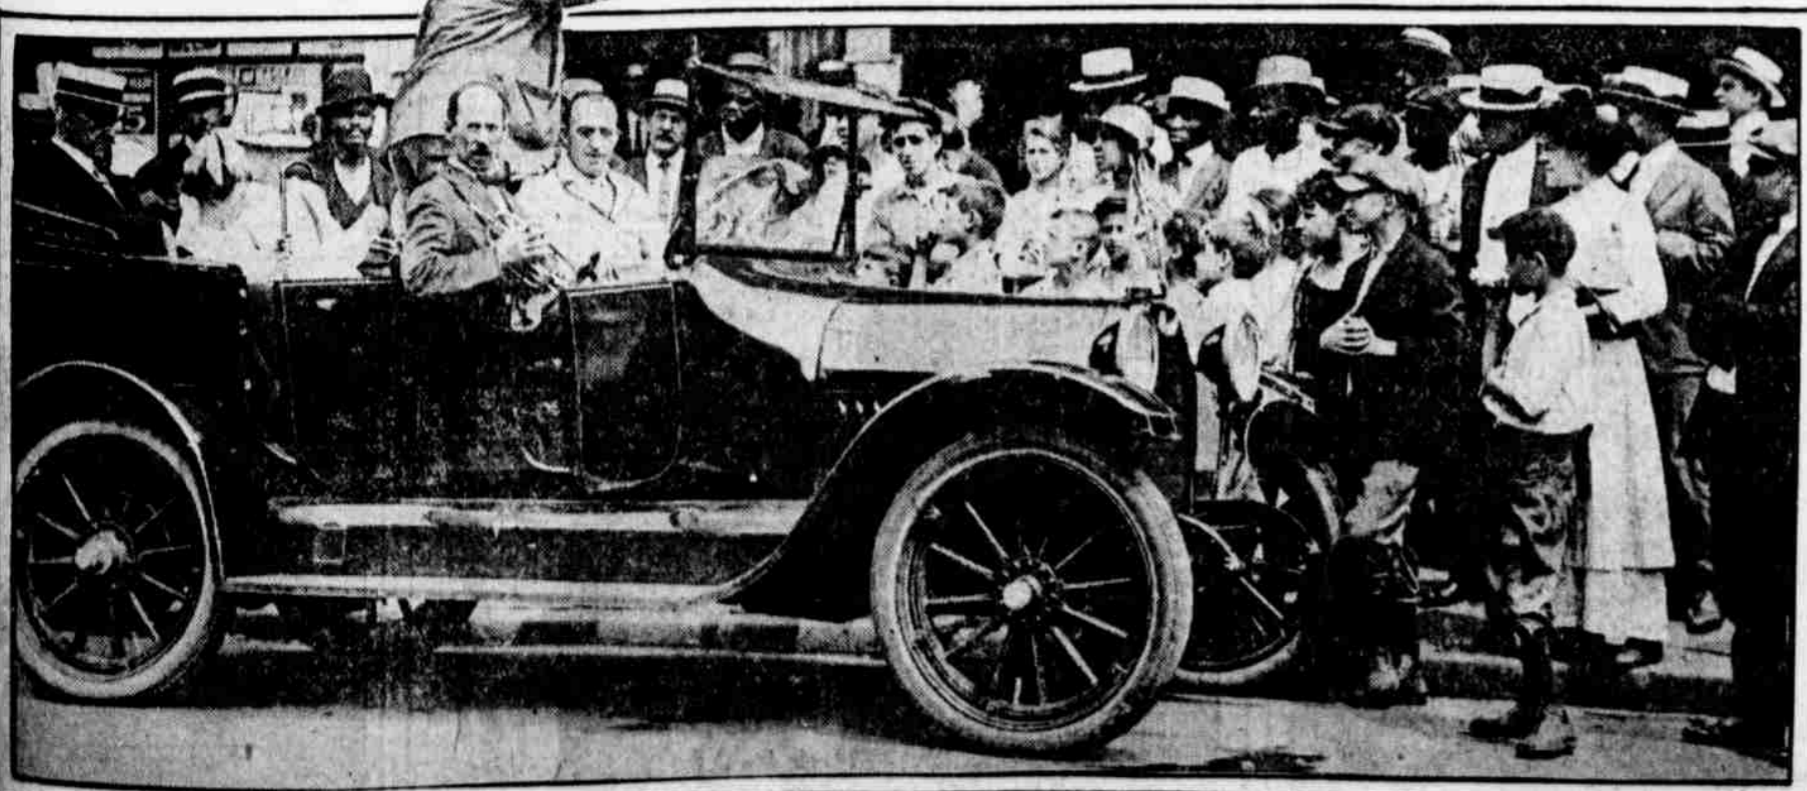

Norman Clegg, a Philadelphia Swimming Club champion, waived exemption when drawn, but will appear in the five-mile marathon next Saturday.

NO, THIS IS NOT A GLIMPSE OF A WESTERN LUMBER CAMP
It is a metropolitan thoroughfare, being opened through Old York road beyond the Widener Home.

ENLISTED FOR SUBMARINE CHASING
Clarence Evans, a Philadelphia Swimming Club fancy diver, now with the Coast Reserve "somewhere along the New Jersey coast."

CARRY GOSPEL TO THE MASSES BY AUTOMOBILE

The Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Steckel, with his wife and daughter, the Rev. Dr. William P. Fulton, C. Blackburn, cornetist, and W. L. Downey, is holding successful prayer meetings along Broad street these warm evenings.

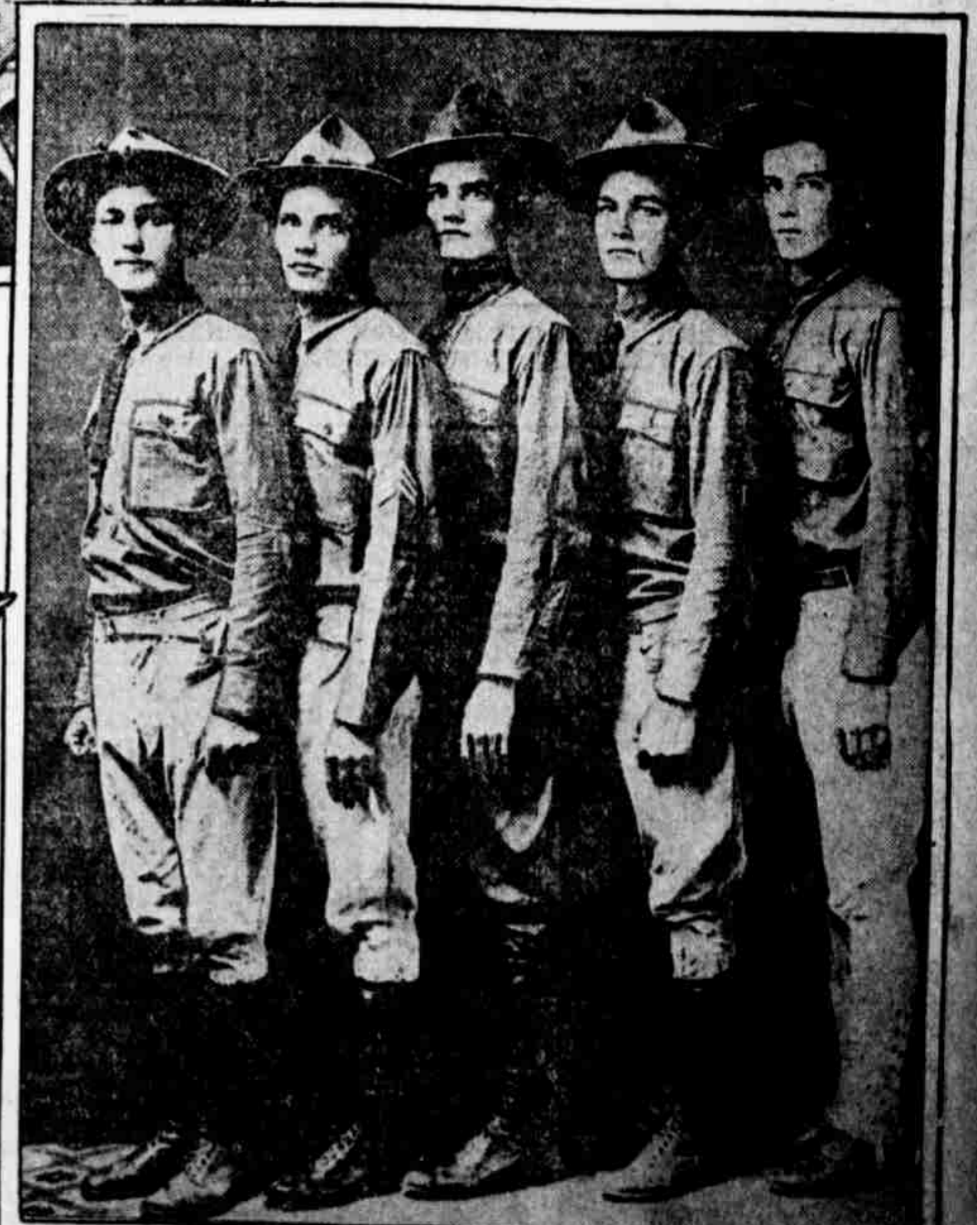

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
ONE MOTHER'S OFFERING ON THE ALTAR OF LIBERTY
Five sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clem H. Strickland, of Houston, Tex. All have enlisted, a sixth son remaining at home because too young. There are two sets of twins in the group, who are Tate, nineteen years old; Oscar and twenty-five years; Clem, nineteen years, and Claude, twenty-five years. Strickland is of direct German descent.