

Her Husband Took a Chance

Think of the plight of your family if you were killed or seriously injured

Now your wages provide them with the comforts they deserve. Your wife is free from worry. Your children are obtaining a good education. Your love shields and protects them and they are happy.

But what would happen if you met with a serious accident?

Deprived of your support and protection, your wife would be compelled to take up the burden as a breadwinner. And, lacking your skill and training, she would be forced to take whatever work she could get—poorly paid drudgery that would break her health while bringing in hardly enough to avert starvation. Your children might be forced to leave school to enter a mill or factory.

True, you would receive compensation—up to half of your former wages—your wife would have to make up the difference.

Every Time You Take a Chance—Every Time You Fail to Observe the Rules of Safety First—You Endanger the Happiness of Your Family
