DWYER'S CHARGES UP TO GRAND JURY

Federal Body Takes Up Allegations Against U. S. Attorney Kane

SUBPOENA IS CORRECTED

Another Draft Board and Police Claim Government Fails to Cooperate Against Slackers

Following correction of the wording of the subpoena which summoned him to the Federal Grand Jury, John P. Dwyer, managing editor of the Philadelphia Record, appeared before that body today and began the task of attempting to prove charges of neglect of duty in the prosecution of slackers which he made against United States Attorney Francis Fisher Kane.

Mr. Dwyer arrived at the Federal Building with many bundles of data and numerous friends from Overbrook, where he is secretary of Draft Board No. 22. Mr. Dwyer was also accompanied by Attorney Joseph P. McCullen. He first went to the United States District Court to complain about the subpoena.

Mr. McCullen pointed out that the subpoena had been worded "United States against the Grand Jury." Mr. Kane saw the mistake readily and corrected it. He then accompanied Mr. Dwyer to the Grand Jury room and introduced him to the twelve men who will pass upon the merits of the case.

POLITICS, HINTS GARBARINO

"There is no record of a Sellers case in my office," he said. "And I made no promise to the board of the Fifteenth district. It is not my intention to get into a controversy with any draft board in the city, but it is possible that politics figures behind many of the so-called complaints that are being made by some of the draft boards. It makes no difference to me what political affiliation an alleged violator of the draft law may have. Whether he be a follower of McNichol, Vare, Penrose or any other political leader, I will treat him the same."

At the United States Marshal's office it was pointed out that the proper attention in a case of the nature of the Sellers arrest was for the police to bring the man to the Federal Building. Men arrested by the city authorities for alleged offenses against the United States should be turned over to the Federal authorities, it was said.

DRAFT LAWYERS TO MEET

A meeting of the fifty-one lawyers appointed by Governor Brumbaugh as legal advisers for the city's draft boards was held today in the office of Harry Berkowitz, in the Lincoln Building, in an effort to obtain uniform rulings for all the boards. Today and tomorrow 300 more men will be called for examination as to their fitness for military service by the Forty-sixth District Board, sitting at the Thirty-sixth district police station, on Germantown avenue below Locomotion.

This has been made necessary by the large number of exemption claims presented by persons accepted and who now claim they are aliens.

MAYOR IS SCORED BY OWN WARD MEN

Independent Republicans Charge Smith Favors Family Rather Than Workers

NEW LEASE OPPOSED

A sensational attack on Mayor Smith and what were described as "members of his gang," was delivered by Independent Republicans of the Twenty-eighth Ward at the headquarters of the ward Republican club, 2111 West York street, last night.

The Twenty-eighth is the Mayor's home ward. Not only was a signed statement issued charging that the Mayor sacrificed the workers of the ward to the interests of his family, but it was said that members of the Mayor's family could get jobs while regular ward workers were ignored.

Mr. Dwyer remained before the Grand Jury for two hours.

Further dissatisfaction over alleged laxity by the Government in prosecuting draft law violators came today, when Chester A. Sellers, accused by his wife, before Local Draft Board No. 59, of being a slacker, was released by Magistrate Collins at the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station.

The Federal authorities failed to investigate the case and showed no interest in it, according to members of the board and the police of the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station. They declared that the Department of Justice promised to have a representative at a hearing before the board yesterday afternoon and the police court hearing this morning, but failed in both cases to do so.

Don Pasquale—Serenata—Com'e gentil

Into his opera of Don Pasquale, Donizetti wrote one of the most melodious serenades ever given to any lover to sing. And Martinelli, whose superb tenor voice has endeared him to Metropolitan Opera audiences and Victor owners, interprets this beautiful number with a charm most delightful—a tender passionate message of a heart which yearns for the love that is its own.

It is a Victor Record you will want to hear—that you will cherish among your library of Victor Records.

Go to-day to any Victor dealer's and have him play this new Martinelli record or any other music by the world's greatest artists who make Victor Records exclusively. He will also gladly demonstrate the various styles of the Victor and Victrola—$10 to $400. Ask to hear the Saenger Voice Culture Records.

The Twenty-eighth Ward? How many active workers has he benefited? Can you get near him? He is very exclusive. Why the demoralization and sounding of the police force? It is a crime. Why did Thomas E. Black betray his personal friends and benefactors—Boles Penrose and James P. McNichol? Where was his fifty-fifty stuff, then? Resent this treachery and help us organize against him in every division. The great war Mayor from Glenside wants your boy to go in the trenches while he sacrificed his own son to a safe berth in the navy yard, far from danger, at $2000 per year, as paymaster, so the papers say. You cannot beat this Smith crowd to it. They land every time, tied to a fat salary.

46TH WARD DEMOCRATS MEET

The Forty-sixth Ward Democratic executive committee met last night at Fifty-second and Market streets and endorsed John J. McQuinn's candidacy for Magistrate. The following candidates for Common Council were endorsed: Franklin A. Smith, Jr., Gustave Becker, Clinton Witcraft, Herman Apthorpe and Charles P. Nagler; for school visitors, Mrs. J. A. Smith and Mrs. M. G. Tull. A platform was adopted opposing the Smith-Twining rapid transit lease in its present form, and favoring a

Fifty-sixth street crosstown line, a straight five-cent carfare, with universal transfers, and ninety-five-cent gas. D. Frank Black last night was elected member of the Republican city committee from the Forty-third Ward to succeed the late Senator William Wallace Smith. Black is a Vice Lieutenant and received sixty-four of the eighty-four votes in the ward committee, which met at the Tom Reed Club, Broad and Butler streets. The twenty McNichol committeemen were present, but refrained from voting. They had no candidate.

Senator Edwin H. Vare, W. Freedland

Senator Edwin H. Vare, W. Freedland, Receiver of Taxes, and James E. Hazlett, Recorder of Deeds, visited the meeting, arriving after Black's election. Each spoke feelingly of the late Senator Smith. Mr. Black is a newcomer to politics, and never has held even a membership in the ward committee. The Democratic committee of the Third Ward last night endorsed John W. Conrad and Magistrate William Eisenbrown for magistracy nominations on the Democratic ticket. Other candidates will be considered next week. Constable Max D. Lieber was chairman of the meeting.
