BIG TENNIS TILT WILL DRAW RECORD CROWDS

Match at Huntingdon Valley Country Club on Sunday Big Feature

Of the four chibs at which the Red Cross-Ambufance Fund tennis stars will play when they visit this city, none is more advantageously situated than the Huntingdon Valtey Country Club, where the stateness are scheduled for Sunday afternoon, it is here that the targest gallery is expeered to turn out, for in addition to remi-dents of Onk Lane and Jenkintown, who take the keenest interest in the game, it is thought that those who see the matches at the Merion Cricket Club on Friday and tennis witnessed that they will turn out in force on Sunday.

The Huntingdon Valley Club has every 0 1 0 1 0 natural stadium, and preparations are knees 0 0 0 0 0 being made to care for one of the largest chilly 0 0 0 0 0 galleries in the history of the organization.

The members of the local Red Cross more have signified their willingness to lend every the c possible aid toward making the affair a hoge success, and local tennis enthusiasts predict a week that will go down in Philadelphia's annals as the most auspicious in to addition to equipping four ambulance In addition to equipping four ambulance sections, consisting of a total of twenty ambulances, it is proposed by the National Lawn Tennis Association, under whose auspices the present tour is being conducted to fill the personnel of the sections from the ranks of the country's tennis players. It is an interesting fact that all of the first ten tennis players of the United States are already in actual service.

Although the interest centers about the Mary K. Browne-Molla Bjurstedt match.

much attention has been attracted to the playing of John R. Strachan, of San Fran-cisco, and Harold A. Throckmorton, of fillizabeth, N. J. These two have played elizabeth, N. J. These two have played singles day after day, and their spectacular performances have proved tremendously popular.

JOHNNY TILLMAN NEARLY TILTS CHARLEY WHITE AND SURPRISES FANS BY TRIMMING KAYO STAR

Minneapolis Boxer Has Chicago Lightweight in Poor Shape—Beats Left-Hook Terror to Punch While Ducking Haymakers

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

IT WAS cold enough for a good fight last might at Shibe Park and Charley White got all the fight he wanted and a tot unwanted for Johnny Tillman, just out of the West on his third Philadelphia invasion, gave the reputed Chicago knockerout an unexpected lambasting, and much of it. In fact, during the last minute of the second round it appeared as if the one of kayo fame would suffer a doze of his own well known cure for insomuta. Titlman's victory was almost as big : surprise as Benny Leonard's recent knockout over Johnny Kilbane. Although the Behemian previously had stopped "Leftnest Charley's" knockdown hooks in a bout in Minneapolle, Tillman didn't seem to fear White at all. Comparatively, Johnny did most of the leading and continually beat the Chicagoan to the punch with a left

Tillman Forces Milling

Starting with the first round Tillman car-ried the fight to White, connecting with a one-two punch time and again and making Charley miss his much-fested book most of the time. While Tillman excelled from the distance with a left jab and right cross, White whaled away at the body with left nocks and at close quarters with both hands. The round ended eventy. The big noise, and surprise, came after two minutes of the second section. Tillman was proving that White's face was a cork-ing defense for a left lead. Churley, at the same time, had a difficult time finding lodg-ment with a book. Suddenly John backed White against the ropes with a straight left and finished a one-two with a stiff right to the chin. Charley wobbled. Tillman, on the alert remained at close quarters, punching away at the head with both nands.

White Was Dazed

White was Dazed

White appeared, and really was, dazed.
Urgent shouts from his corner to "hold on" brought Charley somewhat to his senses and he sure did hold on. But Johnny pulled away and was at White like a whirlwind again, scoring with rights and lefts to the head. It was a stormy session for White. The bell came as Tillman was shooting hard rights at the Chicagoan's jaw. cagoan's jaw.

The opening of the third period found Tillman as confident as in the previous rounds. He still possessed a slight grin rounds. He still possessed a slight grin of self-reliance. He flung bluxelf at White with a straight left, followed simultaneously with a right to the jaw. Again White's knees quivered, and it wasn't from the chilly temperature, either. White held tight, it looked bad for Charley once more. However, after getting his bearings, the Chicago lightweight began stepping around and made Tillman miss several hard wallops. Try as he did. White was unable to get over a left hook to the head. Tillman made him miss by ducking or sidestepping.

Fourth Was Charley's White was himself in the fourth round. This was the only period in which Charley showed to advantage, as the fifth and sixth sessions finished with honors about even. After a little sparring at the beginning of the fourth White caught Tillman coming the fourth White caught the begin in with a hard right on the chin. National Opens Saturday

Jack McGuigan will open his National C. Eleventh and Catherine streets, Saturday night, with two hard-hitting light-weights, Charley White and Eddie Wagond, in the star scrap, Wagond is one of the toughest hattlers in this city. He should make White show all he possesses ust as long as the bout lasts.

Johnny Schiff, the featherweight from California who entisted in the University of Chicago ambulance unit at Allentown last week will appear in the semifinal. Harry Tracey, the Tioga Italian who is staging a cometack, will be the coast boy's opponent. Tracey used to be rated with the best featherweight hoxers in the East.

Frankie White, who can show well against any of 'em when in shap Tommy Baker in the third bout. Kramer, a Hoston bantam under the wing of Frank Donato, and who Frank says is a follopalogia, will pair off with Joe Dor-Tommy Manning vs. Jack Coakley is the opener.

Broadway Show Tonight

The second show of the regular scason will be staged at the Broadway Club to-night. Muggsy Taylor, who coached Johnny Tillman to victory over Charley White last night, will referee the Broadway's final between Blackjack Blackburn and Private, K. O. Sansom. Sansom is in the Third Regiment and one of a number of Philadelphia boxers now enrolled in Uncle Sam's service. Sansom is a hard puncher, but he has a clever boxer with whom to cope, as Blackburn admits that he is in some shape.
Jose Augatis and Tommy Hogan are to
