

VIEWS OF THE CARTOONISTS AT HOME AND ABROAD

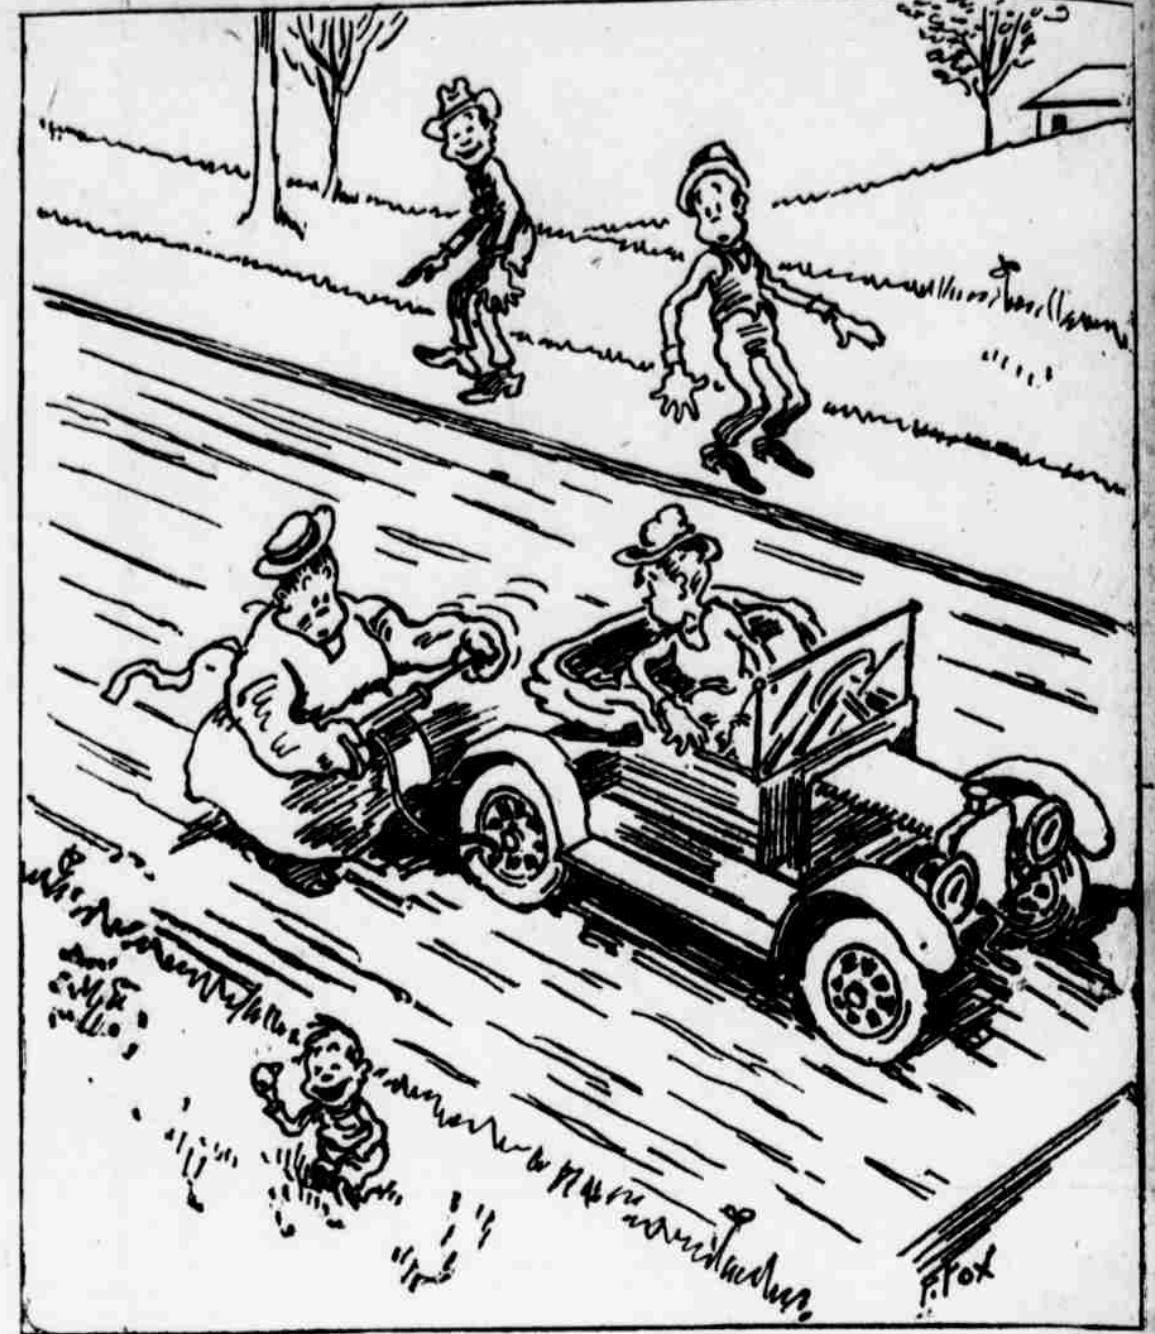

INSTEAD OF BENDING OVER THE TIRE PUMP THE POWERFUL KATRINKA FOUND IT EASIER TO WORK IT LIKE AN ACCORDION

STILL IN THE RUNNING Harding in the Brooklyn Eagle

THE KAISER HEARS FROM WILSON Morris in the Augusta Chronicle

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright)

DRAFTED Brand in the Milwaukee Sentinel

VISITOR: "THAT A NICE THING. WOT'S IT MADE OF?"
PROFITEER: "OH! I MADE THAT OUT OF POTATOES."
From London Opinion

MERRY IN THE St. Joseph News-Press
MORE UNION LABOR

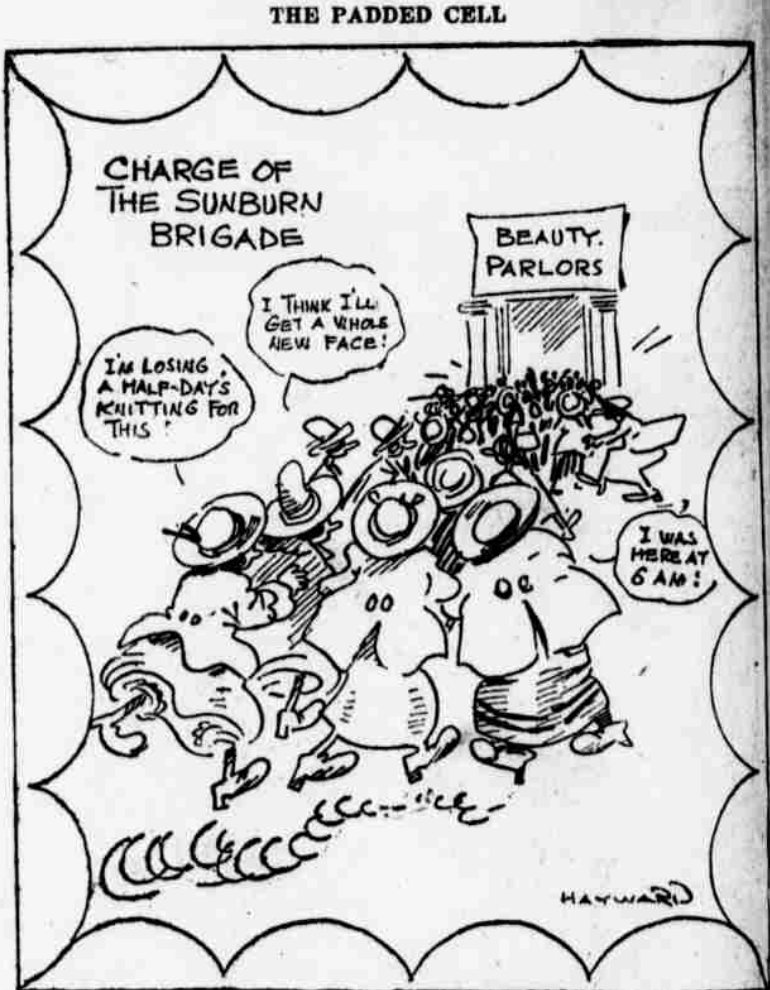

WRIGHT IN THE Milwaukee Leader
EXEMPT

From the Liverpool Courier
CRACK THESE NUTS!

Unpatriotic!
London Opinion.
She (with pride)—I've had my tonsils out. I had two doctors come to do it. He—You ought to have out them yourself, silly, 'cos they want all the doctors to go to France now.

THE PADDED CELL

The Trouble
"Eggs are high."
"You don't have to buy eggs all the time. There are nourishing cereals, oatmeal and such."
"I do have to buy eggs. Trouble is my wife doesn't know how to cook anything else."

Long May They Wave!
The prices change all over town. But peanuts still remain five cents. Potatoes rise and Fords come down. But peanuts still remain five cents. The bag may string or it may grow. But still wherever we may go. The pleasant fact we always know. That peanuts still remain five cents.
—New York Times.

Planchard in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch
THE WORLD ENEMY

From the Westminster Gazette
BETHMANN-HOLLWEG THROWN TO THE PUP

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

The temptation of Saint Paddy

The young lady across the way
The young lady across the way says some people seem to think that as long as prohibition would be unenforced, but her father's health would be ruined, but she's not drinking.