CANDIDATE OFFERS BOND TO GUARANTEE PLEDGES

Dr. Kerr, Out for Mayor of Pittsburgh, Will Give $40,000 Security

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7.

An offer to put up a bond of $40,000 as a guarantee of his sincerity in his promise to give Pittsburgh a thoroughly clean administration if he is elected Mayor has been made by Dr. James P. Kerr, who is opposing E. V. Babcock, the Fenimore candidate, and William A. Magee, the Vane candidate, in the primaries. Doctor Kerr says:

"In two Aldermen's offices there are records showing how many young girls have been ruined in the city parks this summer because the police are not vigilant. "The town is infested with thieves, gambling houses, speakeasies and one-man clubs. "The good church people and the decent citizens are disgusted. They are vitally interested in the future of this city. They demand a Mayor who will keep promises. "Mr. Magee does not keep his pledges to the Voters' Civic League. "Mr. Babcock is responsible for the present administration. "Every father and mother is interested in the safety of the children. "The future moral condition of Pittsburgh is the only big issue of the campaign. Decent, competent officials will insure a progressive and economical administration. "As a matter of good faith I offer to appoint the following committee to approve of all my appointments in the event of my election: "John A. Brashear, chairman; City Controller E. S. Morrow, W. S. Thomas, president of the Allegheny County Bar Association; T. Hart Given, publisher of the Post and Sun; Colonel C. A. Rook, publisher of the Dispatch; George T. Oliver, publisher of the Gazette-Times; and Telegraph; Colonel Oliver S. Hersham, publisher of the Press; Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Leader; George Kistner, editor of the Volksblatt; Wilson A. Shaw, president of the Associated Charities; Miss Helen Grimes, president of the Congress of Women's Clubs; John Lent, president of the Commercial Club; T. D. Harmon, president of the Pittsburgh Board of Trade; the president of the Allegheny Chamber of Commerce and the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. J. O. Miller, president of the women's suffrage; Mrs. J. H. Reed, president of the anti-women's suffrage; Hon. P. C. Knox, United States Senator; Mrs. Watson Smith, president of the Twentieth Century Club; Charles Cooper, of the Kingsley House Association; Miss Mary Dermott, secretary of the Civic Club; the Rev. L. A. O'Connell, director of Catholic charities; the Rev. Cortland Whitehead, the Rev. Regis Carverin, the Rev. Maitland Alexander, the Rev. Edward S. Travers, Rabbi Maurice Mazure, and Judge William A. Way, of the Juvenile Court.

"I agree to submit to the above committee the names of departments, police magistrates, Civil Service Commissioners, property and water assessors, city attorney and all other appointments for their approval before they are publicly announced. If the majority of these men should not approve of any of these appointments, other names will be submitted until they meet with the approval of the committee. In order to prove my sincerity, and that I favor decent, efficient city government, I agree to put up a bond to the amount of $40,000 as a guarantee for the carrying out of every part of this agreement."

TOOK FRIEND'S MOTORCAR AND WRECKED IT. CHARGE Young Man Is Held in Bail After Machine Is Smashed When Wheels Skid

HARRY PETERSON, twenty years old, 2824 West Gordon street, was held in $200 bail for a further hearing by Magistrate Collins today accused of taking an automobile belonging to a friend, which later was wrecked in a "joy ride."

The automobile, according to the police, was taken from a garage at Twenty-eighth and Fletcher streets without the owner's permission. While operating the machine on Susquehanna avenue in the vicinity of Twenty-ninth street the front tires skidded and sped up on the sidewalk. Before Peterson could put on the brakes the car bumped into an iron railing and overturned. Peterson was thrown from the machine, but was not injured.

WILL FIGHT I. W. W. TO BITTER FINISH

Blanket Indictments Involve Thou. ands Throughout Country

NETS ARE EVERYWHERE

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.

Wholesale prosecutions on the charge of conspiracy against the Government, many arrests and raids yet to be made, the probable return of blanket indictments which will involve thousands throughout the United States and the possible deportation of prominent Industrial Workers of the World, are developments soon to be expected in the Government's campaign against the I. W. W.

These facts were outlined today by a Federal official as Frank C. Dalley, known throughout the Middle West as the "terror of evil-doers," joined in the great man-hunt. Federal agents believe this will be Dalley's biggest man-hunt, though he has a formidable record for arrests and convictions in the Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Evansville and other election fraud cases, and in the Indianapolis dynamite trial. It was understood today that with the detention of William B. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the I. W. W., Federal authorities believe they have the "man higher up."

The following statement was made today by one of the most prominent investigators: "Common sense teaches one that a great deal of money is necessary to carry on such a propaganda as has been carried on by the I. W. W. organization. The public seems to believe this money is, or has been, forthcoming from German sources and the public is not always a poor judge."

Continuing, this official statement admitted the investigation has been carried on by the Government "for more than six months," and that "it stood to reason that the Government would make no move, either by raid or arrest, until sufficient evidence had been obtained on which to base vigorous prosecution."

The tons of evidence, consisting of literature of many kinds, are being forwarded to Chicago as rapidly as possible, and, until this can be examined, the work of the Federal grand jury will be slow.

Dalley was called to Washington from Indianapolis several months ago in what many were led to believe was the beginning of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois election fraud cases. There is little doubt that he was then confronted with the biggest task of his life—the I. W. W. man-hunt.

The job facing Dalley, Clabaugh and their big corps of associates will, undoubtedly, extend into weeks, months and, perhaps, more than a year. As one of the Federal authorities expressed it today: "Naturally enough, the country thought the Government asleep while objectionable propaganda was being spread countrywide, but it so happens the Government may move slowly in some instances, but when it does it moves on a rather firm basis."
