

CAMERA VIEWS OF UPSTATE CITIES - OTHER NEWSY PICTURES FROM NEAR AND FA

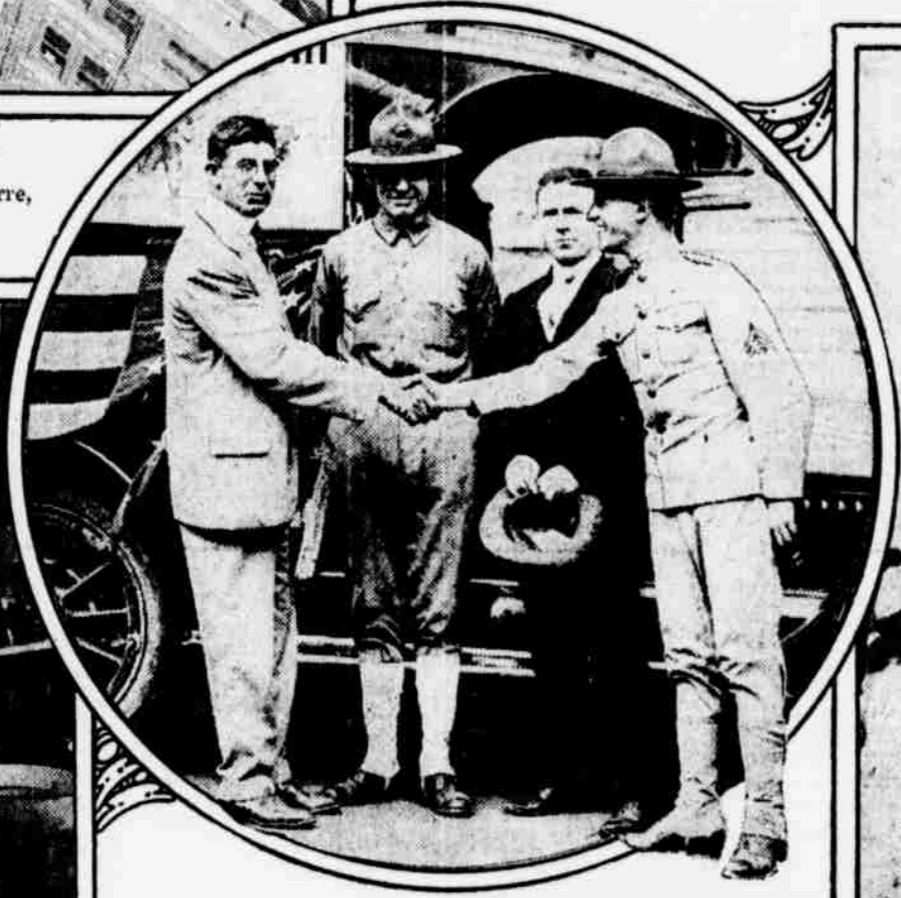

UNUSUAL GLIMPSE OF A NOVEL STRUCTURE
As the new building of the Second National Bank, Wilkes-Barre, appears to a roof-perched photographer.

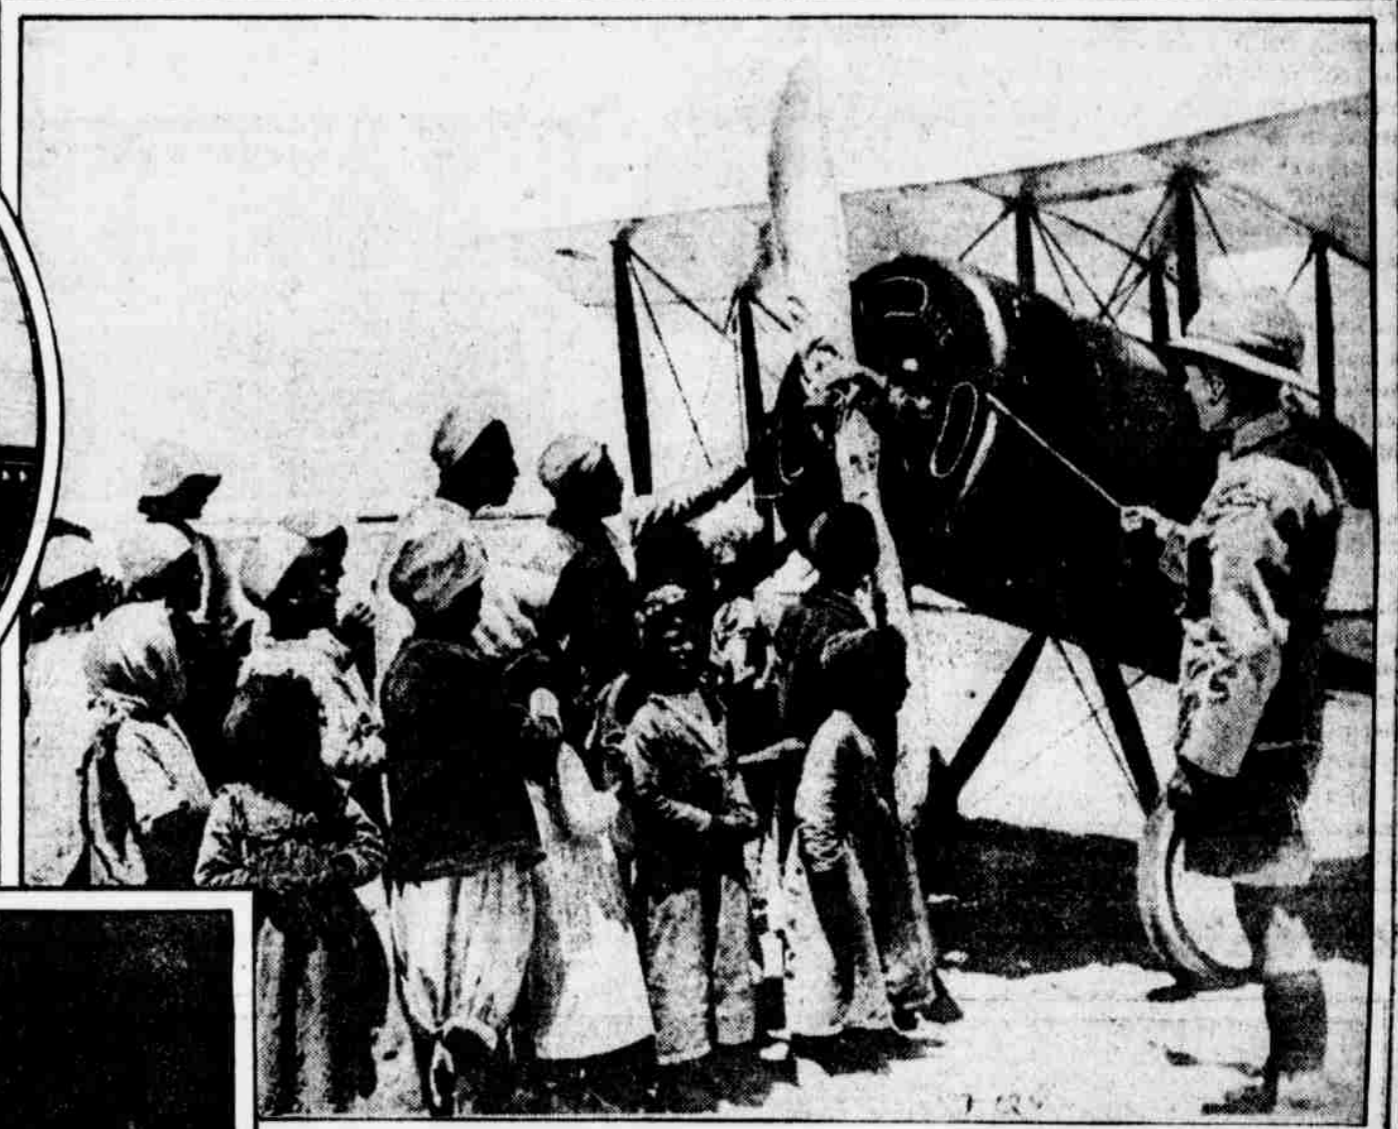

SAMMEES TURN OUT EN MASSE TO GREET AN ARRIVING TRUCKLOAD OF CIGARETTES
"Somewhere in France" today a smoke screen of American tobacco is hiding puffing members of General Pershing's forces from friend and enemy alike.

COMMUNITY DRYING IS GAINING GROUND.
Demonstrators of the food administration are instructing Washington housewives in this co-operative plan and its economical value.

MAYOR JERMYN GREET'S
SERGEANT KATCHER AS
THE U. S. MARINE CORPS
RECRUITING AUTOMOBILE
ARRIVES IN SCRANTON

ARABIANS SEE A STRANGE "BIRD" IN PALESTINE
More wonderful than the legendary roc appears this British airplane, whose workings an R. F. O. mechanic seeks to explain to a native audience.

ASSISTANTS TEACHING COMMUNITY PREPARATION OF FOOD
This phase of the conservation campaign is one which just now is being encouraged in every way by the Federal food administration.

LUZERNE COUNTY'S PROSECUTOR
Frank P. Slatery, of Wilkes-Barre, as District Attorney enjoys an enviable reputation among central Pennsylvania lawyers.

MISS ELSIE BIDDLE MAKING A DRIVE FROM THE THIRD TEE
The new course of the Riverton Country Club offers many natural inducements that are likely to make strong appeal to golf enthusiasts hereabouts.