

Fifth Won Name Fairly : Draft Boards Have Hard Task : Usual "Shakedown" of City Payroll : Other City News

WILSON TO REFUSE EXEMPTION PLEAS

President and Members of Congress Won't Consider Direct Appeals

MUST GO THROUGH BOARDS

District Bodies to Have Final Word in All Dependency Cases, Is Ruling

Direct appeals to President Wilson or members of Congress for exemption by drafted men will not be considered at Washington.

An announcement to this effect was given out this afternoon by Provost Marshal General Crowder, who sent instructions to Governors that no appeals would be considered unless the affidavits were forwarded through district boards.

It was also announced that evidence on agricultural claims which had not been presented to the district board would not be considered by the President in any effort to have the district board's decision overruled. Furthermore, it was declared that the district boards will have final say in all dependency cases.

Pleas for exemption continue to pour in before Draft Appeal Board No. 2 in the Federal Building.

Charles A. Cloch, of 3418 Emerald street, made an appeal this afternoon on the ground of being physically unfit. His appeal in the third one of these grounds from the decisions of the Forty-seventh District draft board, which sat at Richmond and Kirkbride streets. Cloch's appeal was accompanied by an affidavit from Dr. G. W. Firth, who said that Cloch had defective lungs and heart and other ills.

The Federal Grand Jury in its first presentation of indictments this afternoon made no report on the alleged exemption fraud cases. Several cases in which men are alleged to have made fraudulent statements to obtain exemption are under consideration. The term of the present Grand Jury expires Saturday, and a return will have to be made to the court within the next three days.

Many of the Philadelphia draft boards probably will be unable to furnish their required quotas of 45 per cent by September 19, according to opinions expressed by several of the board members.

Certificates have not been returned to several of the boards, at least, by the appeal boards, and it is considered likely that they will have to ask for an extension of time.

The call for the additional 10 per cent for September 19 was made yesterday. It is believed to have its origin in a report from Major General Joseph E. Kuhn, at Camp Meade, to the effect that the camp would be able to accommodate 45 per cent of the quotas on September 19.

The first call for drafted men for the new National Army was for a per cent, but it was increased two days ago to 35 and yesterday to 45 per cent.

Is a chain restaurant company, feeding between 60 and 70,000 people daily necessary to the national interest? Should the night superintendent of the company be released from military service because his continued employment is necessary to the "public health and interest?"

Two direct appeals to President Wilson were submitted to the appeal board. They were from John H. Yerkes, living at Limekiln pike and Weaver street, and Rudolph B. Dutt, Jr., of 4231 Old York road. Yerkes is an expert farmer and says that 5000 eggs a week, besides other poultry products and produce from the 100-acre farm he manages at Edge Hill, will be stopped as a valuable food supply to the nation if he is drafted. Dutt is a mixer of colors for Eichler & Co., Mascher street and Montgomery avenue, dyers of woolsen, worsted and cotton yarns used in the manufacture of army cloth.

Donald Robertson, 2725 North Sixteenth street, foreman of the machine shop building for the Bourne Magnetic Company, motor trucks, filed an industrial claim with District Appeal Board No. 2.

MISS POOL AVIATOR'S BRIDE

Her Marriage at Ardmore to Major Howard Announced

Announcement was made today by Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Herbert Pool, Montgomery avenue, Ardmore, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lois Alexander Pool, and Major Clinton Wilbur Howard, United States Aviator Corps.

The ceremony was performed last Monday night by the Rev. Dr. Edmund G. Rawson in the First Presbyterian Church, Ardmore. Major and Mrs. Howard left for Fort Hill, Okla., where Major Howard is stationed as an instructor at the school for aerial observation, a few hours after the ceremony. Major Howard is twenty-six years old. His bride is five years younger. The engagement was announced last May, but no date for the wedding had been fixed.

SINGER SUES MUSICAL CLUB

Thinks She Is Entitled to $220 for Rehearsals and Concert

Anna G. Mautz, contralto soloist, formerly connected with the Mattinee Musical Club of Philadelphia, has brought suit against that organization, in the Municipal Court, to recover $225, which she says is fair compensation for her appearances at a number of rehearsals and the concert of the club in January last.

The contralto says she sang in both special choruses and rendered solos under her management by the defendant, and while a definite amount of compensation was fixed, she believes that $20 per rehearsal and $25 for the concert is fair recompense for her singing.

STOLE $67 FROM MOTHER

She Didn't Want Him Jailed, So He Joins Third Regiment

Frank Coogan, twenty-seven years old, of 3321 North Fifteenth street, was accused of stealing $67 from Mrs. Alice Coogan, his mother, before Magistrate Watson, this morning. Mrs. Coogan said Frank took the money last Saturday. She explained she did not want to send him to jail, but that he must keep away from the house. Magistrate Watson suggested that he enlist. To this Coogan willingly agreed, and the magistrate sent for M. F. Carroll, the Third Regiment recruiting officer on duty in the Mayor's office, who took Coogan downstairs to enroll him.

NAVAL RESERVE NEEDS COOKS

Orders Received Here to Enlist All Possible for This Service

An unlimited number of cooks are needed for the United States Naval Reserve force. Orders to enlist as many men as possible in this rating were received today by Lieutenant M. S. Tucker, U. S. N. R., who is enlisting duty at the Naval Home, Twenty-fourth and Ferry roads. The men will be assigned to active duty immediately, either within or outside the Fourth Naval District. The pay is from $20 to $45 a month. All applicants should make the home Naval Reserve force at the Twenty-fourth and Ferry roads.

TAGEBLATT MEN AGREE TO GIVE UP

Will Surrender to U. S. Authorities at Tomorrow's Hearing

DECLARES RUMORS FALSE

Peter Schaeffer, president of the Philadelphia Tageblatt Publishing Company, and Paul Vogel, treasurer, two missing officials of the German-language newspaper raided by Federal agents for alleged seditious articles, sent word today that they are on their way to surrender.

Schaeffer telegraphed from Cincinnati, where he is attending a convention of the Brewery Workers' Union, that he will be on hand at the hearing of the case, scheduled for tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Vogel sent word that he also would be present. Thus, the six officials of the newspaper named in the Federal warrant, accusing them of violation of the espionage act, are accounted for.

The four Tageblatt officials arrested and released under $10,000 bail each for tomorrow's hearing are: Peter Schaeffer, president; Paul Vogel, treasurer; Dr. Martin Darkow, managing editor; and Waldemar Alfredo, editorial writer.

DENIES LA FOLLETTE LETTERS

Frank L. Garbarino, chief special agent of the Department of Justice, whose men collected the evidence that led to the arrest of the Tageblatt men, today denied that there was any evidence to show that Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, communicated with the Tageblatt or that the newspaper received financial aid from "mysterious" German agents in Mexico.

"I do not know where all these stories come from," he said. "I didn't authorize them. It is no fair, for there is no evidence to show it. As far as we have gone there is nothing to indicate that Senator La Follette sent any communication to the management of the Tageblatt or that the paper received money from Mexico. The published statements to that effect are untrue."

Investigators today were busy with the mass of papers collected in the raid. The services of German scholars may be needed to determine the exact meaning of several documents under the Federal officials' scrutiny.

Werner and Alfredo, were held in $10,000 bail yesterday by United States Commissioner Long, charged with violation of the espionage act. They were arrested on June 15, 1917, otherwise known as "the espionage act." Both men surrendered when they learned that warrants had been issued for their arrest as a consequence of the Federal raid on the newspaper on Monday night.

Lemke and Dr. Martin Darkow, the managers of the paper, were arrested with the two other officials who have promised to surrender. Lemke and Darkow were arrested and admitted to bail a few hours after the Federal officials raided the Tageblatt offices at 107 North Sixth street on Monday night and confiscated more than one ton of files and records.

The Postoffice Department has issued no order against the transmission of the Tageblatt through the mails. Despite the absence of most of the executives, the staff got out the usual issue on Tuesday morning and sent it to the station through the mails. The staff also was permitted to get out the edition for today.

United States Attorney Kane has turned over the examination of witnesses and the investigation of the case to Assistant United States Attorney Harvey. The two employees of the Tageblatt were summoned to Harvey's office yesterday and questioned regarding the newspaper and its activities.

In addition, the Federal raid of several of the English newspapers were subpoenaed for examination.

MOTHER AND KIDDIES BREAK QUARANTINE

Rain Washes Sign Down and Whoooping-Cough Victims Depart—But Waiter Must Wait

A driver who can't drive now and a waiter who has nothing to do but wait are keeping boche's hall in a quarantined house at 2322 North Myrtlewood street because of two whooping cough cases that are somewhere in New Jersey.

It was this way six weeks ago the Board of Health quarantined the house because two children of Louis Linden had whooping cough. Rain having washed the quarantine sign down, the mother, Mrs. Lena Linden, accepted it as an act of Providence and took the children to New Jersey Sunday. When Linden and Fred Katz, a Manufacturers' Club waiter boarder in the house, started to work Monday they found a policeman gesticulating outside.

"Get away from me," said the policeman. "Stay in that house. You're under quarantine."

They accepted the inevitable. Yesterday they were made indignant when two political workers in slouch hats dropped by and offered to get them out if they would vote for a certain candidate for Beach City. Nothing to do but smoke cigars shoved into the door by a policeman.

U. S. AGENTS ARREST ALLEGED DOPE DEALERS

Men Taken Said to Be Among Biggest Vendors of Narcotic Drugs in the City

Two of the biggest dope dealers in this city, according to Internal Revenue inspectors, were arrested early today at Eighth and Wood streets, charged with having $700 worth of narcotics in their possession. The arrests were made after a struggle by Inspector Beach City. Attorney for the men waived a hearing today before Commissioner Howard Long in the Federal Building. One of the prisoners, Albert "Buck" Mayer, of 412 South Second street, was held under $300 bail for court. He is already under $1200 bail for a similar charge for the coming term of court. The other defendant, William Stevenson, was held under $1000 bail.

At a further hearing today before United States Commissioner Long in the Federal Building, Young of 14 North Third street, was held in $500 bail for court on a charge of concealing and smoking opium, while living in the home of Mrs. Theresa McCaulley, of 253 North Alder street.

WOMAN SMOTHERS BABY

Coroner's Jury Finds Verdict of Accidental Suffocation

Accidental suffocation was the verdict given by the Coroner's jury today in the death on September 4 of one-month-old John Hackett at 830 South Second street. According to the testimony of Chief Deputy Coroner Sellers, the mother, Mrs. Mary Hackett, rolled over on the child in bed while intoxicated. She was discharged. Accidental death from an overdose of heroin was the verdict in the case of Louis J. Baum, twenty-one years old, of 3425 F street. Baum, who was a private in the Fifty-third Infantry, U. S. A., died September 8 in the Episcopal Hospital. David Collins, of 305 East Allegheny avenue, a friend of Baum's, who was arrested, was discharged.

GET OUT YOUR PALM BEACH

Forecaster Says a Somewhat Warm Spell Is on the Way

Warmer weather is on the way, according to Weather Forecaster Bliss. While the temperature even today is below the average for this time of the year, the days, least, will be considerably warmer before the end of the week.

5TH WARD RUMPUS AN OFT-TOLD TALE

Not All Citizens of That Noted Battleground Factional Followers

INDEPENDENTS INCENSED

Not every citizen of the Fifth Ward's 17,000 residents is a supporter of either one or the other of the two political factions in the ward. There are some who do not give the proverbial tinker's dam which side wins.

It is the opinion of such citizens that must be relied upon to obtain a just view of the factional broil in the Fifth Ward that has alternately amused and disgusted the public for the last several days. Their comment affords a bird's-eye view of the situation so enlightening, observers say, that it ought to arouse the people of the Fifth Ward immediately to form an independent organization consecrated to the utter demolition of both factions.

Some superficial facts in the present election are these:

Isaac Deutsch, a dealer in meats, with a booth in the South Second street market and a meat market at 305 South street, over which he lives, and who has been a member of Common Council from the Fifth Ward for three terms, is a candidate for re-election this year. He is supported by the Vares.

A young man named Cohen, known generally as "Battling Abe," who was a police officer and a candidate for now conducts a cigar stand and pool room at Sixth and Pine streets, around the corner from Deutsch's political club, was raided by the police last week and knocked unconscious by his blacking.

Deutsch's brother Max denounces Cohen's place as a rendezvous for gamblers, procurers and dope fiends. Cohen's place has been raided on two previous occasions. The latest raid was conducted by Lieutenant David Bennett, of the Third and De Lancy streets police station, with two policemen assisting him.

Bennett and the two policemen were brought promptly before Magistrate John J. Harrigan and held under bail for court, accused of assault and battery with intent to kill. Their prosecution is being urged on by James A. Carey, ex-magistrate and ex-police lieutenant, who has been known as the McNichol man of the Fifth Ward. Ex-Judge James Gay Gordon, attorney for the prosecution of the policemen, spoke for the Carey faction and denounced the raid as an instance of the use of the police in politics when he hinted that the police were merely obeying the orders of higher city officials. State Senator Isadora Stern, also a friend of the Carey faction, has urged that the police cases be hurried by the Grand Jury, so that they may be tried before the primary election on September 19, in the hope that a conviction "on the eve of election" will have a wholesome effect on a degenerate police department.

Such are the claims of outraged civic righteousness put forth by the Carey faction. Now, listen to what is said by Harris Comer, a business man who formerly lived in the Fifth Ward and for twenty years as a member of the School Board, city committeeman and leader of the independent campaigns in that ward, a sturdy and unprejudiced fighter for ward decency:

"Exactly the same howl that is now raised by the Carey faction against the use of the police was justly directed against Carey years ago. Merchants in the community were threatened with persecution if they did not support Carey, just as the Deutsch faction is threatening today. We independents never went to the registration booths or the polls without facing assault. Our watchers were jostled by thugs until there was a pretext for Carey's police, waiting for the opportunity, to rush in and hustle off our men."

"I remember when David Olwell, one of our watchers, who lives at 340 South Lawrence street, a few steps away from the Eleventh Division headquarters, between Fourth and Fifth street, then known as 'Hell's Kitchen' was attacked. In this way an spirited ally of the police. He was taken to the Third and De Lancy streets station, but we were refused knowledge of his whereabouts, and I remember how we hunted all over the city until dawn before we found him. In more than one case our bail was refused. We were obliged to supply our watchers with cards which they might slip into the hands of some bystander after they were seized by the police, so that we might have a clue to their whereabouts. I have seen Isadora Stern herself, who now conducts a police interference, standing in a crowd outside a polling place and urging the police to arrest our watchers instead of the thugs who molested them in their duties."

"When one independent voter, an intelligent colored man named Boyd, entered the booth to vote, an organization thug shouldered his way in alongside of Boyd and attempted to mark Boyd's ballot for him. When Boyd protested he was beaten up by the police and hustled away in secret custody. T. Henry Walnut, who was of great assistance to us at that time, found him at last, late at night, after hours of search."

"I do not remember that Carey ever had any occupation beside that of being a McNichol henchman. It was common report that he Deutsche sat in Carey's back office and directed all his decisions. There is no hope for better days in the Fifth Ward until it is freed from rule by either of these factions. For a time it seemed as if the community was getting cleaner, so that it was place in which law-abiding citizens could live without molestation, but apparently it is going through a revival of the old days."

DEUTSCH DEFENDS HIS 5TH WARD FOLLOWING

Visits Mayor to Tell Him It Is Not Composed of Crooks and Cutthroats

Two hundred and fifty supporters of Isaac Deutsch in the Deutsch-Carey Fifth Ward political fight called upon Mayor Smith, at City Hall, this afternoon and laid before him their side of the feud.

"We want to show you, Mr. Mayor, that our faction is not composed of crooks and cutthroats, as represented to you by the McNichol people," said Isaac Deutsch, spokesman of the delegation, whose candidacy for Select Council precipitated war in which blood has been shed.

"I realized before I saw you that there are two sides to this question," responded the Mayor. "And I want to say that I have the ward full of plain clothes policemen now. I will keep them there until the fight is over to see that you are protected." Mayor Smith announced that he was sending out a statement today remaining the

DEUTSCH DEFENDS HIS 5TH WARD FOLLOWING

Visits Mayor to Tell Him It Is Not Composed of Crooks and Cutthroats

Two hundred and fifty supporters of Isaac Deutsch in the Deutsch-Carey Fifth Ward political fight called upon Mayor Smith, at City Hall, this afternoon and laid before him their side of the feud.

"We want to show you, Mr. Mayor, that our faction is not composed of crooks and cutthroats, as represented to you by the McNichol people," said Isaac Deutsch, spokesman of the delegation, whose candidacy for Select Council precipitated war in which blood has been shed.

"I realized before I saw you that there are two sides to this question," responded the Mayor. "And I want to say that I have the ward full of plain clothes policemen now. I will keep them there until the fight is over to see that you are protected." Mayor Smith announced that he was sending out a statement today remaining the

Some superficial facts in the present election are these:

Isaac Deutsch, a dealer in meats, with a booth in the South Second street market and a meat market at 305 South street, over which he lives, and who has been a member of Common Council from the Fifth Ward for three terms, is a candidate for re-election this year. He is supported by the Vares.

A young man named Cohen, known generally as "Battling Abe," who was a police officer and a candidate for now conducts a cigar stand and pool room at Sixth and Pine streets, around the corner from Deutsch's political club, was raided by the police last week and knocked unconscious by his blacking.

Deutsch's brother Max denounces Cohen's place as a rendezvous for gamblers, procurers and dope fiends. Cohen's place has been raided on two previous occasions. The latest raid was conducted by Lieutenant David Bennett, of the Third and De Lancy streets police station, with two policemen assisting him.

Bennett and the two policemen were brought promptly before Magistrate John J. Harrigan and held under bail for court, accused of assault and battery with intent to kill. Their prosecution is being urged on by James A. Carey, ex-magistrate and ex-police lieutenant, who has been known as the McNichol man of the Fifth Ward. Ex-Judge James Gay Gordon, attorney for the prosecution of the policemen, spoke for the Carey faction and denounced the raid as an instance of the use of the police in politics when he hinted that the police were merely obeying the orders of higher city officials. State Senator Isadora Stern, also a friend of the Carey faction, has urged that the police cases be hurried by the Grand Jury, so that they may be tried before the primary election on September 19, in the hope that a conviction "on the eve of election" will have a wholesome effect on a degenerate police department.

Such are the claims of outraged civic righteousness put forth by the Carey faction. Now, listen to what is said by Harris Comer, a business man who formerly lived in the Fifth Ward and for twenty years as a member of the School Board, city committeeman and leader of the independent campaigns in that ward, a sturdy and unprejudiced fighter for ward decency:

"Exactly the same howl that is now raised by the Carey faction against the use of the police was justly directed against Carey years ago. Merchants in the community were threatened with persecution if they did not support Carey, just as the Deutsch faction is threatening today. We independents never went to the registration booths or the polls without facing assault. Our watchers were jostled by thugs until there was a pretext for Carey's police, waiting for the opportunity, to rush in and hustle off our men."

"I remember when David Olwell, one of our watchers, who lives at 340 South Lawrence street, a few steps away from the Eleventh Division headquarters, between Fourth and Fifth street, then known as 'Hell's Kitchen' was attacked. In this way an spirited ally of the police. He was taken to the Third and De Lancy streets station, but we were refused knowledge of his whereabouts, and I remember how we hunted all over the city until dawn before we found him. In more than one case our bail was refused. We were obliged to supply our watchers with cards which they might slip into the hands of some bystander after they were seized by the police, so that we might have a clue to their whereabouts. I have seen Isadora Stern herself, who now conducts a police interference, standing in a crowd outside a polling place and urging the police to arrest our watchers instead of the thugs who molested them in their duties."

"When one independent voter, an intelligent colored man named Boyd, entered the booth to vote, an organization thug shouldered his way in alongside of Boyd and attempted to mark Boyd's ballot for him. When Boyd protested he was beaten up by the police and hustled away in secret custody. T. Henry Walnut, who was of great assistance to us at that time, found him at last, late at night, after hours of search."

"I do not remember that Carey ever had any occupation beside that of being a McNichol henchman. It was common report that he Deutsche sat in Carey's back office and directed all his decisions. There is no hope for better days in the Fifth Ward until it is freed from rule by either of these factions. For a time it seemed as if the community was getting cleaner, so that it was place in which law-abiding citizens could live without molestation, but apparently it is going through a revival of the old days."

NEWSBOY HIT BY AUTO

Suffers Concussion of the Brain in Accident

Dewitt Smith, thirteen years old, of 2319 Turner street, an EVENING LEADER newsboy, was run down by an automobile at Broad street and Columbia avenue, at noon today. The machine was driven by Bernard Trehern, of 1418 Bainbridge street, who took the lad to St. Joseph's Hospital. The boy is suffering from concussion of the brain and is unconscious. Trehern will have a hearing tomorrow.

The police say the boy started across the street after the policeman on the corner had given the southbound traffic the signal to move.

ONE-DAY OUTINGS

FROM MARKET STREET WHARF $1.00 Abilene City, Hillsdale, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Avalon, Asbury Park, 7:00 A. M. daily until Sept. 16. In addition on Sundays, Atlantic City, 9:30 A. M., Wildwood, 9:45 A. M.

$1.25 Barnegat Pier, Bay Beach, Pleasant, Manasquan

$1.50 Asbury Park, Ocean Beach, Sea Girt, Spring Lake, Seaside, 7:00 A. M. daily until Oct. 21 - 7.20 A. M.

Pennsylvania R. R.

ONE-DAY OUTINGS

FROM MARKET STREET WHARF $1.00 Abilene City, Hillsdale, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Avalon, Asbury Park, 7:00 A. M. daily until Sept. 16. In addition on Sundays, Atlantic City, 9:30 A. M., Wildwood, 9:45 A. M.

$1.25 Barnegat Pier, Bay Beach, Pleasant, Manasquan

$1.50 Asbury Park, Ocean Beach, Sea Girt, Spring Lake, Seaside, 7:00 A. M. daily until Oct. 21 - 7.20 A. M.

Pennsylvania R. R.

ONE-DAY OUTINGS

FROM MARKET STREET WHARF $1.00 Abilene City, Hillsdale, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Avalon, Asbury Park, 7:00 A. M. daily until Sept. 16. In addition on Sundays, Atlantic City, 9:30 A. M., Wildwood, 9:45 A. M.

$1.25 Barnegat Pier, Bay Beach, Pleasant, Manasquan

$1.50 Asbury Park, Ocean Beach, Sea Girt, Spring Lake, Seaside, 7:00 A. M. daily until Oct. 21 - 7.20 A. M.

DEUTSCH DEFENDS HIS 5TH WARD FOLLOWING

Visits Mayor to Tell Him It Is Not Composed of Crooks and Cutthroats

Two hundred and fifty supporters of Isaac Deutsch in the Deutsch-Carey Fifth Ward political fight called upon Mayor Smith, at City Hall, this afternoon and laid before him their side of the feud.

"We want to show you, Mr. Mayor, that our faction is not composed of crooks and cutthroats, as represented to you by the McNichol people," said Isaac Deutsch, spokesman of the delegation, whose candidacy for Select Council precipitated war in which blood has been shed.

"I realized before I saw you that there are two sides to this question," responded the Mayor. "And I want to say that I have the ward full of plain clothes policemen now. I will keep them there until the fight is over to see that you are protected." Mayor Smith announced that he was sending out a statement today remaining the

Some superficial facts in the present election are these:

Isaac Deutsch, a dealer in meats, with a booth in the South Second street market and a meat market at 305 South street, over which he lives, and who has been a member of Common Council from the Fifth Ward for three terms, is a candidate for re-election this year. He is supported by the Vares.

A young man named Cohen, known generally as "Battling Abe," who was a police officer and a candidate for now conducts a cigar stand and pool room at Sixth and Pine streets, around the corner from Deutsch's political club, was raided by the police last week and knocked unconscious by his blacking.

Deutsch's brother Max denounces Cohen's place as a rendezvous for gamblers, procurers and dope fiends. Cohen's place has been raided on two previous occasions. The latest raid was conducted by Lieutenant David Bennett, of the Third and De Lancy streets police station, with two policemen assisting him.

Bennett and the two policemen were brought promptly before Magistrate John J. Harrigan and held under bail for court, accused of assault and battery with intent to kill. Their prosecution is being urged on by James A. Carey, ex-magistrate and ex-police lieutenant, who has been known as the McNichol man of the Fifth Ward. Ex-Judge James Gay Gordon, attorney for the prosecution of the policemen, spoke for the Carey faction and denounced the raid as an instance of the use of the police in politics when he hinted that the police were merely obeying the orders of higher city officials. State Senator Isadora Stern, also a friend of the Carey faction, has urged that the police cases be hurried by the Grand Jury, so that they may be tried before the primary election on September 19, in the hope that a conviction "on the eve of election" will have a wholesome effect on a degenerate police department.

Such are the claims of outraged civic righteousness put forth by the Carey faction. Now, listen to what is said by Harris Comer, a business man who formerly lived in the Fifth Ward and for twenty years as a member of the School Board, city committeeman and leader of the independent campaigns in that ward, a sturdy and unprejudiced fighter for ward decency:

"Exactly the same howl that is now raised by the Carey faction against the use of the police was justly directed against Carey years ago. Merchants in the community were threatened with persecution if they did not support Carey, just as the Deutsch faction is threatening today. We independents never went to the registration booths or the polls without facing assault. Our watchers were jostled by thugs until there was a pretext for Carey's police, waiting for the opportunity, to rush in and hustle off our men."

"I remember when David Olwell, one of our watchers, who lives at 340 South Lawrence street, a few steps away from the Eleventh Division headquarters, between Fourth and Fifth street, then known as 'Hell's Kitchen' was attacked. In this way an spirited ally of the police. He was taken to the Third and De Lancy streets station, but we were refused knowledge of his whereabouts, and I remember how we hunted all over the city until dawn before we found him. In more than one case our bail was refused. We were obliged to supply our watchers with cards which they might slip into the hands of some bystander after they were seized by the police, so that we might have a clue to their whereabouts. I have seen Isadora Stern herself, who now conducts a police interference, standing in a crowd outside a polling place and urging the police to arrest our watchers instead of the thugs who molested them in their duties."

"When one independent voter, an intelligent colored man named Boyd, entered the booth to vote, an organization thug shouldered his way in alongside of Boyd and attempted to mark Boyd's ballot for him. When Boyd protested he was beaten up by the police and hustled away in secret custody. T. Henry Walnut, who was of great assistance to us at that time, found him at last, late at night, after hours of search."

"I do not remember that Carey ever had any occupation beside that of being a McNichol henchman. It was common report that he Deutsche sat in Carey's back office and directed all his decisions. There is no hope for better days in the Fifth Ward until it is freed from rule by either of these factions. For a time it seemed as if the community was getting cleaner, so that it was place in which law-abiding citizens could live without molestation, but apparently it is going through a revival of the old days."

It's good business to wear ready-made clothes. Men like this understand good business; they make it. They know that good clothes are part of it; and not paying too much for them a sign of it. They buy our clothes, ready-made, because they save time and money; and get all-wool fabrics, correct style, good tailoring, good fit. Look for our label when you buy clothes; a sign of satisfaction guaranteed; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find. Hart Schaffner & Marx. Strawbridge & Clothier are the Philadelphia Distributors of the Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothing.