

THE ACE OF AMERICAN AVIATORS AND OTHER PREMIERS IN PHOTOGRAPHIC ARRAYS

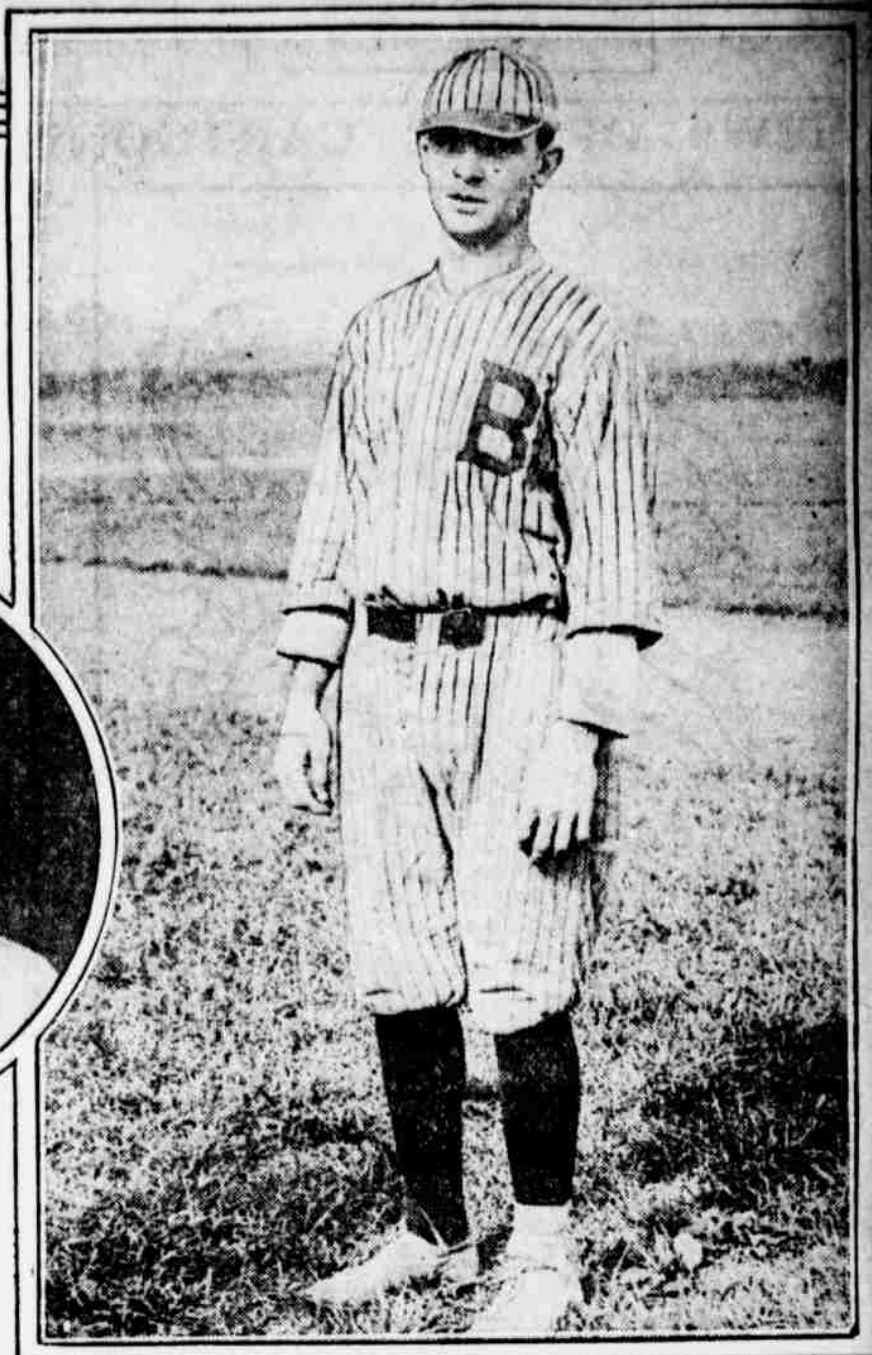

"SPICK," MASCOT AT CAMP DIX. This Mexican hairless dog is the pet of every member of the Sixty-sixth Truck Company, stationed at Wrightstown.

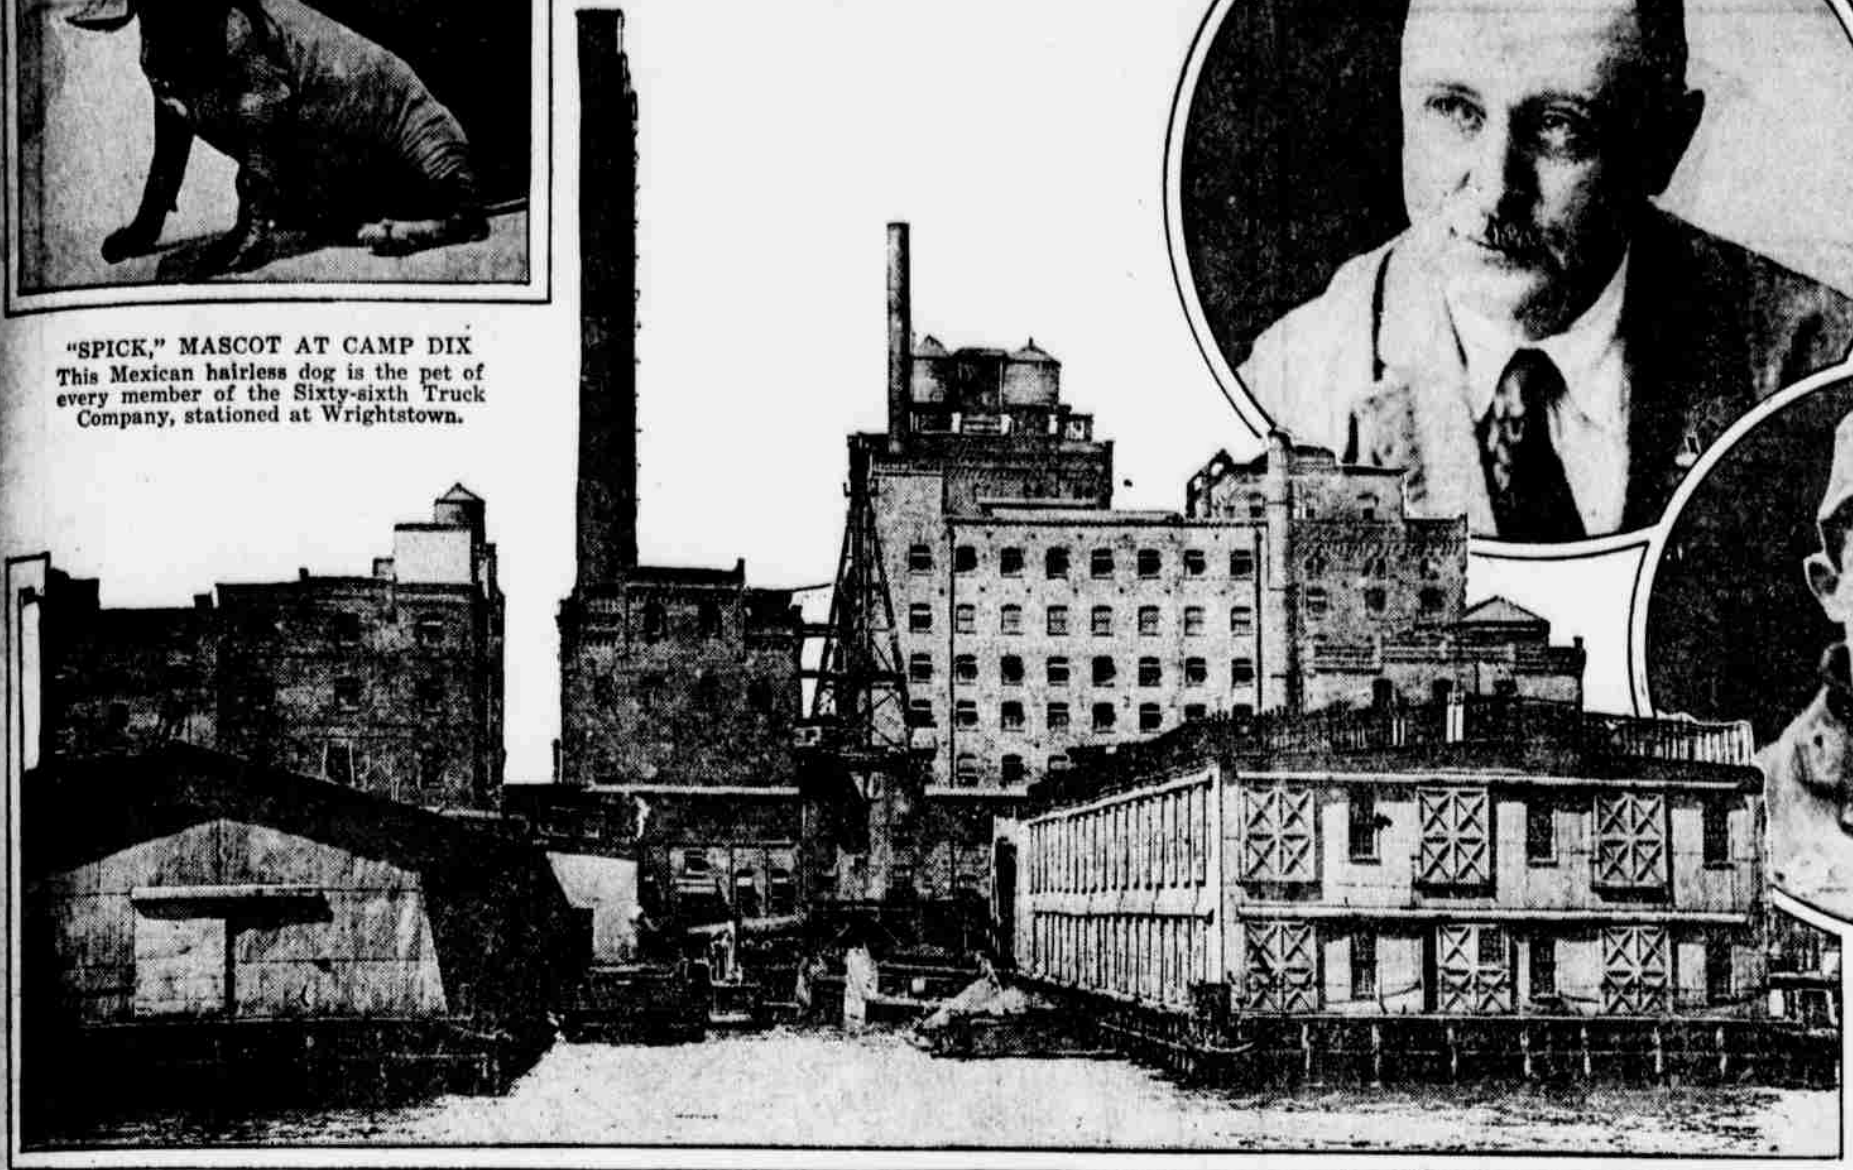

THIS SOLOMON ASPIRES TO "JUDGESHIP" His friends in the Fortieth Ward are supporting the magisterial campaign of Solomon Malsberger, 4750 Kingsessing avenue, with hopes of his ultimate success.

Photograph by Underwood & Underwood. This latest photograph of Lieutenant Raoul Lufberry, of the Lafayette Escadrille, reaches America coincident with news of his having "winged" his twelfth German airplane.

THE HARD-WORKING LEADER OF A SUCCESSFUL TEAM Charles MacGregor, in addition to playing second base for the Curtis Country Club baseball nine, manages its business affairs and ranks high among its batsmen.

A PIONEER PHILADELPHIA RIVER-FRONT MANUFACTORY

The plant of the Franklin Sugar Refining Company below South street is an up-to-date successor to the Harrison & Havemeyer establishment, at what once was Almond street wharf.

OPEN-AIR KITCHEN AIDS FOOD CONSERVATION CAMPAIGN

From this practical culinary rostrum assistants in uniform are giving a demonstration in community work to an interested audience of city housekeepers.

A STOVE IN A WAGON IS AN ECONOMICAL FACTOR THAT IS UTILIZED WITH GOOD RESULTS BY UNCLE SAM IN HIS FOOD CONSERVATION CAMPAIGN

Photograph by General Photo Service.

LEAGUE ISLAND IS BEING FORTIFIED AGAINST "ENEMY" INVASION. Marines surveying for trenches that are being dug outside the Navy Yard as part of the training for future duty "somewhere in France" or elsewhere.

THE THROBBING CENTER OF A WIDE-AWAKE PENNSYLVANIA MUNICIPALITY

A view of East Market street, Wilkes-Barre, the chief business thoroughfare of the Luzerne County metropolis, with the public square in the foreground.