GRANDE BATTAGLIA VINTA DAL GEN. CADORNA

La Conquista del S. Gabriele Segna la Piu' Grande Vittoria Riportata dagli Italiani

ALTRE VITTORIE IN VISTA

Enorme Breccia Aperta dalle Truppe Italiane nella Linea del Nemico e' Irreparabile

ROMA, 15 Settembre.

Il versante occidentale e la sommita' di monte San Gabriele sono ora definitivamente in mano delle truppe italiane. Gli austriaci rimangono ancora aggrappati all'altro versante, nascosti tra le roccie e nelle numerose caverne, ma e' soltanto questione di ore prima che essi vengano scacciati per sempre dalla montagna.

La conquista del San Gabriele, cosi' vasta importanza come quella di Monte Santo, costituisce la piu' grande vittoria vinta dagli italiani dall'inizio della guerra. Solo la resistenza feroce opposta dal nemico ha impedito alle truppe della Seconda Armata di impadronirsi del monte molti giorni prima. Quando la settimana scorsa gli italiani occuparono la della del Dol e il bacino di Oslavaro, il fato degli austriaci sul San Gabriele era gia' stato suggellatto. Nonostante gli sforzi enormi della artiglieria austriaca ben nascosta nella foresta di Tarnovo e sulle pendici del monte, masse di fanteria italiana cominciarono immediatamente ad attaccare le posizioni austriache. Le perdite erano ingenti per ambo le parti, ma gli italiani non si arrestarono se non quando raggiunsero la cresta settentrionale del monte. Nonostante i contrattacchi furiosi del nemico, essi cominciarono a scacciare i princes nelle rocie, come meglio potevano. Quando infine furono portati su i cannoni pesanti e le mitragliatrici, allora ebbe culmino' ieri con la conquista della vetta dell monte dopo ventidue giorni di lotta violentissima.

Il monte e' ora sparso di cadaveri e rosso del sangue copiosamente versato. Gli austriaci, trincerati in qualche punto, si combattono ancora a resistere con la speranza di ricevere rinforzi e poter cosi' riconquistare gli italiani, ma le loro retrovie sono costantemente sotto il fuoco dei cannoni italiani e la loro resistenza, quindi, non potra' durare a lungo.

Il comunicato italiano dichiara che ormai il possesso del San Gabriele e' permanente e che nessun attacco nemico, per quanto vasto o violento che sia, potra' sloggiare le truppe di Cadorna dal monte.

Questa strepitosa vittoria riportata dal Generale Capello ha richiamato l'attenzione degli alleati dell'Italia fino ai punto che questi stanno ora considerando di mandare alla fronte italiana rinforzi considerevoli di cannoni, munizioni, aeroplani ed altro materiale poiche' e' ormai accertato che solo l'Italia e' in grado di dare il colpo mortale alla resistenza e alla baldanza austro-teutonica e porre cosi' fine all'immane conflitto.

Gli alleati riconoscono che le possibilita' aperte agli italiani dopo la presa del San Gabriele non hanno fine. I cannoni italiani dominano ora Monte San Daniele e dopo che questo monte sara caduto allora le altre montagne fortificate ad est di Gorizia, principalmente Monte Santa Caterina e San Marco, dovranno soccombere. Protetti alle spalle, gli italiani avranno libera l'avanzata nella valle del Vippacco per puntare sopra Lubiana che si ammentte sia l'obiettivo principale del generale Cadorna, poiche' presa Lubiana allora si potra' dire che il tallone dello stivale italiano stia poggiado sulla testa del nemico con le punta rivolta verso il suo cuore.

La caduta di Lubiana segnerebbe la fine dell'Austria. Trieste sarebbe gia' passata in mano italiana, mentre le linee austriache di comunicazione con la Dalmazia sarebbero tagliate e percio' Fiume e Pola rimarrebbero isolate. Al di la' di Lubiana, poi, non vi sono montagne fortificate come quelle che gli italiani stanno ora espugnando; una pianura fertilissima e facile ai rinforti si estende attraverso l'Ungheria, e chi potrebbe dire che fra breve il teatro della guerra austro-italiana non sara' portato dalle Alpi Giulie fin sotto le mura di Vienna?
