

VIEWS OF THE CARTOONISTS AT HOME AND ABROAD

Rollin Kirby, in the New York World.
AUTOCRACY'S MESSENGER BOY

Penna, in the Newark Evening News.
FORCED TO DIRTY WORK

Nelson Harding, in the Brooklyn Eagle.
STABBED IN THE BACK

Coffman, in the New Orleans Item.
COMING OUT OF THE SWAMP

From London Opinion.
MORE BUBBLES

Official French war cartoon.
THE BAPTISM OF FIRE

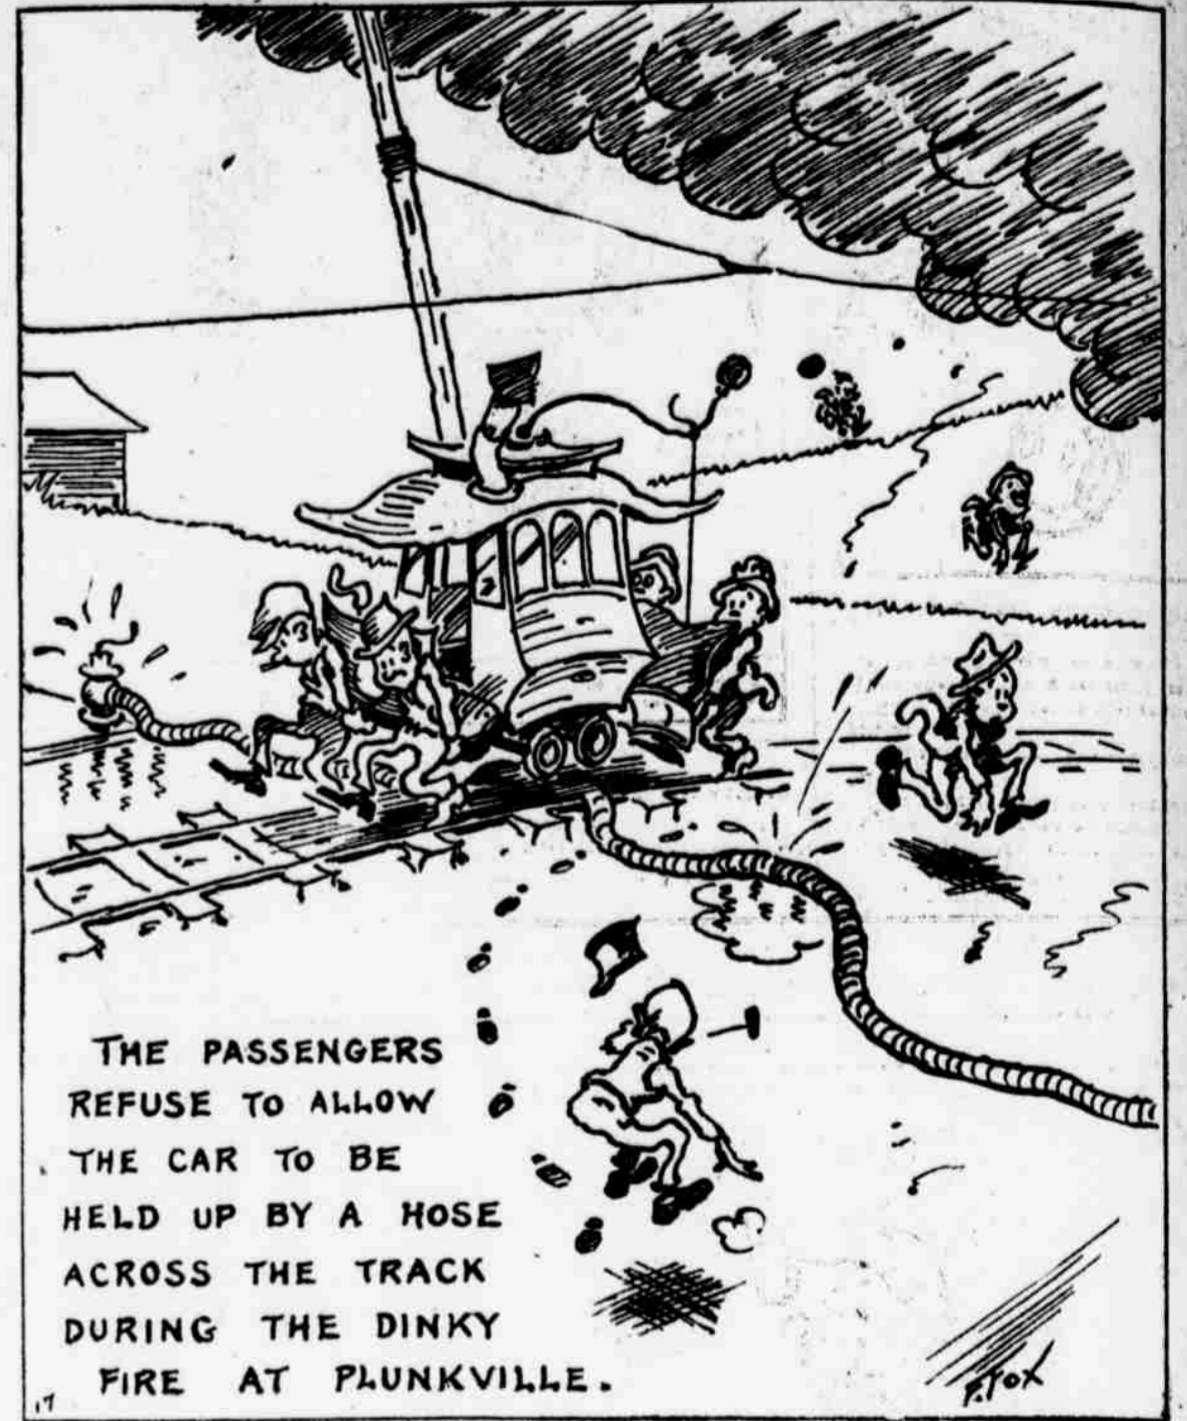

Brown, in the Chicago Daily News.
DISCOURAGING

Thiele, in the Sioux City Tribune.
SOMETHING A DOG CANNOT UNDERSTAND

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY

By FONTAINE FOX

THE PASSENGERS
REFUSE TO ALLOW THE CAR TO BE HELD UP BY A HOSE
ACROSS THE TRACK
DURING THE DINKY
FIRE AT PLUNKVILLE.

(Copyright)

Chargers

O, where's the man who served our tea and sometimes charged us for it twice? O, where's the plumber with his bill that always caused a nervous chill? Oh, where's the man who sold us coal and levied tribute on our roll? Oh, where's the man whose bread and cake replaced what mother used to bake? Where are those old friends, good and true, who used to care for me and you? Why, every one is on his way the Kaiser's bloody hand to stay; to make him stop this ruthless war that's mauling the world with gore. Their fighting value will be large, because they all know how to charge, and they'll make Kaiser Bill come through with every penny that is due, and pay, as far as money goes, the full indemnity he owes.

WILL MOORE.

A Wise Young Lady

—Passing Show.

Mother—Joan, dear, have you been doing anything to this ink?
Joan—Yes, mummy; I put some water to it to make it write weak. I've been writing a letter to daddy—and I wanted to whisper something to him!

THE PADDED CELL

HAYWARD

News from the Front
"Very distressing news from the front this morning."
"So I see. Our team lost another game."

Easiest Way Out
"But I say, old chap, don't you ever carry any extra tires on your car?"
"Extra tires? What do I want them for?"
"Oh, in case you have a blow-out, you know."
"Oh, I never bother to change tires. When one of them gives out I leave the old machine and buy a new car."

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says their cook makes such lovely baking-powder biscuits that they really look forward to their wheatless day at