HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 13.—Miss Phyl-lis Waish, of the Philadelphia Country Club, reached the final round in the singles of the women's patriotic tennis tournament of Philadelphia and district here today by defeating Miss E. G. Osthelmer, of Huntingdon Valley, in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

Valley, in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

Miss Walsh played a more active game than her opponent and her service was decidedly superior all the way through. In the first set Miss Osthelmer held her own for some considerable time, but Miss Walsh gradually put her on the defensive and heat her by coming up to the net and smashing the ball whenever the opportunity effected. In the second round Mrs. J. E. Bailey, of Merion, and Miss Gertrude Osthelmer, of Huntingdon Valley, were by no means badly matched, for although Mrs. Balley won the first set by six games to three. Miss Osthelmer rendered a good account of herself, in the second set and carried the score to five all. Then Mrs. Balley broke through her service, and, winning the next with her
