Motorman and Conductor Arrested Following Death of Little Girl in Trolley Accident

A fifteen-month-old baby, Ellen Dunnevent, of 1224 Wylie street, strangled itself to death accidentally early today, when its head became wedged under a rod of a crib. Mrs. Myrtle Dunnevent, mother of the child, is in a critical condition at St. Joseph's hospital from grief. She is only twenty-three years old.

The child was restless during the early hours of the night. The mother hovered about it, but went back to bed when the child ceased crying. All was quiet for several hours and the mother was happy at the thought that her little daughter was sleeping peacefully. She was horrified to discover later that the infant's head had been wedged between bedclothes and a rod of the crib.

The mother collapsed. She was rushed to the hospital with her daughter. The child, however, was dead.

M'ADOO MAKING READY FOR TOUR OF COUNTRY

Will Spend Nearly a Month Speaking in Interest of New Liberty Loan

By HOMER JOSEPH DODGE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is completing details of his itinerary for a tour of the country in behalf of the second Liberty Loan, which will be offered the first of October. The Secretary expects to devote even more time to speaking in support of the second big issue than he did the first one.

"As tentatively fixed, Secretary McAdoo's itinerary will take him from Washington October 1. He will go out through the northern tier of States, speaking at all principal points as far as the Mississippi River. Thence he will follow the northern route out to Spokane, Seattle and Portland. The Secretary's party will go down the Pacific coast, holding rallies at various cities, and will return by the southern route to New Orleans. From there he will work back to Washington, calling at the more important southern cities and towns.

Wednesday, October 24, has been designated by the Secretary as "Liberty Day," a special occasion on which special efforts will be made to raise money for the Government.

The various local committees in cities throughout the country are laying plans for the Secretary's reception, and wherever he stops there will be a patriotic celebration designed to make the dollars flow into the Government coffers to help pay the war.

A special appeal will be made to the farmers of the country to subscribe to the second Liberty Loan. Husbandmen did not support the first loan in any marked degree, and their money was not needed to make it a huge success. The farmer's money is desired for the second loan, and every effort will be made to reach him.

As the farmers have just harvested their crops at record-breaking prices, the Administration feels that they will not hesitate to turn over millions to the safekeeping of the United States Government.

Banks of the country already are lined up to join in the campaign. Committees of business men are active all over the nation preparing the way for the big campaign, which is to last from October 1 to October 27.

KEEP EYE ON STEEL BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Steel men have begun to congregate in Washington in anticipation of today's hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission of the Senate on the Pomerene bill, which provides for power to fix prices on iron, steel and their products. The hearings will begin this morning.

Among those here to watch the controversy is Charles M. Schwab, of Bethlehem Steel.

Those expected to come here include Judge Gary, of the United States Steel Corporation, and James A. Farrell, its president.

The Pomerene bill is said to be an Administration measure, and represents another step in the Federal program to regulate prices.

NEW CHIEF OF STAFF MAY BE NAMED TODAY

Speculation as to Successor to Major General Scott, Who Retires Tomorrow

By a Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The new chief of staff of the American army is expected to be announced some time today. Secretary of War Baker is understood to have turned over his recommendations in the matter to the President.

Major General Hugh I. Scott, the present chief of staff, is due for retirement at noon tomorrow, on account of age. There is a belief in many quarters at the War Department that the President will be persuaded by Mr. Baker to permit the post to be occupied for the next three months by Major General Tasker H. Bliss, at present assistant chief of staff, who will reach the retirement age in December. Following this, the man named, it is assumed, would be one young enough to serve for the remainder of the war.

Although good grounds exist for believing that Major General Joseph E. Kuhn, now commanding the Seventy-ninth Division of the National Army in training at Camp Meade, Md., will be the permanent choice of the President, and may even succeed General Scott at once, there are officers of the general staff who incline to the view that the assignment may be given to Major General Hunter Liggett, now commanding the Forty-first Division of the National Guard.

President Wilson himself is known to have expressed warm appreciation of the abilities of General Kuhn, who as attaché at the American Embassy in Berlin, was military observer with the German army during the early period of the war. Subsequently he became president of the Army War College, in which capacity he received all the confidential reports from the American observers at the various fronts.

SUES FOR $50,000

TRENTON, Sept. 21.—The hearing of a suit for $50,000 was started in the United States District Court yesterday before Judge Reistab and a jury, with Morris J. Hirschheim, of Philadelphia, as the plaintiff and Anthony Deplano, Harry Freeman, Joseph Gordon and the American Rubber Manufacturing Company, which is now in the hands of a receiver, as defendants. They are all of this city.

Hirschheim claims damages are due him for false arrest, imprisonment and prosecution caused by the defendants after he had come to this city to purchase some goods. He asserts that he came to Trenton to look over merchandise said to be for sale by the rubber company and that payments for alleged past purchases were demanded. Upon his refusal to settle at once, he says he was arrested on the ground that he was not a man of means as he had stated previously.
