PLATT REACHES EDGE HILL FINAL

Defeats Dr. De Long, 3 and 1, and Meets Hicks, Conqueror of Greer, for Title

BOTH MATCHES CLOSE

EDGE HILL, Pa. Sept. 22.-Some exceptionally interesting matches marked the final day's play in the invitation tourna-ment of the Lu Lu Country Club here to-Both matches in the semi-final round of the first sixteenth were close. In the upper bracket W. J. Platt, of North Hills, defeated Dr. Perce De Long, of Bala, 3 up and I to play, and in the lower bracket C. M. Hicks, of the Philadelphia Country Club, defeated A. Greer, of Cobb's Creek,

The match between Platt and De Lone was marked by good and bad play on the part of both men. Both men missed easy putts on several greens, but this only served to make the match more interesting. De Long was two up at the turn, but Platt equaled the match on the thirteenth. After halving the fourteenth in five, where both missed easy putts, De Long drove out of bounds on the fifteenth and finally lost the de with a five.

De Long overshot the green on the short nineteenth and nearly went into the quarry getting out. Platt put his tee shot vir-tually dead to the hole, but playing safe he took a three and won the hole easily. Al-though receiving a stroke from his op-ponent, De Long played it poorly, and, taking a six to his opponent's five, he was beaten 3 down and 1 to go. The match between Greer and Hicks was close all the way round. Neither man was at his best, but the seven shots that Greer gave him just enabled Hicks to pull through on the eighteenth hole, when he ran down a long putt for a win.

'FAT BOY" MEEHAN IS HERE AGAIN, ACCOMPANIED BY A NEW MANAGER WHO IS MRS. EUGENE C. WALCOTT

Pudgy Pug, Who Returned Home Because He Was Homesick for Her, Is Back East on Honeymoon, and to Do Some Boxing

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

JUST as the smiling sun comes up out of the East, so did the beaming face and pudgy person of Willie Mechan, the Frisco Fat Boy, himself in the flesh, although not weighted down so much with excess avoir dupols, come here out of the West late yesterday afternoon. This is Mechan's second invasion this side of the Mississippi. Willie's last trip here was under the managelie's last trip here was under the manage-ment of Moose Taussig. This time Meshan has another manager, one whom Hill be-lieves in and has no superior as a handler of the Fat Boy's affairs, puglistically or otherwise.

Mrs. Eugene Christopher Walcott, formerly Miss Sayde Flood, of California, is Willie's new manager, and Eugene Christopher Walcott, Esq., is Mechan, the Big Boy himself. Like many boxers of the present time and past, the burly exponent of finticuffs and masseur of other boxers' physiognomies, has been gaining a country-wide rep as a gloom chaser in ring circles under a nom de guerre.

You will remember that Mechan was the headline attraction in local bouts last fall, whether he appeared in one of the prelims or on the end of a program. No matter what reputation a boxer had, if Meelian was one of the ten performers on a card Willie really was the heavy magnet for a capacity

While here last year Meehan won an even dozen bouts. When he decided to leave the East behind for a return to his San Francisco home he had another attraction than cisco home he had another attraction than the ring around the California diggin's. It was the little, round, smilling face of Sadye Flood. Willie, although he was in line for a lot of bouts and much of the flithy stuff, wanted to get back to the old home hearth and HER side.

Now Willie is back among us, really on a honeymoon, and at the time on another venture in eastern fistic competition. Mechan hadn't stepped from a Pullman at Broad Street Station half an hour before he was signed up for a bout at the Olympia Club. Matchmaker Jack Hanlon didn't know and doesn't yet, who he would select for the Fat Boy's opponent. He wanted Willie's signature and got it for an engagement October 15. Probably Jack Dillon will be the other boxer in the star bout that night, or else maybe Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, or Billy maybe Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, or Billy

While back home Meehan made the rosin fly, lambasted as many as fifteen heavyweight opponents and pleased coast fans in four-round bouts. Of the fifteen contests in which he participated Willie lost only one referee's decision, which, Eugen Christopher says, started such a scandal at Seattle that the game was killed there.'
It will be remembered that only two days ago Gunboat Smith left New York for Frisco for the purpose of meeting Meehan in a four-round bout next Friday night. The Gunner didn't know it and won't until he reaches Frisco, that Meehan was on his way here. Meehan explains that he hadn't agreed definitely to box Smith, as a difference in money caused Meehan to hold off. Then when he saw that he wouldn't be given the purse he thought he deserves Meehan said, "Well, wife, let's pack up and strike out for the East."

This is Mrs. Walcott's first visit to this part of the country—in fact, it is the first time that Willie's manager has been out of California. Although only in Philly one day, Mechan's most enthusiastic rooter says that she likes it here and will remain just And Willie says he will stay just as long as he can get bouts.

Viggi. Another Club in the Field

Starting next Friday night, three clubs will hold weekly bouts. Tommy Riley is getting into the promoting field by reopening the well-known Nonparell Club, in opposition to the Cambria and Southern. His initial attraction is a bout between Jack McCloskey and Andy Burns, at 120 pounds. It is the match that nursum fans have "It is the match that uptown fans have been clamoring to see for a month." Riley says, Young Lawrence, of Camden, is to ap-pear in the semifinal, with Jack Brady as the other semifinalist. Other bouts will bring together Joe Geiger and Mike Burns, Ben Harris and Battling Edwards and Johnny Bradley and Terry Hanion.

Gussie Lewis is "jebbin' 'em op" nicely at Adam Ryan's these days. The youngster has improved so well that he is expected to wade through the bantam class for anout for the East."
