

SMITH SAYS PRIEST Father McDermott Declares Insanity Only Excuse for Mayor's Actions CITES HIS ATTITUDE

In a scathing denunciation of Mayor Smith, the Rev. D. I. McDermott, rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fourth and Spruce streets, expressed his opinion that "there is no question as to his legal responsibility. Only on the ground that he is insane will a jury in the criminal court acquit the Mayor of complicity in the murder of Policeman Eppley."

MERCANTILE APPRAISER Suffering From Concussion of Brain, Physician Says HAS RESTLESS NIGHT

The condition of Mercantile Appraiser James A. Carey, victim of the murderous attack with blackjacks wielded by New York gunmen during the "Heign of Terror" in the Fifth Ward primary election day, remains unchanged. He spent a restless night, and this morning was said to be still in a serious condition.

PHILADELPHIA POLICE IN ATHLETIC CARNIVAL

The upper picture shows the crowd at Franklin Field today witnessing the finish of the first heat in the hundred-yard dash, won by Joseph E. Denning, Reserves, and John Downing, Thirtieth District. In the lower picture a boxing contest between Policemen Slattery, Fourth District, and Hipp, Seventh District, is shown.

"I'll spill it all. I want to tell you—but can't you promise to save me from the crowd?" "No, I can't make any promise like that, and you know it," replied Captain Tate. "Come on, now, Jack, and tell us the truth."

DEMAND MAYOR RESIGN The resignation of Mayor Smith, accused of complicity in the murder of Policeman Eppley, is demanded. Plans are under way for a big mass-meeting in the Academy of Music to call upon the Mayor to resign.

PLANS FOR MEETING The plans for the mass-meeting to be held in the Academy of Music next Thursday night were formed at a meeting which closed about 7 o'clock last night.

THE plea of insanity is the only one on which Mayor Smith can hope for acquittal by a jury in a criminal court, according to Father McDermott.

Mayor Smith has begun to worry. He now expects to be "under arrest" for the charges against him, according to the latest reports from his Atlantic City home.

Ever since he signed his own $10,000 bond on the conspiracy to murder charge in the Municipal Court yesterday his attitude has been changing.

Joe, the butler, said over phone that neither the Mayor nor Receiver Kendrick was there home last night.

The Mayor's $25,000 residence on Morris avenue became a "show-place" this morning. Motor parties slowed down in passing.

Nothing to say. The Mayor was asked to make some statement in the "dope fields" but he replied: "I have nothing to say."
