Money Pouring in to Provide Tobacco for Soldiers-Christmas Gifts Now Wanted

Money is pouring into the tobacco fund for American soldiers of the Emergency Aid Committee, of which Mrs. Waiter S. Thom-son has charge. Mrs. Edward Browning, transurer of the tobucco committee, so far has received $5116.10, and the stream shows be stere of distinguishing.

has received $5116.10, and the stream snows to signs of diminishing. The second collection from the United Cigar Stores, which will be made today, is expected to yield largely. The stores invite nuckers to depend their certificates in special boxes. The committee collects these and the United Cigar Stores Commany reand the United Cigar Stores Company re-deems them in cash, which is used to pur-deeps them in cash, which is used to pur-class more tobacco. Among the large contributors to the fund yesterday were the Philadelphia Club, $400, and Daniel H. Carstairs, $100. Contributions to Christmas Gift Fund for American Soldters and Sallors are asked by Mrs. Samuel Bell, Jr. chairman of the committee in charge of the fund. Brightly colored cretonne bags, ton by eighteen inches, and all sorts of gifts to put in them, as well as money to buy gifts, are them, as well as money to buy gifts, are wanted.

Noted Presbyterian Visits President WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.-The Rev. Dr. John M. Wells, moderator of the Presbyterian Church conference committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church, paid his re-apects to President Wilson at the White House today.
