JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

More About the Sporting Carnival Which Will Open Tomorrow at Bryn Mawr-Nancy Wynne Tells of the Vaudeville Feature

REALLY I don't think I ever heard of dog show and heave, knows what else. There's a baby show, too, and now the equal the Sporting Carnival which will be held out on the grounds of the Bryn Mawr Polo Club tomorrow and Saturday.

It's far more on the order of a great county fair than anything else I have barned about lately. Everything under the sun and moon and stars will be for It's a wonder. sale and every known amusement will be given. And the best of it all is that it is to be given for the benefit of the Main Line Auxiliary of the Red Cross and every branch on the Main Line and Valley Forge is included in the features of Yesterday I heard a lot about the vaudeville. Mrs. John B. Thayer will be in charge, and it certainly will be a wonder. In the first place, inside of the vaudeville tent will be Kenilworth, the great astrologist, in a tent of his own, and Baron Scotsford will cut silhouettes in another tent. The silhouettes on the top of the page today will give you an idea of his talent, for to me the likenesses are simply wonderful. And everyone knows how remarkable Kenilworth in!

Then Ruth Draper, that perfectly charming monologist from New York, year the club had grown so that it was has consented to help Ars. Thayer and moved over to the larger ballroom of her committee out and will appear four the Bellevus. It became a regular habit times in the vaudeville; and they are to for people to stop in there for a few have urythmic dancing by the pupils dances after the theatre and to stay on and Monsieur and Madame de Montoliu. till the end. The Supper Club will be Madame dancing herself and leading her four scholars and Monsieur accompany- given up on account of the war that it ing them at the piano. The four girls who is no surprise to hear of this. I'm afraid daughter, Miss Sarah Trump, of 6655 Mc-Cattle, Gladys Leuba and Eleanor Harrieur Henri Decring, of New York will come on and be the week-end guest in camp. Notices of the discontinuation of Mrs. Thayer, and this great artist has promised to accompany the várious singers and dancers just as he is asked by Mrs. Thayer.

It's perfectly wonderful how the artists will give their time and talents for the cause, the Red Cross.

Genevieve Gibbs is to dance, accompanied by Monsieur Deering; Candace Howard will give several solo dances, Mr. Ben Staadt, violinist at the Ritz-Carlton. and his friend, Mr. Wissow, at the piano, accompanying.

Then just let me enumerate some of the other attractions. There will be a chorus of 100 sailors, who will be led in singing by Mr. John F. Braun, who was lately made president of the Community Singing, Mr. Braun will also lead the brass band from the navy yard. Mr. S. Nevin Weist, a cornetist, will do some solo work and will lead a special brass quartet.

John Curtis, a comic monologist, will appear, and Matthew Kernan, known as the "Whistling Cop." will whistle. Kerman is one of our own town poicemen and has consented to go out and add his little whistle to help along the good work.

Mrs. Franklin Townsend, who is a member of Mrs. Thayer's committee, will sing, also Miss Carr and Miss Frances Lodge. We all know Frances as "Miss Mary's" niece and we have heard much about her voice. I will be very glad of an opportunity of hearing her, for they tell me it is very lovely. She studied with Henri Scott, you know.

Other singers will be Elizabeth Latta. who will appear in costume for her two solos, and Miss Jane McLoughlin, another pupil of Mrs. Seammon-Jones, will sing. Two New York singers will be Mr. Irvin Mutch, who will sing the "Prologue" from "Il Pagliacci" and other operatic favorites, and Miss Frieda Klink, a noted mezzo-soprano, will also sing several songs. Mr. Bernard Poland, a tenor, will sing and Miss 'IcQuigan will play the violin. Then there will be magicians and trained dogs and many offerings from the Keith circuit. I am cure you will agree with me that Mrs. Thayer could easily fun a vaudeville house, should she ever be "up against it" in pecuniary things at any future date.

MRS. HARRY WALN HARRISON and Mrs. Bob Montgomery are to have the movies in their care. And such movies! Pictures of Base Hospital No. 10 embarking and arriving, "Polly of the Circus," which was so enthusiastically received here last week, and several other very spendid films. Then the lunch counter is certainly to be a wonder in itself. They will keep it going from a. n. to p. m. Doesn't that ound buginesslike? Mrs. John Groome Mrs. Frank Clyde and a dozen other minen are interested in this feature. I have fold you already about the first-
