Mille Lodge. No. 1000, conferred the second degree in full form, with the full staff in harmes. Among the visitors were Past Grand Young and a large delegation from imperial Lodge, including Bro. J. Reutemann, of the United States mays. The following officers were nominated. Nothe grand, Raymond Winter: vice grand, S. R. Miller: secretary, Harry L. Sines: irreaurer, G. Haidel Louden, representative to Grand Lodge, Hisir N. Reiley and Charles E. Brandan: trustee, George Braselmann, and third member of the relief, Harry Fritsch. Jr. W. Filbert Williams, John A. Weir, Charles W. Stokley and Thomas Butterfield. The race for chief promises to be keen and will draw a large attendance to might, as much of the success of the lodge will depend upon the candidates elected. The third degree in full form. All members, particularly strangers, are welcome to Parkway Building, seventh floor, Room E. need at the late Grand Court Convention.

"No matter what the cause it is not excutable at court representatives should be absent from and Court sessions, particularly in this year the war oriels." is the ruling of the overse. "To allow anything to prevent the alloaned is not displaying a true spiriture regard of the order. A vigorous campaign will be ade to instill a true conception of the importance of representation at future convenings. In Million the campaign railies will promote an excase of membership as inauguarated by G. T. Farley, who is a resident of this section." It is commendable that where a matter that the deft to pursue its own course that that where a failure to be present at convening the section of a resident of this section. The propose to be alset to every less that is not progressive in order to bring up to that standard of excellence is a charteristic that the grand chief rames possesses, of he exerts himself to extend the wholesome duence to others." proudly asserts F. TEOCA TRIBE HONORS GREAT SACHEM, I. O. R. M.

Fine Progress of a Distant Wigwam-Further Contributions to Ambulance Fund

Teoca Tribe, No. 343, 7200 Woodiand evenue, had the honor of entertaining Great Sachem Beswick, who gave a strong and hearty talk. The tribe has made a fine record during the summer term, the full measure of success being due to the popularity of the sachem, Dr. Frank Anderson, as well as the co-operation of the mem-Thirty-three palefaces were admitted, with twenty-three applications on the desk. The tribe has had a strenuous uphill fight to overcome many difficulties, and the efficient work of the board of managers has cleared away nearly all the financial troubles. Teoca confers the three degrees in ample form: their wigwam is without doubt the finest in West Philadelphia and thate membership is composed of decrees their membership is composed of doctors, lawyers, leading business men, one minister and genuine hustlers, who are proud of their membership in the tribe. Its roll of honor to excel, some of the most active members being Harry Rheinhart, C. of R.; P. S. Ellwood Jones, P. S. Jim Jolly, P. S. Ephraim Slugg, Bob Weir, C. C. Metson, P. S. Adam Averell, John Scott, Jr., and P. S. Fibers Weige. P. S. Elmer McClay.

s lor, a member of Penobscot Tribe, No. 70, forwarded his personal check for $5.

Washita Tribe, No. 53, of Conshohocken, held an overflow meeting has Saturday night. Octawa Tribe, of Camden, ronferred the adoption degree and Wyoming Tribe, of Camden, rendered the warrior's degree and the simplified work of the chiefs. A street parade preceded the meeting, at which 300 members were receded the meeting, at which 300 members were resent including warriors from Montsama, Wawatem and Minnue Raunee, of Norristown, a class of sight was admitted to membership and the work was excellent. Great Chief of Becords Joseph Nowrey of New Jersey, made a forceful address on the order in seneral, directing attention to the work of Ottawa and and Whoming Tribes, with a combined membership of 2300, and a total valuation of over $170,000. He paid a glowing tribute to the record of Washita Tribe, fifty-five years old giving to the army thirteen callsted men and ton drafted, told of his many trials and concluded his talk with the poom 'Your Flag and My Flag.' Other speakers included G. C. of R. of Pennsylvania Thomas L. Fraser, P. G. B. Samuei H. Walker, P. G. S. Milton Herdge, of New Jersey, deputy great sachems, George Boone and John Faber; C. of R.
