

"Bloody Fifth" Witnesses Make Startling Disclosures

did you see first? A. I saw a telephone boy, who sent my name into Senator Vares' private office. The door was closed.

Q. Did the boy take your name in? A. No, I think he phoned it in.

Q. Then what occurred? A. I was admitted by Finley, who came and opened the door and beckoned for me to go in.

Q. The defendant Finley, who sits here? A. That is him.

Q. When you got in what occurred and was said? Give the conversation in its order, in its sequence.

Q. I asked Mr. William Vares if he would be responsible for the order that was left at our office for eighteen men by Deutsch, and he said that Deutsch had ample money to pay all bills, and he had no doubt that he would pay them and everything would be all right.

Q. What office, the office of the hotel? A. The office of the hotel and went to the desk. I asked the clerk at the desk for Mr. Finley's room.

Q. From where? A. From the Ritz-Carlton Hotel at Broad and Walnut streets.

Q. What did he say and what did you say? A. I said to him, "I got on the phone and it was William Finley. Finley said, 'Come down to Room 181. I think he said '213'."

Q. Did he give you the letter when they came up the stairs? A. I don't know.

Society Brand Clothes

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

For men—irrespective of their age—who are young in years and young in viewpoint.

To make youth tarry is an art Society Brand Clothes have mastered. If you are young, you don't want old men's clothes. If you are fifty—wear the vigorous styles and be rated at forty.

No garment is a genuine Society Brand model unless the inside pocket bears the label. Go to "Style Headquarters"—the store that sells Society Brand Clothes.
