CLARKSON CLOTHIER'S FUNERAL TOMORROW

Services at Home in Haverford. Body to Rest in West Laurel Hill

Funeral services for Clarkson Clothier, formerly senior member of the firm of Strawbridge & Clothier, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at his late home in Haverford. The funeral will be private. Interment will be in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Clothier died last Saturday. He was seventy-one years old. He had been in ill health for several months, but until his condition became critical, several days ago, it was thought that he would recover. Death was due to heart disease.

A native of Philadelphia and descendant of an old Colonial family, Mr. Clothier attended the Friends' Central School. He launched at an early age into the wholesale dry goods business. He afterward became a partner in the firm of King, Seybert & Clothier. He entered the firm of Strawbridge & Clothier in 1888. He retired from the firm in 1903.

He was a member of the Union League, the Historical Society, Manufacturers' Club, Merion Cricket Club and Bachelors' Barge Club. He was interested in outdoor sports and was part owner of an attractive fishing and hunting preserve in Monroe County, Pa.

Mr. Clothier was also one of the managers of the American Sunday School Union and of the Presbyterian Hospital Board, a member of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and treasurer of the board of trustees. He was an extensive traveler, both in this country and abroad.

On June 15, 1905, Mr. Clothier married Mrs. Florence M. Allen at the home of the bride in Church lane, Germantown. His first wife died in October, 1900. Besides a widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Sanderson, of Eadtfield Hall, Warkworth, England, and Miss Marion Clothier, and one son, Robert Clarkson Clothier, of Haverford.
