

BIG BUSINESS MEN MEET GOLF CHAMPIONS IN SUNDAY GOLF MATCH—OTHER NEWS PHOTOS

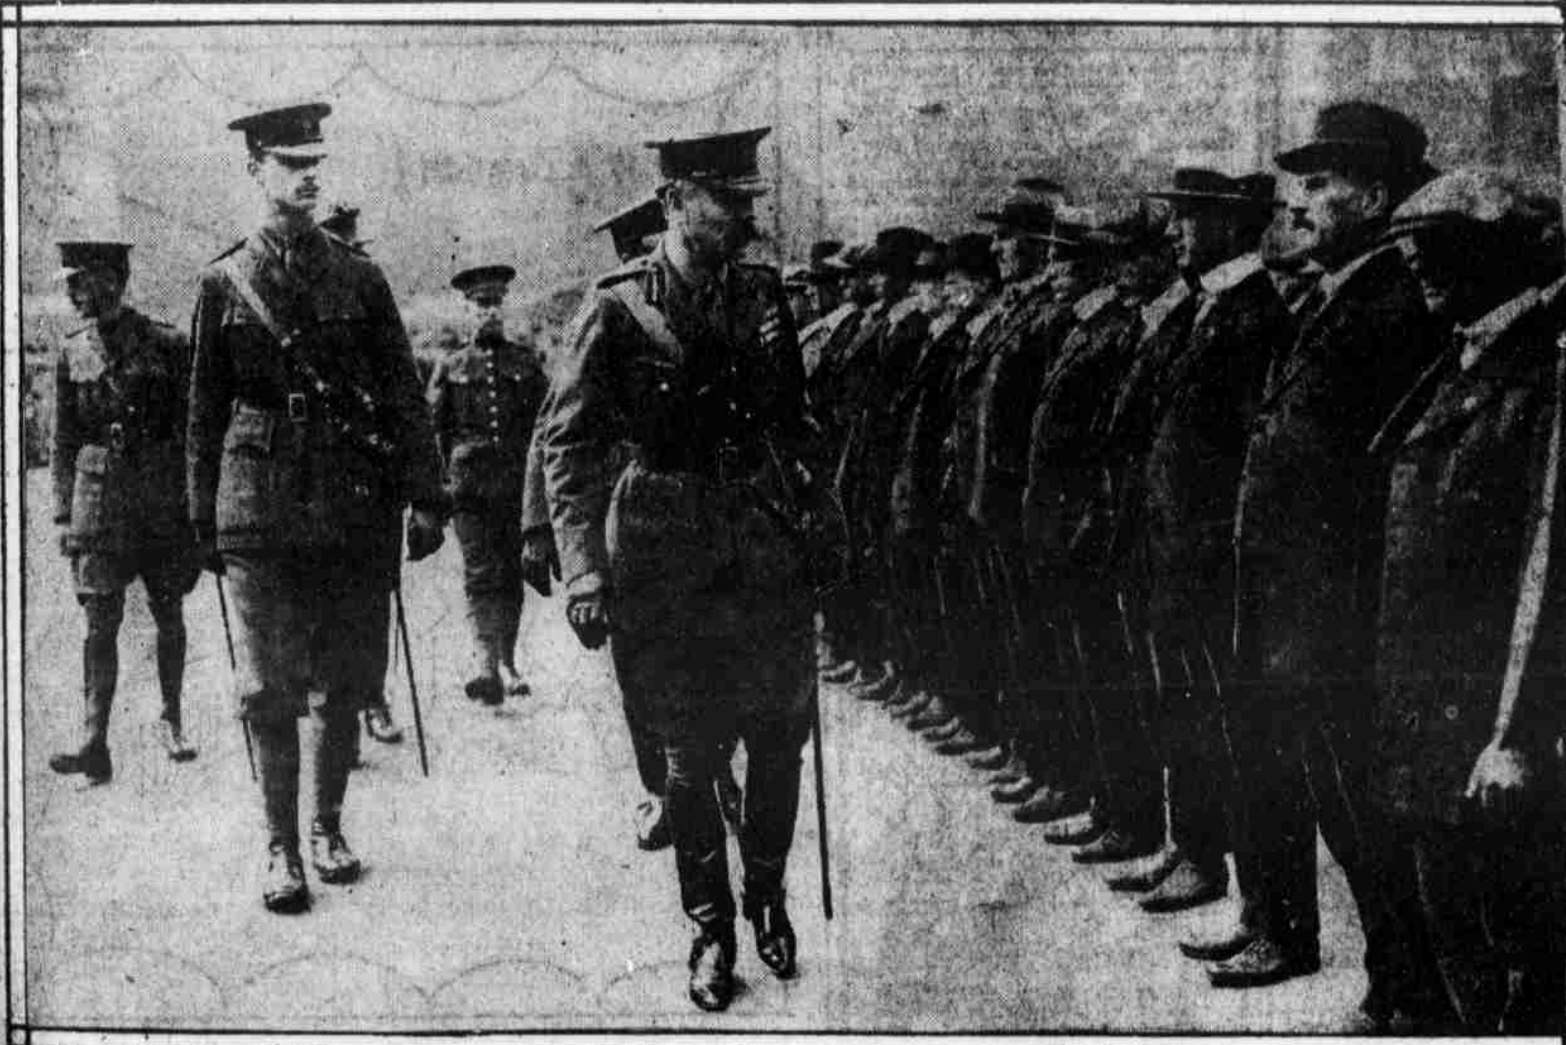

GEORGE A. CRUMP, THE MAN WHO FINANCED THE PINE VALLEY GOLF CLUB PROJECT, IS A LOVER OF GOLF

MEN NATIONALLY KNOWN IN BUSINESS AND SPORTING WORLD MEET ON LINKS

A friendly match yesterday over the Pine Valley golf course was "enjoyed by all." Left to right are Eugene Grace, million-dollar-a-year head of the Bethlehem Steel Company; Connie Mack, the wizard of baseball; "Chick" Evans, national amateur and open golf champion; Paul Mackall, assistant sales manager of the Bethlehem Steel Company, and Cameron B. Buxton, Philadelphia golf champion and right-hand man of Herbert Hoover, Food Administrator.

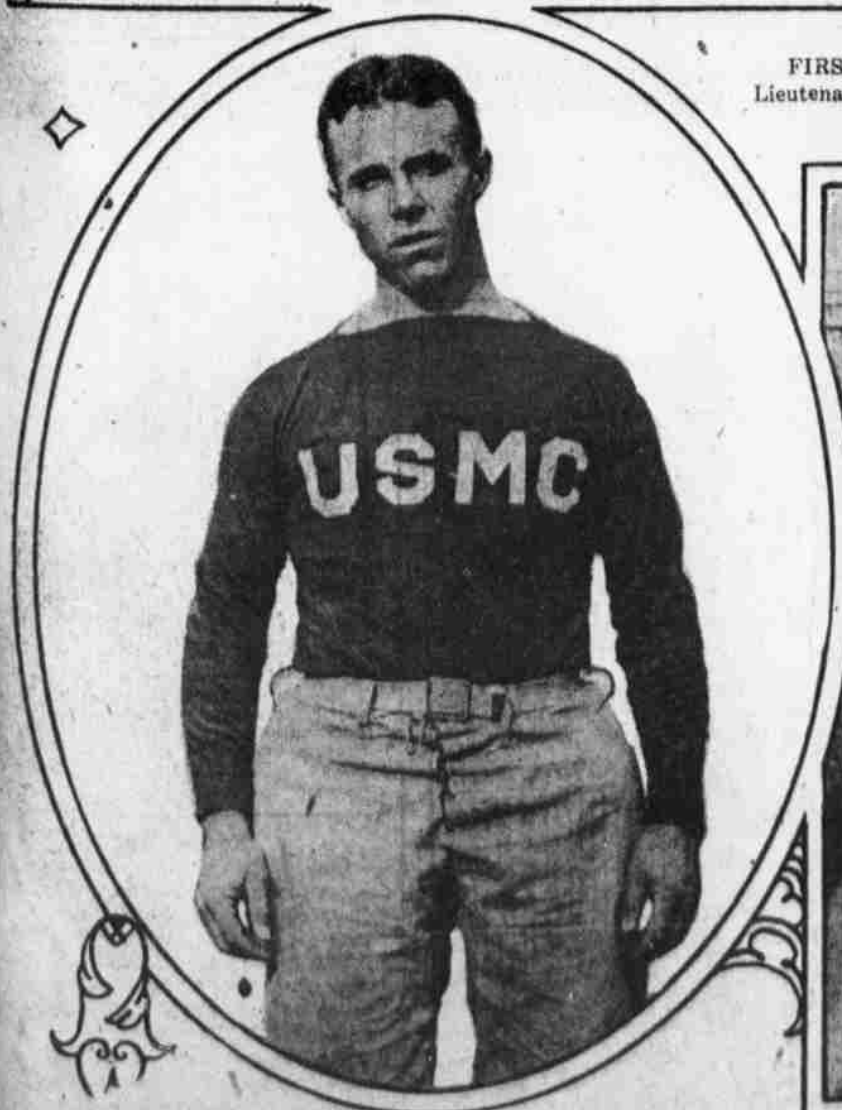

TWO CHAMPIONS IN THEIR LINES Eugene Grace (right) and "Chick" Evans watching the "other fellows" drive off.

Official British War Photograph. FIRST BRITONS ENLISTED IN AMERICA ON REVIEW Lieutenant Colonel Sir Francis Lloyd is shown inspecting the future "Tommies" upon their arrival in London.

CONNIE MACK, "FOLLOWING THROUGH" A PRETTY DRIVE AT PINE VALLEY

AYRAULT, FORMER LEHIGH STAR, WHO PLAYS LEFT GUARD ON THE MARINE CORPS ELEVEN

Copyright, American Press Association. FANS IN LINE MILE AND A HALF LONG STORM WHITE SOX PARK At daylight Saturday "the bleacherites" began lining up before the gates to witness the opening of the world's series. All grandstand and box seats were sold in advance.

Official Canadian War Photograph. CANADIAN SOLDIERS' TRIBUTE TO A COMRADE WHO FELL AT VIMY RIDGE