Ogontz and Huntingdon Valley Red Cross to Hold Annual Election of Officers Tomorrow. Other Matters Discussed

SEEMS to me some of our organizations are getting more and more governmental in aspect, quite like political elections, for here comes the news that the annual election of officers for the Ogontz and Huntingdon Valley branch of the American Red Cross will take place on Monday, October 15, at 10 o'clock.

The present officers of the Ogontz and Huntingdon Valley branch are Mrs. John S. Newbold, chairwoman; Mrs. George Horace Lormer, vice chairwoman; Mrs. Spencer Brook, secretary; and Mrs. Laurance Butler, treasurer.

MRS. COLEY BROWN has gone down to Annapolis and taken her small son with her to stay a couple of months there. You know, Coley is stationed at Camp Meade and naturally he wants his family as near him as possible.

Mrs. Whelen was Virginia Arter, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Brown was Jane Arter. They are both slim and very smart looking and have wonderful brown hair with golden glints through it.

WAR! And rumors of war! Sunday morning the Wissahickon was awakened from its peaceful nap.

"You're both wrong!" sang out a little bird who lives close to the drive, and is therefore almost of the times. "I don't know where you old folks have been while everybody has been talking. There's a whole little raging between the Chestnut Hill Reserves and the Germantown Minute Men and it's going to be exciting!"

It puts to be up to date. The little bird was right, and very soon all the trees, the old oaks and the entire animal population of the Wissahickon were looking on amazed as the khaki-clad gentlemen sneaked around and shot at one another.

"My! this takes me back to the old days," sighed the war. "Thank goodness, they don't wear war paint and feathers," whispered the fir as she looked fearfully down from her safe perch.

"Oh, boy, this is great!" said the enthusiastic little bird from his grandstand seat on the drive.

Be it known that for some time past the Chestnut Hill Reserves have been busy at rifle practice with "real bullets" down at Essington. The ladies of Chestnut Hill said firmly that they valued their window glass, to say nothing of the lives of their children and—well, there's more room at Essington.

This is a new departure, but the men have taken hold and there is much a "crack" shot in the making. You just wait and see.

Did you know that Neddy and Elizabeth Page have a little daughter? Well, it's true, and she is to be named Elizabeth Griffiths Page. The little lady made her bow into the great world last Saturday and found a mighty warm welcome awaiting her. You remember, Ned and Elizabeth were married in Haverford July before last. Just before the members of the First City Troop went to Mount Gretna and thence to Texas.

When the Troop came back early last January the young Pages moved into their home in Villanova. In May Neddy left for Fort Niagara, where he won his commission as a captain in the artillery.

EVERY ONE sympathizes so much with Mary Heakler Large. Bob was operated on very recently and failed to rally afterward and his death occurred on Monday evening. They had been married about fifteen years and have three dear children. Mrs. Large is very beautiful, with such wonderful red hair, and looked almost as young as the year she came out when I saw her recently. Bob Large was a great favorite in society and will be greatly missed. He had been for some years connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

He was a brother of George Gordon Meade Large, John Large, Sergeant Large, Mrs. Joseph Harrison, Mrs. Charles P. Fox and Mrs. M. Stevenson Esby. His grandfather was General George Gordon Meade, of Gettysburg fame, and his uncle was Colonel George Gordon Meade, Jr., who married Miss Meade Lewis, of this city. George Gordon Meade, Saunders Meade, Mrs. Horace Franchette, Mrs. George Cook and Mrs. Prescott Erskine Wood, who, you remember, was Salvatore Meade, were first cousins of Mr. Large.

SALE HELD AT CENTURY CLUB

Twelve Hundred Cans of Fruit and Vegetables Sold at Lansdowne This Morning

Every one knows how busy the women of the Century Club have been canning and preserving all summer long. Every member of the club has called upon to help out with this splendid work at one time or another. So now they are all proud as can be of the almost incredible amount of stuff they have put up—twelve hundred cans of all kinds of vegetables and fruits, besides preserves, jellies, delicious pickles and spicy sauces. This morning a sale of all these things was held in the clubhouse, and the money thus made will be given to the Emergency Aid.

Speaking of sales, the social committee of St. John's Church will have one on Saturday morning, October 13. And what is to be sold? Oh, yes! What, you ask—canned and home-made ones at that. There are lots of women who couldn't make a cake if they tried without having it "fall" or burn or do some other thing. Why, then, couldn't you come a cake sale with fervent joy, for perhaps they can successfully fool friend husband into actually believing that his chocolate cake is made that good chocolate cake all his life!

A meeting of the Americanization Federation of Lansdowne was held at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Mueser on Monday morning, October 8. The chairman of the organization, which has done all kinds of good work among the foreigners around this town.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Margaret Irving gave a party for Miss Helen Seaman, who is to be married on October 24 to Mr. G. W. Packler. First of all, the guests played cards, and then there was a troupe of songs for the bride-to-be. And maybe that wasn't the sunniest shower she was ever in! There were bits of lingerie and little powder puffs, and then there was a "what you wish" game. The guests were Miss Florence Young, Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Ruth Eckhart, Mrs. Howard Butler, Mrs. Louis Hartman, Mrs. George W. H. Wiggins, Mrs. Ethel Hart, Miss Alma Wallace and Miss Madeline Wallace, Miss Isabel Galbraith, Mrs. Arthur Hreteron, Miss Catharine French, Miss Mabel Dudley, Miss Sarah Bachman, Miss Mabel Jackson, Mrs. Louis Galbraith, Mrs. Clifford Ware, Mrs. James McKel, and Mrs. Edward Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hart, with their young son, called on the Harveys, the McCaslands, the Cartlidges, have been visiting Mrs. Curtis's parties. Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Maxwell, this summer.

On Monday evening a dinner was given at the Presbyterian Church by the S. E. Howard Mission Circle. The numbers of this society have one of these affairs every year, and they are always a great success. Afterward there generally is an entertainment of some sort or other. This time a very clever little sketch, called "Two Masters" was presented. Mrs. H. Ross Smith, coachman of the day, and the other cast were Miss Emma Hildie, Miss Blanche Holman, Miss Eleanor Cartlidge, Miss Charlotte Stearns and Mrs. Frank Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Baxter gave a dinner last Wednesday evening, the guest of honor being Mrs. Baxter's father, Dr. John S. Bickley. The other guests were Mrs. John S. Bickley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haggerty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Silbert, Mr. and Mrs. James Cassel, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Gault, Mr. and Mrs. Maitland, Mrs. Harold D. Haviland, Mrs. Margaret Anderson and Master Albert B. Baxter.

There are some persons who have just recently returned from show or mountains. Mr. and Mrs. George W. H. Wiggins have returned from Wildwood, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. I. Smith, who were up in New Hampshire, are back in Lansdowne again. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tucker have returned from a visit of two weeks to Ocean City.

Mr. Clarence Hill and Mr. Edward V. H. Witte took some of their friends on a sailing trip up the Delaware River last week-end.

Mr. Raymond Ogden, who is with the ambulance corps at Allentown, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Ogden.

PARTY IN HONOR OF HER FIANCE

Germantown Bridal Party Entertained at Dinner and Dance Last Evening

Mrs. Aida Beatrice Dunbar, of Wayne avenue, whose engagement to Mr. William G. McCasland has just been announced, gave a party in honor of her fiancé last evening. Mr. McCasland has just left for Fort Hancock, where he is a member of the 104th Regiment of Engineers.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson, of Germantown avenue and Duval street, will be glad to know that their little son, Edward Gibson, has recovered from his serious illness.

Miss Marion Datesman and Mr. Edmund Allen Hill, whose marriage takes place today, entertained their bridal party at dinner, followed by dancing, last evening.

Mr. James H. Peberdy, formerly of Germantown, has been made first lieutenant in the ambulance corps now stationed at Camp Sheridan, Ala. Mrs. Peberdy will join her husband in November.

MRS. HENRY PRICE WRIGHT AND HER SMALL DAUGHTER

Mrs. Wright is an officer in the Motor Messenger Service, which is enlisted to help for the duration of the war. The association is sponsoring the two navy rallies to be held tomorrow in the Academy of Music, when Lieutenant John Philip Sousa and his band of 257 sailors from the Great Lakes Training Station will appear for the benefit of navy yard recreation buildings.

GAMES FOR MEN AT CAMP MEADE

North Philadelphia Business Men's Association Forms Welfare Committee for Draftees

The members of the North Philadelphia Business Men's Association on account of the war and the sacrifices the people have made and will be required to make in the future have decided that it would not be advisable to hold their annual Halloween celebration, and have organized a soldiers' and sailors' welfare committee to secure funds to provide for the welfare of the "draftees" of the community who are now at Camp Meade and later for all soldiers and sailors from this section. This action was taken upon the receipt of a letter from the camp written in behalf of the members of Companies E and G, of the 15th Infantry, which stated: "We men down here are in need of games, such as checkers, etc. In fact, all indoor games would be appreciated, as we are told that many days during the coming winter will be gloomy ones. A few games to pass away the time will make things more cheerful for these two companies. Now for clear days we could use footballs, soccerballs and baseballs. The men of these companies are all from Philadelphia and the surrounding districts. The business men have sent an appeal for funds to the churches, fraternal orders and all organized bodies, as well as to the residents of District No. 41, Mr. Edward C. Ziegler in president of the association, Mr. Howard E. Heckler vice president, Mr. George L. Kimball treasurer, Mr. George B. M. Swift and Mr. Newton E. Freed are secretaries. The special welfare committee includes these officers: Mr. Paul Wendler, Jr., Mr. Charles Cobb Van Tiper, the Rev. P. A. Bowers, Mr. W. L. Clark, Mr. John P. MacLean, Mr. Harvey Vandergriff, Mr. G. A. Wiek, Mr. M. Meyer, Mr. William M. Gordon, Miss M. A. Pein, Miss Susan Beckler, Mrs. Priscilla Wrigley, M. D. B. Tuffner, Mr. Harry Gehman, Mr. Charles Mayers, Mr. Thomas Van Osten, Mr. W. J. Hiler, Jr., the Rev. S. B. Williams, Mr. Matthew Kenner, Jr., H. Wiggins, Mr. P. W. Wilson, Mr. William Robinson, Mr. J. N. Mountain, Mr. Donald Keefer, Dr. Benjamin Ulanski, Mr. Thomas Ince, Mr. E. C. Collier, Mr. John Michel, Mr. Frank Wright, Prof. Oliver S. Ely, Mr. Alfred Muggleworth, Mr. S. Bernstein, Mr. George E. Kimball, Mr. Joseph Ziegler, Mr. P. Noble, Mr. Edward C. Snyder, Jr., Mr. Walter Weidemann, the Rev. Joseph Kuzynski, Mr. W. L. Sweetland, Mr. Thomas Keeley and Mr. George Sporhase.

Through Mr. Paul Wendler, Jr., a Stein & Co. manufacturer, have sent a very useful gift to the soldiers from this section, long and socks are troublesome—seven dozen pairs of armbands and seven dozen pairs of garters to match. Surely these will be useful when the outdoor games reach the camp. Stein & Co. have done a generous bit and the soldiers appreciate the kindness.

FIFTY SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED

Men From Camp Dix Spend Sunday at Homes of Presbyterian Parishioners in Edgewater Park and Beverly, New Jersey

EDGEWATER PARK—Fifty of the soldiers from Camp Dix, at Wrightstown, were entertained over the week-end at Edgewater Park and Beverly. Two weeks ago the Rev. Arthur Phillips, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, made the remark that it would be a very good arrangement if his parishioners would give as many as possible of the soldiers a little outing over the week-end, as many of the men are a long distance from their own homes.

As a result twenty-five homes in Beverly and Edgewater Park were turned over to the guests from Camp Dix.

There were special services held on Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church, where the soldiers attended in a body. In the evening a musical program was rendered. Nearly a thousand people attended the services. A cordial welcome was given to the soldiers everywhere they visited during the week-end.

At each home the soldiers were entertained in some special way. It is rumored that the other members of Beverly have also responded to the patriotic move, so that the work of entertaining the soldiers over the week-end, they will follow the example set by the members of the Presbyterian Church.
