Charlotte Cushman Club to Give Tea for Miss Wycherly-British Committee to Give Exhibit and Sale on October 16 and 17

Well, my dears, if you ever get an invite, small affairs and the women on the com- a worthy cause. NANCY WYNNE. mittee are so attractive and make you feel so at home, and, too, you always meet very worth-while actresses, for it is for them that the teas are given, you know. Tomerrow the first one of the season will be given, and to meet Miss Margaret Wycherly, who has been so marvelous as the old spiritualist in "The Thirteenth Chair," which has been playing here for some weeks.

The Charlotte Cushman Club was founded about seven or eight years ago by a number of good women who felt there was great need for the proper kind of a boarding house or club for the many setresses of smaller means who stop in this city during the season. So they got together and started up the club, which they named after the great Charlotte Cushman, and various people gave the furniture for the various rooms, and after a short time in a house on Tenth street the club was moved to its present location at 1200 Locust street and since then has added the house 1202 to the prop-cup of tea in the afterneon. Miss Martha Collins is chairman of the exhibition committee and will gladly receive donations of money and trophies, though the last need not be dounted, but may be lem and will be carefully returned after the exhibit is over.

So CECILE HOWELL and Bill Rowdate and will be married on November 3 in the picturesque little Episcopal Church of All Saints in Torresdale, and the ceremony will be attended by only a few intimate friends, and of course members of the family, while there will be a reception at the Howells' beautiful home on the river. Their house is next to the old Fitler place on the banks of the Delaware River at Torresdale and quite ideal for an entertainment. Cecile is the youngest of Mrs. Howell's three attractive daughters. She came out the same year as Kathryn Kremer Page, Rachel Lewis Miller, Mabel Norris Dickson, Margaret Fox Martin, Dorothy Roberts Bullitt, Elizabeth Roberts Clay, Margaret Bannard McCawley and many others; in fact, I think Cecile is the last of that number of girls to marry. And it certainly has been from choice, for she is one of the prettiest of the whole bunch of them and has a lovely character, and in fact all three of the Howell girls are famed for their beautiful manners. THE Treble Clef Club, of which Mrs. William Simpson, Jr., is president, will resume its work for the winter at the Acorn Club on Wednesday, October 24. The club will give its first concert on January 30 in the ballsoom of the Bellevue-Stratford. The second concert will be given on April 24. Karl Schneider is director of the club and Ellis Clark Hammond, accompanist.

ND now Dorothy Weish's engagement A is announced. She is the daughter of the Herbert Welshes, of Germantown, and a sister of Herbert Welsh, who married Lavinia Borden last June. Dorothy is very fair and pretty. She is a member of the Plays and Players Club and has shown quite some histrionic ability. The lucky man is Andrew Imbrie, of New York. He is a son of Mrs. Charles Imbrie, of Princeton, and was of course graduated from that university. He served as an alumni trustee from 1907 to 1912. No date has been set for the wedding.

THE Southern Industrial Society is giv-Ing a large baxaar and dance on Saturday, the third of November, in the ballroom of the Bellevue. It is for the benefit of the families of the mountaincers who have gone to war. There is one place where the Red Cross has not yet penetrated, and that is the heart of the mountains; but the draft law has reached there and some of the families are in pretty desperate straits. The Industrial society is taking the situation, in hand. There will be an illustrated beture at 12 o'clock and one at 8, showing the homes, scenery, schools, and all the other interesting features of life in the Appalachians. One of the most remarkable pictures will be that of the children of the section before they attended school, and afterward, showing the effect of civilization upon them. Mrs. William T. Headley is chairman of the bazant smmittee, and some of her assistants are Mrs. John Gribbel, Mrs. F. Clemens and Mrs. Robert Alexander. Mrs. John Cooke Hirst will have charge of the book shop. Did I say that Miss Cora Neal, field secre of the National Association, will
