Knights of Columbus Observe Day by Starting Drive for $3,-000,000 Fund for Soldiers

Italian societies of Philadelphia observed he 425th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus by placing a creath on his statue in Fairmount Park societies were represented by the

The societies were represented by the Columbus Day Italian committee, of which John M. Queroll is chairman. The celebration was not as large this year as in former years, because of the war.

In his address at the statue, Mr. Queroll made an appeal that Columbus Day be observed throughout the country like Washington's birthday. Chevaller C. C. A. Baldingked that all present should think of the boys at the front, and aid the war for boys at the front, and aid the war for democracy by subscribing to the Liberty Loub. An address was also made by Loan. An address was Chevaller E. V. H. Nardl.

Sons of Columbus celebrated the lay by a flag raising at St. Donato's greehlal school, Sixty-Bifth and Callowhill treets, and a parade. They left the school streets, and a parade. They lets the school this afternoon, and paraded through West Philadelphia to Pairmount Park, where they placed a wreath on the statue of Columbus. Fifty girls attired as Red Cross murses made collections en route for the benefit of the orphans and widows of Italian soldiers.

Tonight there will be a concert in the school half, which will be preceded by addresses by prominent Italians.

The launching of the local campaign to raise $2,000,000 for the erection and maintenance of recreation centers in the United States army cantonments in this country and France will be one of the features in connection with the celebration of Columbus two by the Knights of Columbus tonight. The money will be used to erect and equip buildings at all the training camps in the country and to furnish amusement and recreation for all soldiers regardless of creed; also to maintain information bureaus at the front so that those In the trenches may be kept in ea-munication with the folks at home.

The fund will also be used to maintain volunteer priests to look after the spiritual welfare of Catholic soldiers in the training

It has been planned to erect at each of the sixteen National Army cantonments three recreation buildings at a cost of about $14,000 for each cantonment. There will also be erected one building at a cost of about $6000 at each of the sixteen Na-tional Guard encampments. From twenty-five to thirty similar recreation stations will be erected at the regular army exten-sion camps, naval training stations, avia-tion stations and camps of other units of perves me right. Washington was at one time a British yeoman. Yet who will dare call him 'traitor'? But when some of the servants of Lord Northcliffe write of Caseservants of Lord Northcliffe write of Casement they flippantly use the word. I would remind these gentlemen, however, that a man's own countrymen are the best judges of his motives and patriotism. Casement's name will go ringing down the ages among Irishmen and all lovers of liberty as one of the world's greatest patriotic martyrs, while these tools of England who slander him will be forgotten in a day.

"Robert Emmet sought the aid of France and rebelled against England in 1803. England hanged him as a traitor; yet but a few weeks ago President Wilson lent the dignity of his presence to the unveiling of a statue in our Capitol at Washington which will perpetuate Emmet as a patriot and martyr.
