SERVICE THE KEYNOTE

Personal service to one's business associates and a helping hand to the fallen brother, as well as being useful to fellow church members, formed the tenor of the remarks today.

The general and junior conferences were held this morning and afternoon and the study classes again took up their discussions. The public meeting in the Church of the Holy Trinity tonight will be under the leadership of Courtenay Barber...

Holy communion was celebrated at St. Mark's Church at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The half-hour devotional meeting in Convention Hall at the Hotel Adelphi was taken up chiefly by the address on "Ye Have Not Chosen Me, but I Have Chosen You and Ordained You, that Ye Should Go and Bring Forth Fruit" by the Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd.

JUNIOR CONFERENCE

The junior conference was presided over by Frank R. Malliet, national council member from Sharon, Pa. The subject "Training the Church Boy for a Man's Responsibility in the Christian Army" was discussed by three junior speakers on the following lines: "What Inspired Me to Volunteer," "My Appreciation of Training Received" and "What a Boy Can Accomplish Through the Observance of the Rules of Prayer and Service."

The Rev. Beverley D. Tucker, Jr., Benjamin F. Finney, John M. Locke, Franklin H. Spencer and G. Frank Shelby conducted their study classes on work in the colleges, among the boys and traveling men, church attendance campaigns and men's Bible classes.

Remove Mayor After Conviction, Is Plan

Court or for abolishing preliminary hearings in certain cases are unconstitutional. The intent of the Legislature is hereby expressed that said provisions only shall be void and that all other provisions of this act shall be valid and enforceable.

LUCKY STRIKE

This, according to attorneys, shows that the Legislature intended to leave it to the highest courts to decide the validity of the act in the right of a Municipal Court Judge to act as a committing magistrate.

VARE HINTS AT ARRESTS

Senator Vare, accused in testimony at the hearing of being the sponsor for the "Bloody Fifth" Ward killing, today intimated that arrests would be made of persons aiding in the prosecution as a counter-stroke against the murder conspiracy charges against Mayor Smith and his other friends.

Senator Vare, who was found talking with Sheriff Haney and Recorder of Deeds Hazlett on the steps of the Lincoln Building, at first refused to make any statement in addition to that of yesterday, in which he declared the charges against the Mayor and his eight codefendants a "slandering political 'frame-up'."

However, after a question or so, Senator Vare declared that he was prepared to prove that President Judge Charles L. Brown had said that he was under pressure when he issued the murder conspiracy warrants for Mayor Smith and others, but that he was not and went through with the hearing.

Judge Brown and forced him to issue the warrants? Senator Vare was asked.

CHARGES PRESURE ON JUDGE. Either State Representative Indore Stern, Senator Vare replied, or Assistant District Attorney Joseph H. Taulane was the third man who went with former Judge James Clay Gordon, of the prosecution, and Colonel James Elverson, and, as he charged, roared Judge Brown into issuing the warrants, which were signed by Stern.

"It was either Izzy Stern or Taulane," said Vare. "I don't know which. But I have an affidavit in my office backing up my statement that Judge Brown was forced into this thing against his will. Judge Brown admitted that he issued those warrants under pressure, but then said that he wasn't yellow and went through with the hearing. This is sworn to by a very responsible citizen."

WON'T REPLY TO VARE

Judge Brown and former Judge Gordon declined to comment on Senator Vare's charges in detail. Judge Brown's comment was as follows: "I will not dignify Senator Vare's statements with a reply. His statements can be taken by the people for what they are worth."

CORONER'S HEARING WEDNESDAY

The coroner's hearing will be held next Wednesday, according to plans announced today by Chief Deputy Coroner Arthur Sellers. This is contingent upon the ability of Deputy Coroner George Rowland and other attaches of the coroner's office in charge of the case to finish their investigation by that day, he said.

FALL FROM SHED ROOF FATAL TO PROF. BAKER

Haverford College Educator Dies of Injuries Received While Romping With Son

Internal injuries caused by a fall from a shed roof about three weeks ago resulted in the death today of Dr. William B. Baker, professor of Latin and Greek at Haverford College, in the Notre Dame Hospital, Manchester, N. H., according to word received by his friends in this city.

Dr. Baker was forty-one years old and was born in Boston. He graduated from Harvard in 1898 and was given the degree of doctor of philosophy by that institution in 1901. He had charge of the Latin course at Harvard until 1904, when he came to Haverford, succeeding S. K. Gifford, now head of the Moses Brown School of Providence, R. I.

Dr. Baker was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity and was widely known in this city for his work along classical lines. He organized the Main Line Forum, a debating society composed of all classes of business and professional men and women. He was formerly president of the Classical Club of Philadelphia, and at the time of his death was vice president of the Classical Association of the Middle Atlantic States.

WILL DISCUSS METHODS OF AIDING SHIPBUILDING

Business Men to Plan Co-operation in This and Other Industries on Government Work

Methods of giving practical assistance to the shipbuilding industry will be discussed at a luncheon to be given within a few days by the Chamber of Commerce. This action was decided upon today as a result of an appeal made a few days ago by Elliot H. Goodwin, general secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He pointed out the necessity of co-operation of business establishments of all kinds and the need of workmen in the shipbuilding industry.

The general subject of protecting the shipbuilding and other industries engaged in assisting the Government will also be taken up by the chamber. The board of directors adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of fifteen delegates to the financial conference to be held by the American Academy of Political and Social Science at the Chamber of Commerce on November 2 and 3.

Police Seek West Philadelphia Thieves

The police today are searching for the thieves who broke into the home of Charles P. Phillips, of 5766 Thomas avenue, during the absence of the family last night, and stole jewelry valued at $214. An entrance was made through a cellar door in the rear.

"Decide Now," Is Liberty Loan Cry

Continued from Page One. Here's your chance. Yesterday's subscriptions, totaling $14,000,000, fell short by $2,000,000 of the banner day preceding it. Big business, of course, helped the day. The du Pont Powder Company came in to the extent of $3,000,000. Gimbel Brothers contributed $1,000,000 to be divided between Philadelphia and New York, and the Gimbel employees pledged themselves for $125,000. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company and its associated companies, which includes the Bell Telephone Company, announced subscriptions of $5,000,000 to be divided among the twenty reserve districts. A plan was also provided by which employees of these companies will be able to buy bonds in installments.

A prize for one of the best posters designed to "put over" the second Liberty Loan has been awarded Miss Eugenia De Land, a former Philadelphia and graduate of the Drexel Institute. The poster, which is being displayed all over the country, portrays the Statue of Liberty with a background of crimson clouds, in which the Stars and Stripes are indicated.

Miss De Land was a pupil of the late Howard Pyle, and is now a teacher of art in the McKinley High School, at Washington. Her studio is at Arcotus, Va., on the Potomac, not far from Mount Vernon. Among the clubs, the Union League is in the lead, with a maximum subscription of more than $1,050,000.

The contest among the various troops of Boy Scouts has been given added zest by the report from Troop 121 of $46,000 received to date in the sale of bonds. One scout of this troop, W. S. Leeb, has sales to his credit aggregating $20,000. This brings Troop 121 into second place, with Troop 162, of Overbrook, leading, the latter having sold more than $75,000 worth of bonds.

COMFORTS FOR SOLDIERS

Appeal Issued by Women's League of Forty-first Exemption Board

An appeal for help and money to provide comforts for the members of the National Army from the Forty-first District was issued today by the newly formed Women's League of the Forty-first District Exemption Board, in charge of the work.

The league, covering the district roughly bounded by Cobbs creek, Fifty-eighth street, Schuylkill river, Forty-sixth street, Pennsylvania railroad, Fifteenth street and Baltimore avenue, proposes to "keep the boys in touch with home," and to supply them with comfort kits, scarfs, sweaters, socks, helmets, pajamas, shirts, reading matter, tobacco, pipes, soap, bread, needles, etc. The officers of the league are Chairman, Mrs. Cyrus W. Friday, 5766 Thomas avenue; secretary, Miss Edna Peterson, 5211 Chester avenue, and treasurer, Mrs. Robert Parrish, 5201 Chester avenue.

ALLEGED BLACKMAILER GREETED WITH BULLET

"Little Italy" Scene of Shooting Affair in Which Man Is Seriously Wounded

Angelo Generoso was shot and seriously wounded today in "Little Italy" as a sequel to an alleged $1000 blackmailing case. Generoso, the alleged blackmailer, walked into the poultry store of Joseph Carbianco, at 942 South Ninth street, this morning. After words with the proprietor, the report of a pistol rang out and Generoso staggered to the street, where he dropped. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital with a bullet wound under the left shoulder.

Carbianco, admitting the shooting, surrendered to the police and was held without bail by Magistrate Coward at the Seventh and Carpenter streets station to await the outcome of Generoso's wound. Joseph Sarbell, 919 South Ninth street, who was in the store, was held as a material witness.

According to Carbianco, Generoso, who lives near Tenth and Wharton streets, blackmailed him and his brother, Angelo Carbianco, for $135 several months ago. He showed three letters, signed with the skull and crossbones, demanding money. Last night, he said, Generoso called him on the telephone and demanded that he leave $1000 at Tenth and Wharton streets this morning under pain of death. He paid no attention to it, whereupon Generoso entered his store this morning and, he said, made a move as if to draw a pistol. Carbianco drew first and fired.

No weapon was found on Generoso by the police, who assigned District Detectives Rago and Hardman to the case.

Red blood and ready dollars

Together they'll smash a path to Berlin! But if the whole-hearted, whole-pursed support of the people at home is lacking, our next problem is whether Philadelphia or New York will be the first slaughter pen of the invading Hun.

Don't laugh at the possibility! You'd have laughed in 1913 had someone said that Germany, matched against four Great Powers of Europe, could overrun Belgium, Serbia, Roumania and Poland, drive the Russians back to their capital and swarm the northern provinces of France!

A million men—yes, five million—may spring to arms, but they must have arms to spring to: rifles, clothing, food, blankets, cannon, munitions. Our war program calls for $3,000,000,000 at once; but that program isn't worth a whoop if you and I and the rest of us don't get together, now, and back it up!

Remember—it's a loan your Government asks, not a gift! Your response to the First Liberty Loan was magnificent! Show by your response to the Second that you want these soldier sons of ours to have a fair chance—that you still want to win this war for Democracy!
