

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Plans for Midway Lane Fete to Be Given on Wednesday in Germantown Finished—Nancy Wynne Takes a Country Walk—Bazaar Arranged by Mrs. David Lewis

PUTTING the garden away for the winter is an interesting bit of knowledge that may be gleaned by the visitors at the Germantown Midway Fete which is to take place on Wednesday night at School House Lane, Germantown. Miss Emily Exley will give an interesting talk on this timely subject at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The garden and its products forms one of the most important elements of the fete, which has been arranged by the board of lady managers of the Germantown Hospital, for the benefit of which the affair was organized. Under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Butler, the floral booth will be one of the most attractive displays. Here may be purchased palms, plants and cut flowers, as well as many novelty baskets, fern dishes and bird houses. Mrs. Butler will also have on hand a good supply of general utility baskets in which to carry home purchases. She will be assisted by Mrs. Sandy Wister, Mrs. Mantle Fielding and Marion Butler, while the following little girls, Elizabeth Barlow, Josephine Crisfield and Nancy Barclay, will sell miniature bouquets.

The final assignment of the various booths has been made. The children's department will be under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Haines, Mrs. Francis Strawbridge and Mrs. Alfred Well, while the old-fashioned poultry market is in the able hands of Mrs. Norton Downs, Mrs. Edgar Baird and Mrs. Frank Gummy. Mrs. Tolbert N. Richardson will have charge of the restaurant, and the cake department will be managed by Mrs. Frank Mitchell and Mrs. Calvin M. Smyth.

Characters in popular fiction will also be portrayed by a number of young girls, while under the direction of Marjory Taylor a number of aides will act as toll-gate keepers. The lunch and tea room will also be one of the most popular attractions of the day. Mrs. Edward Weiner is chairman of this department, assisted by Mrs. William K. Beard.

A booth devoted entirely to bags of every size, variety and description is under the management of Mrs. Franklin McCrea Wigram, Mrs. David Paul Brown, Mrs. Robert Martin Williams, Mrs. James Cookman and Mrs. Charles Williams.

Mrs. William Warden, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Wister have charge of the lingerie booth, where beautiful French underwear can be purchased at the lowest prices.

There will also be Punch and Judy and the grab bag, pony rides and all the other numerous attractions that a midway fete implies, including jitney service.

OF course they were not so terribly old, nor so terribly wise in the ways of the world, and you could not expect them to be as prudent as you or I; but, my dears, if you had seen that charming pair walking along a back country road last week, utterly oblivious to the fact that in this great round world there could be other people besides their two selves, you would have had a quiet little laugh to yourself, as little Nancy did when she came suddenly around a bend in the road and inadvertently "bumped in" on a perfectly good kiss. Well, she had presence of mind enough to jump back into the bend once more and make a great rustling in the leaves with the cane she was swinging, and when she had made sufficient noise she emerged quietly and cautiously around once more, to find them snatching along just as unconcernedly as if they were not engaged, and SHE wasn't wearing an engagement ring tied on a ribbon around her neck that very minute. I don't know why they haven't announced it yet, but there's no doubt in my young mind that they will soon. It's a mighty nice match, too; not one of these sudden war affairs, for they have known each other for some years, and I have always felt it would come off some day.

BY THE way, speaking of love affairs and weddings, Jack Conger and his bride, who was Katherine Hare, came back last week from their honeymoon and Jack is now at Camp Meade, while Katherine has taken up her abode with her father-in-law and sister-in-law, Helen Conger, to say nothing of brothers-in-law Arthur and Dick, and will take care of the home for them until Jack returns from the war.

MRS. DAVE LEWIS had a meeting at her home on Tuesday afternoon, to arrange for a bazaar to take place on November 7 in aid of the pool and comfort fund for our men at the front and for the free beds of the Jefferson Hospital's Convalescent Home out at Wayne. Mrs. Lewis is chairman of the committee and Lila Fisher vice chairman. Miss Louise Bilken is secretary, Elizabeth Hood Latta treasurer, and Mrs. Houston Greene chairman of the music committee. NANCY WYNNE.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN FOR WIFE

Box Party and Supper to Celebrate West Philadelphians' Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday evening Mr. Charles G. Cope, of 843 Angora terrace, gave a surprise party to Mrs. Cope, in honor of the anniversary of their wedding and the anniversary of a box party at the Forrest Theatre to see "Jack O' Lantern," and then a supper at Kugler's with the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. James V. Prisco, Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Saeger, Miss Peggy Poland and Mr. Morris Wetten. Mr. and Mrs. Max Peikin, of 612 Pine Street, gave a dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Peikin's sister, Miss Tillie Robinson, and her fiancé, Mr. Alexander Dobb, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Prizes Awarded Boys and Girls

Prizes won by the boys and girls at the juvenile outing at Willow Grove were distributed yesterday. The prizes were given by the Philadelphia Union of St. Edward's, Philadelphia, held in St. Edward's Hall, Seventh and York streets.

Hodkins was recently appointed dean of the Veterinary College of the New York University and is visiting friends in Wilmington, Del. for a few days.

Miss Florence Hannum, of 5044 Larchwood avenue, is visiting friends in Wilmington, Del. for a few days.

Miss Caroline Triller, of 5107 Hazel avenue, is visiting relatives at Forest Hills, N. Y.

Mrs. Edgar S. Glaim and her daughter, Miss Mary Glaim, of 1221 South Fifty-sixth street, will spend the winter with Mrs. Glaim's sister, Mrs. Charles C. Kinney, of Gatton road and Wynnefield avenue, Wynnefield.

Mrs. Walter C. Zimmerman, of 1221 South Fifty-sixth street, has taken her small son, John, for a month's visit to her grandparents in Lancaster.

Mrs. Frederick B. Gilbert and Miss Katharine Gilbert have closed their cottage at Beach Haven and are occupying their apartments at the Marllyn.

Mrs. Charles H. Boehman and Miss Esther Jean Boehman are occupying their new home, 135 South Fifty-sixth street. Mrs. Boehman will go to New York to attend the wedding of Miss Elsie Salton and Mr. Thomas, which takes place in St. Thomas's Church on Saturday, October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lutz, who have been in the Philadelphia-Stratford for some time, have purchased a residence on Sunway Place, Ventnor, which they are now occupying.

Mrs. Kenneth Long, wife of Lieutenant Long, of the Twenty-third New York Infantry, who is now stationed at Spartanburg, will spend the winter with her parents at the shore.

WOMEN ZEALOUS AIDS IN 'SMOKES' CAMPAIGN

The army of contributors to the "smokes for Sammes" fund is constantly growing. Mothers and sisters know that a few smokes will greatly brighten the lot of sons, brothers and sweethearts who have gone abroad, and so the women of Philadelphia now figure among the largest and most frequent contributors to the fund.

Nearly every social occasion will be used for the benefit of a smoking Sammes. In this connection a number of tobacco fund parties will be held in the city. Halloween by social organizations in various parts of the city. In many cases the cost of admission to these affairs will be the price of a pack of Sammes.

The Sammes smoke fund is now nearing $13,000, with no indication of slackening. The tobacco committee of the emergency aid is greatly encouraged by the hearty response and expects that the total will eventually exceed $25,000.

A good sum for the smoke fund will be realized on next Friday night when the Ardley Club will give a dance for the worthy cause at Martell's Academy, 1710 North Broad street. One of the features of this occasion will be a prize dancing contest, the winners of which will be awarded jiving cups. The dance will be given under the auspices of Levey and J. J. O'Malley, of Lit Brothers.

The movement to provide sweets for the soldiers has also met with popular approval. Yesterday collections were taken in numerous churches, clubs, and choicest places, and a good sum was realized.

WILLIAMSPORT THIRD DELEGATION OFF TO CAMP

Forty-four men join Draft Army at Camp Meade—Three Called to Naval Coast Reserve

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 15.—Lycium County's third delegation for the new national army is now at Camp Meade, forty-four men reporting for service. The delegation consisted of the following: John E. Bertolo, Harry C. Beach, Carl Gray Brown, William H. Dieter, Giuseppe Romanello, Fred W. Mahone, William R. Hartman, Leader, Clifford L. Covert, Monroe W. Case, Ray W. Merrill, S. J. Staib, James W. Page, Michael J. Bernard, Roscoe E. Pater, Frank E. Boye, Amos M. Hartman, Edward A. Taylor, Edward J. Walters, Walter R. Lieberman, John A. Buebe, Chester L. Mahl and Robert Persun.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER GIVEN

Surprise Party for Newark Girl at Home of Friends in That City

A surprise miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Bessie Padalsky, of 18 Hillside place, Newark, N. J. Miss Padalsky's engagement has been announced to Mr. John I. Lehman, P. D., of Second and Cumberland streets.

The arrangements for the surprise were made by Miss Bertha Galinkin and Miss Mae Galinkin at their home, 29 Hillside place. A buffet luncheon was served and the Halloween idea was carried out in the decorations. Miss Bessie Meyers and Miss Bella Erlich assisted the hostesses. Mrs. Edna Fuhman, who is in the naval service out of New York city, gave several piano solos, while Mr. Samuel Hamnerman, of Trenton, entertained with vocal solo. Exhibition dances were given by Miss Bessie Padalsky, Miss Bertha Galinkin, Mr. Fuhman and Mr. Lee Feurstein.

Among the guests were friends of Miss Padalsky, of Newark: Miss Dotty Rosen, Miss Fay Rosenzweig, of Brooklyn; Mr. Hamnerman and Miss Borenstein, of Trenton; Miss Bertha Weiss, of Jersey City; Miss Jennette Padalsky, of New York; Miss Anna Dobrin and Miss Frances Berlow, of Montclair, and Mr. Albert Cohen, of Cleveland.

Automobile Club Meets Tonight

The annual meeting of the Automobile Club of Delaware County, of which J. H. Weeks is president, is held in La Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets. A novel vaudeville show is to follow the smoker.

SELLS OWN BAKING FOR RED CROSS

First-Aid and Hygiene Classes in Lansdowne Most Interesting to Students

If you want to give your help to the Red Cross, there are over so many ways for you to do it. Of course rolling bandages and making "mops" or knitties are the things that occur to most people first. But who ever thinks of baking cakes?

What an earth would the Red Cross do with cakes? Sell them, of course. Mrs. Daniel De Vaux, of Lansdowne, saw possibilities in this. Every one knows what marvelous cakes and pumpp, sugary cakes Mrs. De Vaux can make, so when she decided to have a sale of "all her own baking" at the Red Cross house last Thursday, lots of people came, and Mrs. De Vaux gave all the proceeds to the Red Cross.

The classes in first aid and hygiene formed by Mrs. Benjamin W. Carskaddon are progressing famously. There are twenty girls in each class, and they all say the courses are most interesting. The hygiene class meets Wednesday and Friday evenings, under the direction of Mrs. De Vaux, a registered nurse. Dr. G. Victor Janvier has charge of the first-aid class, which meets on Friday evenings.

A group of Lansdowne girls are working hard as can be seen in an outdoor dance which is to be a part of the Wellfleet pageant to be given at Wynnefield on the first of this month. These girls are Miss Grace Bond, Miss Olive Mason, Miss Ruth Crawford, Miss Anna Herr and Miss Florence Clarke. Miss Clarke is directing the dance.

Even the youngsters are interested in the Lansdowne Home Defense League. There are some junior members (boys about sixteen), and not so very long ago two of these members, Mr. Edward Willis and Mr. Joseph Van Zanit, passed the examinations for noncommissioned officers and have been appointed sergeants. They deserve it, too, for they are always on hand at drills and surely have the right idea.

Last Tuesday afternoon was literature day at the Century Club. Mrs. Isaac H. Rhodes gave a talk on the drama of the present day, and Mrs. Edward C. Kirk gave a review of "The Red Planet." The club usually has a dancing class during the winter and this year it will begin tomorrow evening. Naturally, the members get a great deal of amusement out of it.

A meeting of the "B Natural" Music Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Ross on Thursday evening, October 11. Shakespearean music formed the very interesting program. The members of the club are Mrs. Smith, Miss Grace Bond, Miss Ruth Wunderlich, Miss Elizabeth Paschall, Miss Ruth V. Decker, Mrs. Robert Downing Taylor, Miss Anna Wallace, Miss Laura Willis, Miss Catherine Landes, Miss Annie Porter, Miss Marie O'Brien, Mrs. Fletcher Woods, Mrs. Herbert Evans and Mrs. J. H. Jessup.

Mr. Stuart L. B. Kinzer has been visiting friends in Bradford, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. Cook are taking a motor trip through New England.

Mr. Arthur Dewar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dewar, is now in France with the United States ambulance corps.

RAISES FLAG OVER THEATRE CHESTER, Oct. 15.—In his determination to use his theatre in every possible way for the stimulation of patriotism, J. Fred Zimmerman raised a large American flag over the Edgemoor Theatre here yesterday. The playhouse has been completed at a cost of $250,000.

Mr. Zimmerman was accompanied to the theatre by his son, Frank Zimmerman, and Mr. W. Taylor, general manager of the Zimmerman enterprises. After he had hoisted the standard, Mr. Zimmerman made a brief address.

ADVICE TO PARVENUS

Copyright Life Publishing Company. Adapted by special permission. When you buy a dog don't get one that's too high bred to associate with you.

MISS MARGARETTA JEANES

Aides will be stationed at the entrance of the Midway Carnival, which will be held on School House Lane in Germantown on Wednesday of this week.

SPIRIT OF PALISSY IN WAR WORK

Fire and Determination in Selling Liberty Bonds. Smaller Hospitals of France Helped by Society of Little House of Saint Pantaleon

"GIVE me only fire enough," said Bernard Palissy, "and these plagues will be made indelibly fixed upon this china." His derisive neighbors cried, "He is mad!" But the determined artist shouted, "More fire, more fire!" and today the name of Palissy is a synonym for determination and success.

In order to be qualified to meet our duty in this particular time of the world's crisis we want unbounded faith in the triumph of the truth and the overthrow of wickedness. And so we shout, "More fire, more fire!" Greater zeal in selling Liberty Bonds, in Emergency Aid, Red Cross and Navy League work—more fire in all we are doing for the nation and humanity!

Have you heard of the wonderful work of the Society of the Little House of Saint Pantaleon for the smaller hospitals in France that have been overlooked by the large organizations and receive no society work—more fire in all we are doing for the nation and humanity!

The All Work Together Society of the Memorial Baptist Church, Broad and Master streets, has organized a chapter of "The Little House" and has opened a workshop in the church where the members sew and make surgical dressings each Tuesday, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night. The Rev. Russell Owen is pastor of the church, and the officers of the chapter are Mrs. John Lindquist, president; Mrs. Hampton Warner, Mrs. Frank Stover, vice presidents; Doctor Hutchinson, treasurer, and Mrs. W. Romig, secretary. The membership is not limited to the church congregants, but is open to every warm-hearted woman of the community who desires to help.

The members of the Central North Philadelphia Business Men's Association held a meeting on Friday at the North Branch Young Men's Christian Association, Lehigh avenue and Tenth street, to organize an emergency relief committee to look after the welfare of the soldiers and their families residing in their section of the city, which includes from York street to Allegheny avenue and from Sixth street to Broad. Mr. Joseph B. Depper, the president of the association, presided. These business men not only gave a banquet for the ninety-five soldiers leaving from their section on the night before their departure, but the board of managers, headed by Mr. George Drummond, chairman, telegraphed to Baltimore and also had luncheon prepared for the night when they arrived at that city.

Members, Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, Adelphi Hotel, 6 o'clock. Meeting, Walnut Street Business Association, Bellevue-Stratford. Meeting, Northwest Business Men's Association, 2345 West Columbia avenue, 8 o'clock. Meeting, West Philadelphia Business and Improvement League, 5902 Market street, 8 o'clock.

Address by Frederick B. Gruenberg, director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, before Young Men's Hebrew Association, Master street near Sixteenth.

"BANG! BANG! BANG!" BEAR SEASON OPENS

Sportsmen on the Trail of Big Game in Interior Pennsylvania

Bang! Bang! Bang! The big game hunting season is on. Bears, big and black, and in godly numbers, are being trailed by hundreds of modern nimrods today. One bear to a man is the law and three bears to a camp or group of men.

Reports received by the game commission indicate that bears are more numerous than last year in the northern part of the State, and many have been seen down through the Susquehanna district and up toward Williamsport and Lock Haven.

Many hunters are turning their attention to bear this year for a few weeks before the opening of the deer season, which now covers only the two-week period between December 1 and December 15. Bears may be shot from now on until December 15.

Reports received by the game commission indicate that deer are also plentiful. Many have been seen in the mountains near Dauphin, which is nine miles north of Harrisburg, and one came down out of the mountains, swam the Susquehanna River and disappeared in the Perry County hills. The animal was a five-year-old buck. It has been years since a deer has been seen so close to Harrisburg.

While Hungarian quail may be shot from October 20 to November 30, wild turkey may be killed only in the last half of November. Quail come in today and rabbits on November 1.

BRIDE TO BE ENTERTAINED Handkerchief Shower Given in Germantown on Saturday Afternoon for Tuesday's Bride

Miss Margaret La Rue, of 141 Pelham road, Germantown, gave a handkerchief shower at her home on Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Katharine Sexton, whose marriage to Lieutenant Henry Tetlow, 2d, will take place on Tuesday, October 16.

On Saturday, October 13, Miss Magdalena D. Robinson, of 342 West Johnson street, Germantown, gave a bridge party and miscellaneous shower for Miss Edyth Temple. Miss Temple expects to be married very shortly to Mr. Charles Scott App, of Philadelphia.

Miss Cornelia Skinner, of Pelham road, has gone to New York for several days.

MISS MARY DE HAVEN DERCUM

CHOPIN AFTERNOON FOR CLUB Music Department to Have Meeting in Marshall Hall in Oak Lane on Tuesday

The music department of the Review Club of Oak Lane will begin its season with a Chopin afternoon on October 17 at Marshall Hall. There will be an original paper on Chopin by Mrs. Willard P. Barrows, followed by a recital with Miss Letitia Radcliffe Miller, the talented young pianist and composer, as soloist.

The afternoon promises to be one of unusual interest and entertainment. Mrs. Ellen Armon, of North Sixth street, Oak Lane, is visiting her daughter in Annapolis, Md., for an indefinite stay. Mr. David J. Armon, Greenwood avenue, Jenkintown, spent Thursday in New York city.

Annual meeting and smoker, Automobile Club of Delaware County, Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, 7:45 o'clock. Dinner, Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, Adelphi Hotel, 6 o'clock. Meeting, Walnut Street Business Association, Bellevue-Stratford. Meeting, Northwest Business Men's Association, 2345 West Columbia avenue, 8 o'clock. Meeting, West Philadelphia Business and Improvement League, 5902 Market street, 8 o'clock.

Address by Frederick B. Gruenberg, director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, before Young Men's Hebrew Association, Master street near Sixteenth.

TODAY METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE

(Also at Downtown Ticket Office, 1108 Chestnut Street) 78,382 SEATS WILL BE PLACED ON SALE FOR THE LAST THREE WEEKS

The Biggest Dramatic Spectacle on Earth

THE WANDERER

Staged by DAVID BELASCO

Only 3 Weeks More of the Greatest Spectacular Drama Ever Brought to Philadelphia

NOT A MOVING PICTURE ADELPHI OPENING

A. H. WOODS Presents THE FUNNIEST FARCE OF THE SEASON MARY'S ANKLE with IRENE FENWICK

And All-Star Cast, including WALTER JONES POPULAR MATINEE THURSDAY, 11:00

LYRIC THE BRAT

WALNUT Evenings, Best Seats $1.00

ACADEMY OF MUSIC PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI, Conductor

CASINO MATINEE TODAY

NIXON 52d and MARKET STREETS ALL THIS WEEK

CONSCIENCE GLADYS BROCKWELL

WHITE HOUSE PICKETS HONORED WITH DINNER

Men and Women in Washington Compliment Militants Out of Occoquan

By CAROLINE KATZENSTEIN WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.

Men and women from different States assembled in the Cameron House, in this city, Saturday night to honor five pickets who had been released from Occoquan Workhouse after serving a sentence of thirty days for picketing the White House.

Two of the five released women were young Russians who fell bound, as they said, to help American women win political liberty—"Darkest Russia" of yesterday, the apostle of democracy today; Russian women going to prison that New World women might wrest from our dictatorial government what the Republic of Russia gave freely to all its people, men and women alike.

When Miss Nina Samaradin, of Kiev, Russia, mounted the speaker's stand and, in broken English, gave her reasons for joining the pickets, I was filled with pride and shame—pride for the splendid heroism of the young foreigner and shame that her sacrifice was needed.

Miss Anna Gventer, another Russian, was moving by her very presence. Her pale face and bent shoulders emphasized the frailness of her little body, and her weak voice made you strain to catch every word. Her thirty days in prison had robbed her of eleven pounds and had made her almost too weak to tell her story of the trials of Occoquan.

Mrs. Frederick Willard Kendall, wife of a newspaper editor in Buffalo, was another of the pickets who in no uncertain terms criticized the horrors of Occoquan. Her hollow cheeks and her loss of thirteen pounds in one month gave silent corroboration to her testimony.

Miss Katherine Fisher, of the District of Columbia, in a signed statement before a notary public, said in part: "There is no separation of tuberculars and other prisoners. A prisoner who had hemorrhages from the lungs handled clothing and the drinking water pall in our dormitory. I drank out of the same cup as the other prisoners. The punishment system is unchanged."

It is on the basis of such affidavits as these that Miss Jeanette Rankin has introduced a resolution calling for a congressional investigation of Occoquan.

The toastmistress of the dinner was Mrs. Richard Wainwright, wife of Rear Admiral Wainwright. In commenting on the indefatigable spirit of the pickets and their insistence on the immediate release of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, Mrs. Wainwright said, "They are a living reminder that while liberty enlightening the world stands at the gate of our nation, thousands who enter the gates must find that liberty does not exist in the United States of America, where 35,000,000 American citizens are without a voice in their own Government."

Among the Pennsylvanians who were present at the dinner were the new State chairman of the women's party, Miss Mary H. Ingham, Mrs. Mary H. Ingham, Mrs. Miss Elizabeth McShane and Mrs. A. I. Scollay, of Philadelphia, and Miss Kate C. Hofflinger, of Shamokin.

The following steps taken by the Sixty-fifth Congress in special session point to favorable action on the suffrage amendment this winter. The Senate reported its measure out of committee with favorable recommendations by a 75-15 vote of those present and voting. The House, by a large majority vote, created a special suffrage committee.

WHAT'S DOING TO NIGHT

Annual meeting and smoker, Automobile Club of Delaware County, Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, 7:45 o'clock.

Dinner, Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, Adelphi Hotel, 6 o'clock. Meeting, Walnut Street Business Association, Bellevue-Stratford. Meeting, Northwest Business Men's Association, 2345 West Columbia avenue, 8 o'clock. Meeting, West Philadelphia Business and Improvement League, 5902 Market street, 8 o'clock.

Address by Frederick B. Gruenberg, director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, before Young Men's Hebrew Association, Master street near Sixteenth.

TODAY METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE

(Also at Downtown Ticket Office, 1108 Chestnut Street) 78,382 SEATS WILL BE PLACED ON SALE FOR THE LAST THREE WEEKS

THE WANDERER

Staged by DAVID BELASCO

Only 3 Weeks More of the Greatest Spectacular Drama Ever Brought to Philadelphia

NOT A MOVING PICTURE ADELPHI OPENING

A. H. WOODS Presents THE FUNNIEST FARCE OF THE SEASON MARY'S ANKLE with IRENE FENWICK

And All-Star Cast, including WALTER JONES POPULAR MATINEE THURSDAY, 11:00

WHITE HOUSE PICKETS HONORED WITH DINNER

Men and Women in Washington Compliment Militants Out of Occoquan

By CAROLINE KATZENSTEIN WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.

Men and women from different States assembled in the Cameron House, in this city, Saturday night to honor five pickets who had been released from Occoquan Workhouse after serving a sentence of thirty days for picketing the White House.

Two of the five released women were young Russians who fell bound, as they said, to help American women win political liberty—"Darkest Russia" of yesterday, the apostle of democracy today; Russian women going to prison that New World women might wrest from our dictatorial government what the Republic of Russia gave freely to all its people, men and women alike.

When Miss Nina Samaradin, of Kiev, Russia, mounted the speaker's stand and, in broken English, gave her reasons for joining the pickets, I was filled with pride and shame—pride for the splendid heroism of the young foreigner and shame that her sacrifice was needed.

Miss Anna Gventer, another Russian, was moving by her very presence. Her pale face and bent shoulders emphasized the frailness of her little body, and her weak voice made you strain to catch every word. Her thirty days in prison had robbed her of eleven pounds and had made her almost too weak to tell her story of the trials of Occoquan.

Mrs. Frederick Willard Kendall, wife of a newspaper editor in Buffalo, was another of the pickets who in no uncertain terms criticized the horrors of Occoquan. Her hollow cheeks and her loss of thirteen pounds in one month gave silent corroboration to her testimony.

Miss Katherine Fisher, of the District of Columbia, in a signed statement before a notary public, said in part: "There is no separation of tuberculars and other prisoners. A prisoner who had hemorrhages from the lungs handled clothing and the drinking water pall in our dormitory. I drank out of the same cup as the other prisoners. The punishment system is unchanged."

It is on the basis of such affidavits as these that Miss Jeanette Rankin has introduced a resolution calling for a congressional investigation of Occoquan.

The toastmistress of the dinner was Mrs. Richard Wainwright, wife of Rear Admiral Wainwright. In commenting on the indefatigable spirit of the pickets and their insistence on the immediate release of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, Mrs. Wainwright said, "They are a living reminder that while liberty enlightening the world stands at the gate of our nation, thousands who enter the gates must find that liberty does not exist in the United States of America, where 35,000,000 American citizens are without a voice in their own Government."

Among the Pennsylvanians who were present at the dinner were the new State chairman of the women's party, Miss Mary H. Ingham, Mrs. Mary H. Ingham, Mrs. Miss Elizabeth McShane and Mrs. A. I. Scollay, of Philadelphia, and Miss Kate C. Hofflinger, of Shamokin.

The following steps taken by the Sixty-fifth Congress in special session point to favorable action on the suffrage amendment this winter. The Senate reported its measure out of committee with favorable recommendations by a 75-15 vote of those present and voting. The House, by a large majority vote, created a special suffrage committee.

WHAT'S DOING TO NIGHT

Annual meeting and smoker, Automobile Club of Delaware County, Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, 7:45 o'clock.

Dinner, Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, Adelphi Hotel, 6 o'clock. Meeting, Walnut Street Business Association, Bellevue-Stratford. Meeting, Northwest Business Men's Association, 2345 West Columbia avenue, 8 o'clock. Meeting, West Philadelphia Business and Improvement League, 5902 Market street, 8 o'clock.

Address by Frederick B. Gruenberg, director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, before Young Men's Hebrew Association, Master street near Sixteenth.

TODAY METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE

(Also at Downtown Ticket Office, 1108 Chestnut Street) 78,382 SEATS WILL BE PLACED ON SALE FOR THE LAST THREE WEEKS

THE WANDERER

Staged by DAVID BELASCO

Only 3 Weeks More of the Greatest Spectacular Drama Ever Brought to Philadelphia

NOT A MOVING PICTURE ADELPHI OPENING

A. H. WOODS Presents THE FUNNIEST FARCE OF THE SEASON MARY'S ANKLE with IRENE FENWICK

And All-Star Cast, including WALTER JONES POPULAR MATINEE THURSDAY, 11:00

THE STANLEY