The fanatic The fanatic is a queer, quaint institution. Here is a sample: In New York, for a number of series, loud outeries went up because the lower as well as the upper stands were reserved. Insistent calls were made that only the upper stands be re-merved and the lower stands thrown open to the populace on the "first come, first served" idea. This system was finally adopted. Then a new angle arose. Any number of fans re-fused to take a chance in the belief that yast crowds would be surging toward the turnstiles and that it would be impossible radict offered was this: That while Cobb as undoubtedly the greatest ball player attack the grame had ever known, eaker undoubtedly was the greatest de-native outfielder in all baseball records. Grif was the main spokeman for Speak-"T have seen them all," he said, "and is heads the outfielding list. Both squads have been practicing daily with Friday's game in view and the football fans and fanettes who expect to visit Houston Field the day of the game can rest assured that they will witness a first-class exhibition of the gridtron sport. Coach Glendon's men did not buy agame last week. Glendon did not want to take any unnecessary chandes of having his pupils injured, and rather than better to practice with the second equad.

Hard Practices Ahead

The Broad and Green street footballers will be drilled on open field plays today sid comorrow, as Doctor O'Brien is a great follower of the open siyle of play for a high school team. The ends, Voeglin and Gordon, who have been the weakest links in Central's chain, will receive a great deal of attention as most of Catholic High's ad-vances have been through addring the covances have been through skirting the op-

Nances have been through skirting the op-posing wing men. South Philadelphia High School's football manager must believe in working his men hard, as he has arranged two matches for this week. This attennoon the inter-scholastic champions will meet the strong sizven of Haddon Heights at Haddon Matche Coach Dawn Johnson's protesses Heights. Coach Dean Johnson's proteges should have no trouble in finishing on the long end of the score. This is, perhaps, the big object, but the local boys have an-other object in their visit. They have not had their goal line crossed in two years and have hopes of keeping their slate clean the remainder of this season. Although the remainder of this season. Although South Philadelphia has been successful in keeping the other fellows away from its gnal line, it has not crossed its opponents' line with any regularity and has only accred twenty-nine points in the games during the same period of time.

Time in History CHICAGO, Oct. 16. — Members of the Chicago City Council were engaged in a heated debate yesterday when Mayor Wil-liam Haie Thompson rapied for order and announced that the Chicago Americans had won the world's baseball championship. The victory was greeted with an uproar, A resolution congratulating Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, on the victorious players was passed and ordered telegraphed to New York.

Commacey, owner of the White Sox, on the victorious players was passed and ordered telegraphed to New York. "All those in favor of the resolution signify by saying 'aye." said the Mayor. The response in favor of it was deafening. "Let the records show that for once the Council agreed unanimously on a subject," repelled the Mayor. replied the Mayor.
