

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

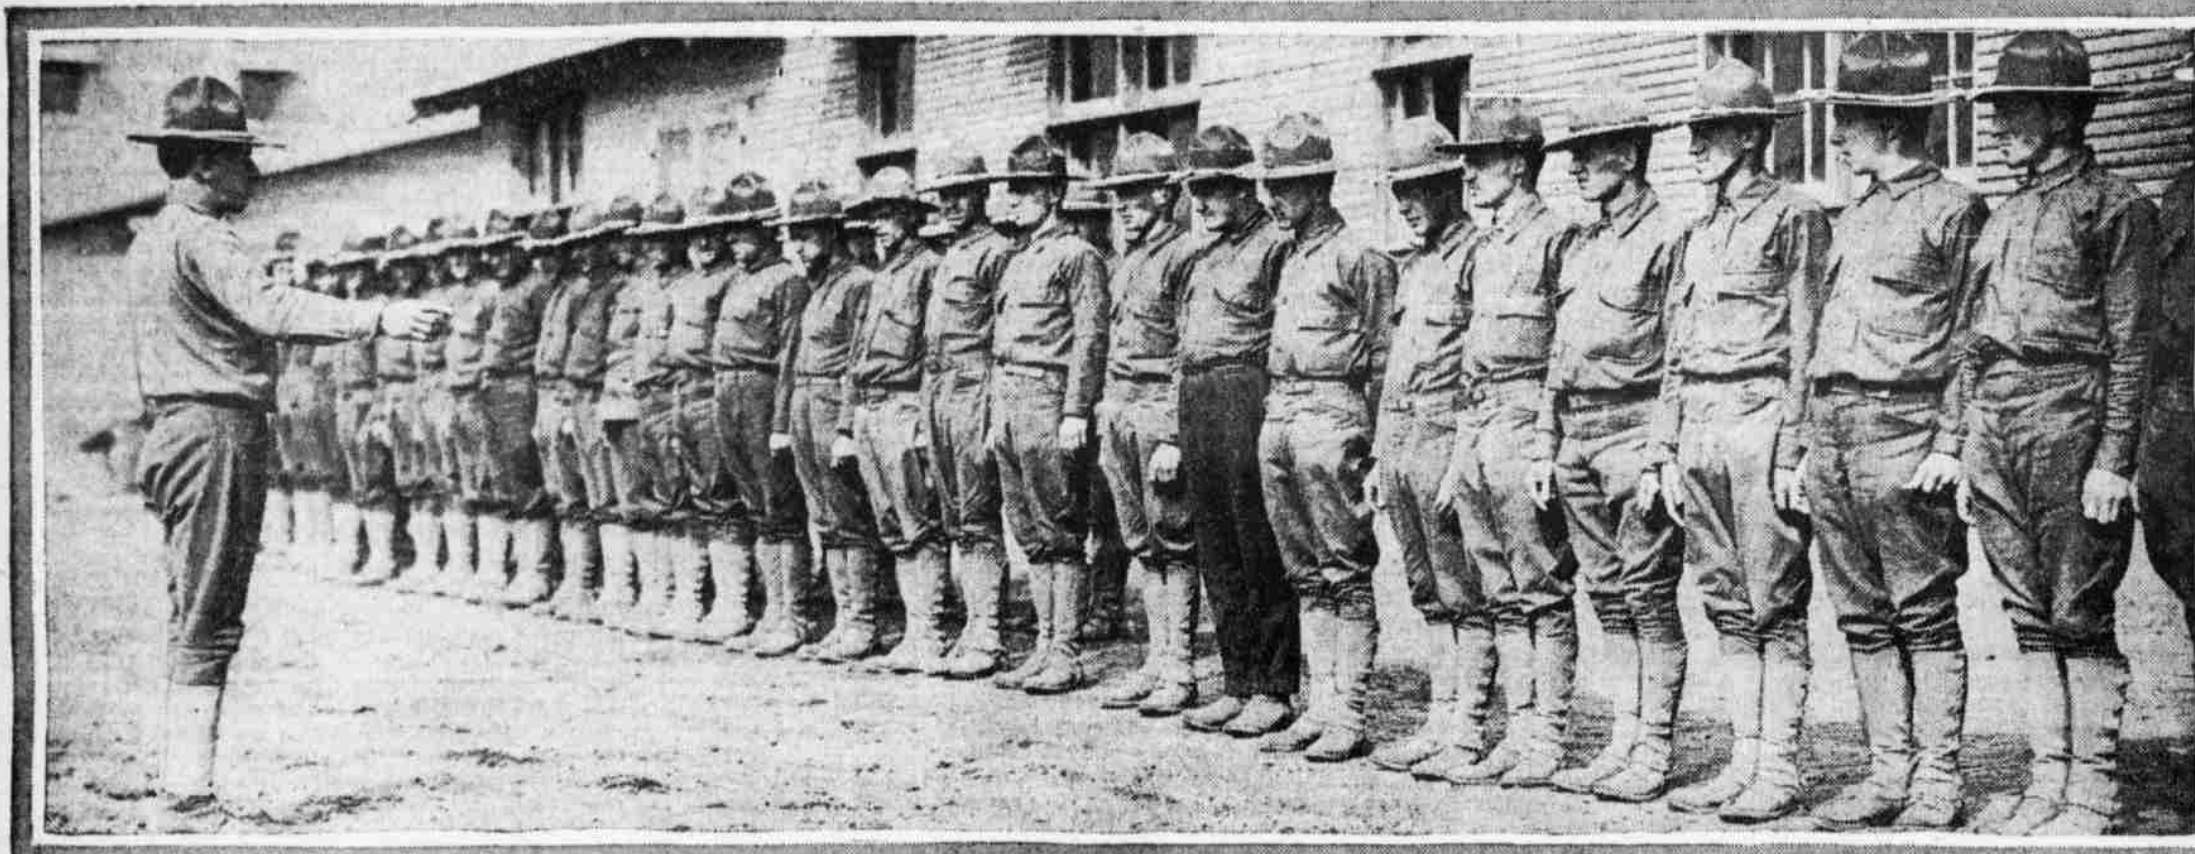

PICTORIAL
SECTION

LATEST PHOTOGRAPHS OF PHILADELPHIA'S DRAFTED UNITS IN TRAINING AT CAMP MEADE

Photographs by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer.

MEMBERS OF THE THIRTIETH TRAINING BATTALION, COMPOSED OF MEN FROM OVERBROOK, LOGAN AND OLNEY, LINE UP FOR THE EVENING LEDGER CAMERA MAN

LADS FROM LEHIGH, YORK AND LANCASTER COUNTIES, WHO HAVE BEEN ENROLLED IN THE HEADQUARTERS COMPANY ATTACHED TO THE 316TH REGIMENT OF INFANTRY

COLONEL T. W. DARRAH, COMMANDING THE 314TH INFANTRY

"WHAT IS LIFE WITHOUT A HIKE" IS THE SONG OF THE 314TH INFANTRY BOYS WHEN SETTING OUT ON THEIR DAILY TRAMP

CAMP MEADE IS A MELTING POT, IF NOTHING ELSE
Left to right are Emil Ganseman, R. T. Barbeck and Ernest Hinmsworth, of French, German and English extraction, respectively, who are enrolled in Company F, 315th Infantry.

THE ONLY CHINESE AT CAMP MEADE
None other than Sam Apau, known among followers of amateur baseball in this city as the star pitcher for Lit Brothers' team.